INDEPENDENCE TEAM WINS SHOOTING TOURNAMENT

Corvallis Is Close Second But Albany Shots Are Clear Out of Form.

Albany got a bump yesterday in the shooting tournament between the teams from Independence, Corvallis and the locals. Independence won with a score of 205 out of a possible 250, the high five men counting on each team. Two Salem men, Orville Wilson and Mark Siddall, attended, and made fair scores of 42 birds each, but they were the only ones from the Capital City.

High scores of the day were made by Johnson, Independence, with 46; Rickard, Corvallis, second with 45, and Baltimore third with 42. Ballack, Albany; Zieroll, Corvallis; Fenton, Independence, and Alexander, Independence, tied for fourth with 41 each. There were 35 men in all at the shoot.

The results were a disappointment
