PORTLAND WEEKLY STOCK MARKET REPORT

Portland, Thursday, May 20.—The receipts for the week have been: Cattle 941; calves, 44; hogs, 3770; sheep, 3186.

The cattle run was light this week and the offerings were mostly of the lightweight well finished class. Hay feds brought a good quarter more than was paid last week. Pulp feds sold for $8.20, the top price for the season. Hay feds $7.65 to $7.90; cows $6 to $6.50.

Prices went up another notch in the high division. Choice light hogs sold for $8.25 going down 10 cents near the close of the week. Demand good and market strong.

The receipts in the sheep section continue to be liberal. Lambs did not bring as good prices as were paid the previous week, dropping from $8.50 to $8.30 for first class stuff. Some lambs sold off cars at $8.50. Ewes are quoted at $5.25 to $5.75; yearlings $7 to $7.25.

LIBRARY LECTURES TO BE DISCONTINUED FOR SUMMER

The committee in charge of the library lecture course says:

"It seems best for the time being to discontinue the regular lectures under the auspices of the Albany Public Library. The time for the Commencement Exercises in the Colleges and high schools is approaching, and most instructors are occupied with getting their work in shape to close up the school year. For this reason it is very difficult to make engagements with lecturers for this season of the year.

"If any good thing comes along during the summer months, an endeavor will be made to give the people of Albany an opportunity to enjoy it. Meanwhile the committee will plan for the regular weekly lectures to begin again next fall, and to continue during the winter."

"If any of the citizens of Albany have any suggestions to make along the line of proposed lectures, the Committee will gladly hear from them."

STORY OF CHILDREN OF THE GHETTO

The story of "The Children of the Ghetto," which comes to the Rolfe today and tomorrow, vibrates with human emotion. Reb Schemmel, the old rabbi, played by Wilton Lackaye who created the original role on the speaking stage, makes an appeal that grips the heart, throbbles the throat and brings tears of sympathy even to the most sophisticated eyes.

His story is emblematic of the story of Israel and his sons. Reb Schemmel's children are weaned from him by a heterogeneous mixture of cosmopolitan life. His son is taken from him—and then his wife—and his only daughter almost breaks his steeled heart by eloping with a man an involved rabbinical law made it impossible for her to marry. Only his belief that God is just and his will be done sustains the old man in his trouble and saves him from a death of ennui. The atmosphere of the Jewish home, the touching comedy-drama of Jewish life and the sacred and serious purpose of the right-living Jew has been defined and delicately visualized on the screen with rugged fidelity and a strength of characterization almost startling in dramatic realism and intensity.

MANAGER AYERS REPORTS GOOD SHOW FOR GLOBE

Manager Ayres has secured an especially attractive program for the week end comprising feature, dramatic and comedy photo plays, and a refined musical vaudeville act as an added attraction. In the photo plays a Vitagraph three reel feature "O'Gary of the Royal Mounted," is the head line and it received especial notice in the Portland papers while showing at the Majestic Theatre. George Ade, the celebrated humorist, is represented by one of his noted fables, "The Cold Gray Dawn of the Morning After." Mills and Nelson, two well known artists, will offer a fifteen minute program of music and songs which no doubt will be appreciated by the patrons. The program also closes with a Selig comedy, "Why Billings was Late," which is full of action.

Milt. Miller Returns—
Hon. M. A. Miller, collector of Internal Revenue, of Portland, passed through the city this morning on his return from Rock Hill, near Lebanon, where he spoke yesterday at a meeting. It was there that he was raised and spent his early days.

Dr. Lee Will Preach—
During the absence of Rev. Geselbracht, who is out of the city for a few days, the pulpit will be occupied by Dr. Wallace H. Lee. His subject for the morning service Sunday will be "The Joy of Public Worship," and in the evening the text will be "God's Three Calls and Your Answer to Each."

Mrs. F. Denny returned to the city this morning after a visit with friends near Plainview.

City News

Will Locate at Sweet Home—

I. E. Keith, who has been employed in a Eugene clothing house for some time, left this morning for Sweet Home near Albany. He will take charge of a store which was recently purchased by his father, S. E. Keith.—Guard.

Beats Street Cars—

There are now at least four jitneys running regularly in Albany, two at Dawson's and two at Woodworth's, a second one having been added at Woodworth's. With four good jitneys running Albany doesn't ask any odds of big street car systems. You don't have to wait as long, you start right at your own door, and end at the door you are after, and the price is only 5 cents. That's a pretty small price; but that's why so many use the jitney. It's cheap and a wonderful convenience.

Advertising Pays—

One day at this city Miss Alice

Nolan received 320 votes clipped from Portland papers, the day before over 500, and large numbers every day. In this city Miss Nolan is leading by a large percentage. Some of the other candidates have friends here, and are also receiving votes. Every evening the box at Dawson's is filled with rose fair votes and Dawson's San Francisco trip votes.

Durea Secured By Ashland—

Morris J. Dureya, who was let out of the Eugene Commercial club has been secured for the Ashland commercial club, and will run the booster business of that city. Dureya is a good one, and will be an addition to the interests of Ashland.

Conference Track Meet—

The annual track and field meet of the Northwest Conference Colleges will be held in Corvallis next Friday, May 28, according to attractive posters which made their appearance here today. The conference is composed of the Universities of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, Oregon Agricultural College, Washington State College and Whitman College. The big fight will be between O. A. C. and U. of O. Oregon won from the University of Washington last Saturday by the score of 86 to 35. Both Oregon schools have good teams and will fight to the last ditch.

Our Weather—

Just a little chilly here days; but read this morning's Oregonian, and see what is being done in Nebraska, one foot of snow yesterday, and all through the East bad weather.

Stopping Speeding —

How to make automobiles keep their speed down while going through the country is quite a problem. An Albany man has shown the Democrat a paper from the East which tells how they do it in Fayette county, Ky. There they put hogbacks in the road, at intervals, and the machines have to slow down. Some of our roads don't need any hogbacks for that.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Smith and children, came over from Lebanon on the morning train to witness the parade and circus.

L. H. Truelove and daughters Bessie and Addie, arrived in the city this morning to do some shopping and attend the big circus.
