A delightful affair of the week took place on Monday at the O. D. Austin home on Montgomery street when Mrs. Austin and her sister, Mrs. D. J. Ballantyne, entertained for their mother, Mrs. Ellen Jones. Little Miss Geraldine Kinne, dressed in a dainty white frock trimmed in pink, received the guests at the door. The rooms were artistically decorated in a riot of roses, which made an effective background for the smartly gowned ladies. Fancy-work and music furnished the afternoon's diversion. The musical program, which was very much enjoyed, consisted of vocal solos by Mesdames Rhodes, Nutting Davis and Kelly and a piano selection by Miss Logan. Mrs. Worrell and Mrs. Burkhardt rendered a piano duet. At the close of the afternoon, a dainty luncheon was served by the Misses Marciel Austin, Lucile Longbottom, Violet Nutting and Nathiel Donaca. The privileged guests included Mesdames E. Wiles, F. C. Pate, L. O. Coates, H. L. Boehmeyer, H. H. Hewitt, S. C. Worrell, Walton Worrell, Howard Reeves, J. J. Collins, Fred Fortmiller, A. Stark, Riggs, D. H. Bodine, J. A. McKillop, J. D. Summers, W. A. Barrett, O. E. Kinne, W. C. Tweedale, J. W. Weatherford, Arthur Bowersox, L. H. Fish, W. H. Holman, L. E. Hamilton, Longbottom, W. H. Rhodes, F. P. Nutting, L. L. Swan, J. L. White, Percy Kelly, Louis Viereck, Edward Viereck, Charles Monson, Harriet Paulk (Alaska), Griff King, Grant Pirtle, A. Austin, H. Palmer, William Hand, John Robson, G. W. Wright, McClesney, W. H. Davis, Logan, Dawson, George Taylor, Robert Burkhardt, Hugh Fisher, W. L. Marks, Fred Ward, Reed Walworth, D. Wakefield (Portland), Glen Jenkins, Bert Westbrook, U. G. Smith, R. A. B. Veal and Miss Nellie Pate.

Dr. and Mrs. Kavanaugh were presented with a gift as a remembrance from the guests. The additional guests included Messrs. and Mesdames A. Mitchell, J. F. Dooley, J. Lindgren, Grant Pirtle, Miss Stella Dorgan, Miss Anna Schultz, Mrs. Louis Goff, Mrs. Peter Paulus, Mr. Ora Baker and Mr. Harry Shea.

Mrs. Frank Meister entertained the members of the Artercraft club on Tuesday. A pleasant time was passed in sewing and conversation and at the close, dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Ethel Beougher, senior of the Albany high school, was the inspiration for a farewell party on Wednesday at the home of Miss Winnifred Hadley at her home, 1240 Water street. Games and music furnished the evening's diversions and at the close of a social hour, choice refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Maurer, Mr. and Mrs. Hadley, Misses Ester Gilbert, Esther Maurer, Minnie Hadley, Ethel Beougher, Messrs. Leslie Babb, Barclay Newman, Glenn Monosmith, Otto LaGrange, Emil Gilberg, Lloyd Hadley and Chester Hughson.

About thirty-five neighborhood friends surprised Mrs. R. Holbrook on Wednesday, at her home in Albany heights, the occasion being her birthday. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white roses. The evening was passed in games and music. Miss Alice Holbrook rendered several vocal and piano selections. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the evening by Mrs. Van Nuyden and Mrs. Walter Daggett and Miss Alice Holbrook.

Mrs. F. C. Pate was a charming hostess today, when she entertained at cards. "Bridge" was the game played and the guests made up six tables. In the late afternoon a dainty collation was served. The privileged guests included Mesdames A. Austin, O. D. Austin, Reed Walworth, Riggs, J. D. Summers, Francis Arnold, J. J. Collins, C. R. Holvert, Chas. Monson, Falk (Alaska), C. H. Wieder, L. H. Fish, McAlpin, Clara Hand, Mark Weatherford, Grant Pirtle, P. R. Kelly, Earl Fisher, W. L. Marks, Walton Worrell, Fred Ward, Glen Jenkins, Will Merrill, and Brundage.

Miss Bernice Hackleman will be presented by Miss Waggener in a piano recital and Miss Eva Gentry will be presented by Mrs. Flo in voice next Thursday evening, after prayer meeting, at eight-thirty o'clock in the First Presbyterian church. All friends of Miss Hackleman and Miss Gentry are invited to be present, as no invitations have been issued.

The Hotel St. Francis was the scene of a delightful gathering on Wednesday evening when the class of '16 of the Albany High School complimented the class of '15, the occasion being the annual Junior-Senior banquet. Miss Margaret Gibson and Mr. Lyle Bain, who had charge of affairs, were assisted in receiving by the Misses Eleanor Bruce and Hildegard Spillman and Messrs. Forest Campbell and Fred Aldrich. Promptly at 8:15 the jolly crowd entered the dining room and found unique hand painted place cards, marking places for the ninety-six guests. The tables were decorated with dark red roses, the Senior class flower. The attractive programs bore the junior class emblem. After the elaborate ten course dinner, Francis Beels, president of the junior class, acted as toastmaster and the following spicy toasts were given:

"Sunrise" Lyle Bain
"Sunset" Kenneth Stevens
Smiles Elton Gildow
Tears Daisy Crocker
Talk David Wieder
Idleness Margaret Gibson
Habits Prof. Finnerty
Recollections Abbie Anderson

The affair was a success from every standpoint, and the seniors are loud in their praise of the hospitality of the juniors.

Mrs. Hary F. Wilkins extended the hospitality of her home on Thursday to the members of the Thursday Study club and a few additional guests. Mrs. E. M. Pugh read a paper on "The Royal Gorge of Colorado," which was full of interest and Mrs. J. A. W. Gardener read a splendid paper on "British Columbia." Miss Hazel Hockensmith sang a solo, after which the ladies passed a social hour together, followed by a dainty repast served by Misses Gertrude Swank and Aubrey McMicken. The hostess complimented on this occasion Mesdames Mark Weatherford, Lamb, (Alaska), McKeig, R. S. Wilkins, Fred Ward, W. H. Davis, and Miss Weatherford.

In honor of Messrs. W. A. Barrett and A. Mickel, who have recently been elected to the two highest positions of the Knights of Columbus in the state, and Father Van Nevel, a reception was given in the K. C. hall on Thursday, by the members of the local council. The hall was prettily decorated for the occasion with roses and ivy. A splendid musical program was given, which consisted of several vocal solos by Miss Pauline Liska, a trio by Miss Liska, Mrs. Mickel and Professor Palmer, followed by a number of short speeches. About ten K. C. members from Corvallis were present also. A dainty luncheon closed an enjoyable evening.

Miss Helen Myers was a charming hostess on Thursday at luncheon, in the dining room of the Albany high school, the occasion being her birthday. Pink LaFrance roses centered the table and a large cake with candles. The invited guests included Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis, Mesdames Elizabeth Stewart, Nellie Myers, Smith Cox, Sarah Bloom, Dr. O. K. Beers (Chicago), H. Bryant, Misses Hallie and Frances Myers and Mr. Lyndon Myers, Misses Ruth Fisher and Violet Painter served.

The Epicurean club gave a "covered dish supper" on Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Summers on Ferry street. After a delightful supper, the guests enjoyed themselves in playing cards and dancing. The members are Messrs. and Mesdames S. E. Watson, Riggs, A. J. Hodges, L. H. Fish, Glenn Jenkins, and J. D. Summers.

The H. D. W. club met with Mrs. Walters on East Third street on Thursday. Sewing was the pastime of the afternoon, after which refreshments were served. Mrs. Hovet and Mrs. Conn were honored guests.

Miss Violet Nutting entertained the S. C. club, a class composed of girls of the United Presbyterian Sabbath school, Miss Gaff, teacher, on Wednesday. A pleasant evening was passed in sewing and music, followed by refreshments.

On Wednesday the ladies of the Methodist church served dinner to the members of the Official Board and their wives, in the dining room of the church. The regular monthly business meeting took place, followed by a social hour.

Miss Helen Myers entertained the lady teachers of the faculty of the Albany high school on Thursday afternoon, in the domestic science room. Choice refreshments were served by the hostess.

A few friends passed an informal evening on Wednesday at the Brenner home on West Third street. Cards were played and at a late hour refreshments were served.

Mrs. S. E. Watson entertained at a little informal card party on Tuesday. Dainty refreshments rounded out the evening's gaiety.

Mrs. Wm. T. Panck was a hostess yesterday at an informal sewing party complimenting her sister, Mrs. A. O. Ramsden, of Portland, who has been visiting here for the past week. Pink carnation and LaFrance roses artistically arranged, adorned the living rooms. After a pleasant afternoon spent in sewing a dainty collation was served. Guests were: Mrs. A. O. Ramsden, Mrs. Wm. Hofflich, Mrs. Fred Harris, Mrs. R. H. Kaltz, Mrs. Frank Powell, Mrs. A. F. Duplisea, Mrs. Truman Babb, Mrs. Wm. Bachmeyer and Mrs. Boehmeyer, Sr., of Ohio, Mrs. Frank Meister, Mrs. McAlpin and Miss Kathryn Chambers.

A very enjoyable time was passed on Friday at the home of Mrs. C. B. Winn, when she entertained for the ladies of the Leisure Hour club. A unique feature of the afternoon, prepared by the hostess for her guests, was "The Sixteenth Annual Commencement exercises, which took place at three o'clock at Winn Hall." Each lady was considered a senior and at the close was presented with a diploma, which, when opened was found to be the new book of views of Oregon. The following commencement program was given which caused a great deal of merriment and laughter:

The hostess served a dainty collation after the program. The complimented guests included Mrs. Flo, Mrs. Church, Misses Hutchinson, Waggener, Clement, Ball, Anderson, Irvine and Blackwell.

The senior class of the Albany high gave a hay rack ride last night to the home of Miss Fannie Fromm, about six miles southwest of town. Games and music were very much enjoyed during the evening after which a dainty lunch was served. The jolly crowd returned to Albany in the "small wet hours of the morning." Miss Willetta Wright chaperoned the students.

Mrs. Burnett entertained for the Needlecraft club on Thursday, at her home on the Santiam Road. The ladies brought their fancy-work and passed a few hours together in sewing and a social hour. At the close dainty refreshments were served.

The Neous Numphe club met with Mrs. Joe Warner on Friday. The young ladies passed the afternoon in sewing and conversation. A dainty repast rounded out the afternoon's pleasure. Mrs. Glen Willard was elected a new member. The members present were Mesdames John Bryant, Charles Essex, Frank Eyronds, Rollin Hackleman, Lloyd Marquam, Joe Warner, and Glen Willard.

Miss Nellie Pate was hostess for the Twilight club members on Tuesday. Supper was served at six o'clock after which sewing and music were the evening's diversions.

A Country Newspapers Comment—
The Stayton Times this week wrote up a travelling medicine company. Here are some samples: Mr. Herkimer was told in a joke one day that he could sing. We enjoyed Mr. Mars chestnuts except when he got funny. Dr. Pardey missed his calling when he went on the road. He should have run the European war.

Mr. and Mrs. I. V. Kane returned to Lyons after a visit with friends here and at Portland.
