

R & G Corsets

in the new models, insure corset comfort and satisfaction. We are showing to models at $1.25 and $2 pair that are particularly good.

Kabo front-lace Corsets at $2, $2.50, and $3 pair

Agents for Standard Patterns

FLOOD'S STORE

Agents for Kabo Corsets

City News

Had Family Reunion

At the home of Ralph Groshong, at Devers, near this city on the O. E., yesterday, there was a reunion of the family of J. W. Groshong, of this city, a pleasing event, attended by Mr. Groshong's children and their families, and also by his father, Jos. Groshong, of this city. The children were Mrs. Don Humphrey, with her husband and two daughters, who were here in their car; Mrs. Lew Stigman and husband, of Gervais, and Mrs. R. G. Woodworth and husband, of this city.

From 6 to 7—

That is the time when the dinner will be served by the ladies of the U. P. church tomorrow evening in the basement parlors. Price 25 cents. It will be a good one. All invited.

Leaburg P. O.—

A civil service examination for the post office at Leaburg, Lane county, has been called. Information may be secured by writing the post office department.

Left for Aberdeen—

L. T. Shipley, of the U. S. government service, left early this morning for Aberdeen, Wash., to do some inspecting for Uncle Sam. Until given a definite assignment Mr. Shipley will make his headquarters in Albany, going out to different places where buildings are in course of construction or being repaired, or sites are being selected.

Returned from S. F.—

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Young and daughter, Miss Isabelle, returned Saturday evening from San Francisco. Miss Isabelle recently graduated from the Harker preparatory school, and Mr. and Mrs. Young were there to attend the exercises, and also to see the fair. Miss Isabelle will spend the summer here, and then go East to Vassar.

Dr. Jones in Town—

Dr. D. M. Jones returned to Soda-ville today after spending a few days here looking after the details for his new house on Fifth and Railroad streets. During the excavation for the basement, Mr. Jones says the workmen uncovered a walled-in well, which he will have fixed up for use.

Over from Sheridan—

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Karstens, and H. H. Beeson, Forded over from Sheridan yesterday for a visit with relatives. Mr. Beeson and Mr. Karstens returned in the evening, but Mrs. Karstens will remain for awhile.

Alumni Meeting—

A meeting of the Alumni of Albany College will be held at the Library this evening at 7:30. Every member of the association is urged to be present. The meeting will be short and will be out in time for any other engagements of the evening. Signed, President.

Lawyer in Portland—

Lawyer E. E. Richardson went to Portland this morning on legal business, and will be gone two or three days.

Dental Student Home—

Melvin Williamson, a former high school student, arrived home yesterday from Portland, where he has been attending the dental college, and will spend the summer in this county. He likes the work in the profession he has chosen.

Here from Olympia—

Dr. Wayne Bridgeford, of Olympia, Washington, is in the city today on a visit with his folks. Every time he comes he is just a little heavier, a prosperous physician and success in his profession.

A Boy Correspondent—

Elsewhere will be found a well written letter from Elwood Rhodes, an Albany boy, who is spending a few months in the Middle East. Elwood is now eleven years of age, and has never been to school a day in his life, being a cripple, and yet he writes with the maturity of a man. There was not a mistake in his letter which is given without correction.

Traveling in their Own Train—

Mr. Breedlove and family, and wife's parents, passed through the city this forenoon, on the Second street route, in their own train, which consisted of two schooners and a hack, and a cow and calf. They were from North Yakima, where they formerly resided, which they left six weeks ago, taking their ease along the way. Down near Jefferson they worked a few days on the road. The Sacramento valley is their destination.

Y. M. C. A. Tennis Club—

Three tennis club are being organized by the Y. M. C. A. Men, women and boys will each have an organization. Two courts are being put in shape and in a few days much activity will be observed on the lot at the rear of the gymnasium.

Boy Scouts—

Friday evening the Boy Scouts will begin the study of first aid to the injured, under the direction of Superintendent McDonald of the Y. M. C. A. Different methods of attending to the injured, transporting them to camp, applying temporary remedies, bandages, etc., will be taken up. There are 16 members of the scouts, at present. Friday evening examinations will be held to take in eight more boys, and it is expected to have a full troupe of 32 scouts by Fall. A camping trip will be taken this summer. C. J. Irvine, J. C. Minton and R. D. Custer are the local council for the scouts.

Says Times Good Here—

M. Summerfield, proprietor of the 5, 10, 15 cent store on First street, left for Silverton this morning to call on some customers for his son, who is traveling for a mercantile firm. Mr. Summerfield has been making frequent trips about the valley and says that he finds business better right here than any place else.

Commercial Club Tonight—

This is the regular night for the meeting of the Commercial club, which will hold forth in the club rooms at 7:30 p. m.

Clover Expert Here—

Cecil W. Creel, U. S. clover expert, with headquarters at Forest Grove, is in the city today.

Missionary at Siletz—

Rev. J. T. Abbott, district superintendent of the M. E. church, passed through the city this noon on his way home from Salem, where he had been to attend the funeral of Rev. W. T. Pierce, missionary at the Siletz reservation, who died last week. Rev. Pierce is highly spoken of in connection with his work among the Indians.

Died Near Halsey—

Mrs. John Bramble died yesterday at her home at Lake Creek, near Halsey, at the age of about 55 years. She was a native of this county, the daughter of a prominent pioneer, Wm. Shepherd, who died several years ago, and was born near Halsey, where she spent all her life, a woman of excellent character, esteemed by a large circle of friends. She leaves a husband and two children, a son and a daughter, both married.

W. C. T. U. Will Meet—

The W. C. T. U. will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 in the public library. A paper by Mrs. M. M. Gibson, on the Evangelistic department will be of interest to all. Members requested to attend and visitors welcome.

H. A. Weaver Fined—

H. A. Weaver, charged with assault upon an old man, plead guilty today in Judge Swan's court to the charge of beating his step-father, W. H. Gillard, and was given the minimum fine, which with costs amounted to about $26. He was fined $50 in the police court about a month ago.

Poor Fishing Weather—

Burr Sloan, Clye Dannels and Jim Dannels, of Portland, returned Sunday evening from a trip to Fish Creek, in the Alsea country, about 45 miles from here. The weather was against good fishing, but the boys caught about 50 nice trout, the longest of which was over 23 inches. All were good sized. The farmers in that district have combined to prevent fishing along the creek, so the boys only had about a mile of creek in which to cast.

Weather Report—

Showers tonight and Tuesday. The temperature yesterday ranged between 46 and 61 degrees. The rainfall totaled .19 inches and the river rose to 5.8 feet above low water.

Died—

McClain, Helen Irene, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McClain, aged 8 months and 16 days. Funeral services were held this morning at 10 o'clock.

Eastern People Visit—

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Morehouse, of St. Louis, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Buchanan, of New York, spent Sunday in Albany. They have been to the fairs in California and are returning via the northern route. They left for Portland this morning.

Idaho Woman Visits—

Mrs. H. J. Showalter, of Plumber, Idaho, left this morning for her home after a visit with Mrs. B. J. Hall in this city. She is on her way home from Los Angeles.

Gone to Kansas—

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Leach and daughter left yesterday for Kansas

The Ladies Society of the First Presbyterian church will give a salmon and strawberry short cake supper Friday, May 28, 5 to 7 p. m. in the church basement. 25 cents. m21-27

FOR RENT—First class store room, First street. Call on Dr. A. Stark. m22tf

TO TRADE—Will trade second hand two seated buggy for saddle. See Rawlings, 121 Broadalbin St.

FOR SALE—No. 1 kale plants, any amount. A Bender, 3 miles south of Albany, on Tangent road. Bell 609R4. m21J21

ROLFE
Today
Duel in the Dark
2 Reels
Florence Labadie and
Morris Foster
The Old Chemist
Two Reels
Ford Detroit Weekly
Current events
From Patches to Plenty
Keystone Comedy
Good Music
All For 10 cents

City where they will visit relatives for a few weeks.

Suit to Collect Money—

A. P. Dodson has begun suit to collect $350 and interest and $50 attorney fees from A. S. Burrill, et al; due on a note given April 14, 1914.

License to Wed—

County Clerk Russell today issued a marriage license to E. P. Cunningham, a farmer living near Shedd, and Edith Fish, a school teacher residing in Albany, who recently taught near Shedd.

She Won First Prize—

Florence LaBodie, who will be seen in a Duel in the Dark, at the Rolfe tonight, is the young lady who won the first prize in the Million Dollar Mystery contest, a notable event.

Here from Oklahoma—

Louisian Croissant, of Oklahoma, is here on a visit the guest of his sister, Mrs. Fred Ries. He is a former resident of Linn county, going back to Oklahoma to make his home.

E. R. BENSON, 1ST. V. P. OF STUDEBAKER CO. HERE

E. R. Benson, first vice president and general manager of the Studebaker corporation of America, of Detroit, Mich., was a visitor in Albany for a short time Sunday. Mr. Benson was on his way to Portland to attend a meeting of Northwest Studebaker automobile dealers, which assembles there tomorrow.

Mr. Benson was met at the train by M. P. Cady and R. Walworth, local Studebaker dealers, with a huge bouquet of La France roses, which were pronounced the finest that the party had seen on the trip. Mr. Benson, who is accompanied by his wife and daughter, expressed his admiration for this part of the country, and were greatly pleased with the Willamette valley.

O. V. White came over from Lebanon on the morning train.

Jack Berry went to Mill City this morning.

Edwin Fortmiller returned this morning from Eugene where he spent the week-end.

Howard L. Salisbury, of Portland, was here today conferring with the Chautauqua board regarding the printing for Chautauqua.

Watt Shipp, a Salem merchant, returned to the Capital City this morning after a business visit here.

Ralph Thom returned from Lebanon this morning after a week-end visit.

Miss Eva Wallace, a student at Albany College, spent Sunday at the home of her parents in Lebanon.

Z. J. Brown and wife of Lebanon, were in the city today, having been in Eugene the past week.

Subscribers.

If the boys fail to deliver the paper each evening kindly phone to the office. The management invites complaints from its patrons and will do its best to correct faulty service.

C-SAW
The Ideal
Child's Shoe

Extension soles and heels, flexible as a sole, with added wear and comfort.

No seams on the inside—different from all other Child's Shoes.

We have them in patent leather, kid and velvet. Both high and low shoes. Sizes 1 to 8.

Prices $1.50 to $2

McDOWELL SHOE CO.
235 WEST FIRST ST.

COMING
Wednesday
June 2
ENGAGEMENT
EXTRAORDINARY
Guy Bates
POST
in
OMAR
THE TENTMAKER

A Spectacular Persian Romance by Richard Walton Tully, author of "The Bird of Paradise"

The Season's Supreme Spectacle!

Mail orders now

PRICES: Gal., Bal. 75c
Dress Cir $1, Orch. $1.50

Daily Democrat by Carrier, 84 Year.

WEDNESDAY THURSDAY
CHARLIE CHAPLIN
GLOBE THEATRE

New Today
Ladies' and Misses' Silk Crepe Dresses, pretty styles, all colors, all sizes—$12.50 values, our price . . . $6.90

10 Dozen New Shirt Waists in all Materials $1.50 and $2.00 grades everywhere. Our price 98c

New Wash Skirts 98c, $1.49, $1.98, sell for 50 per cent more everywhere.

5 Dozen Playtime Overalls 49c

PRICES THE SAME 365 DAYS IN THE YEAR.

THE GOLDEN RULE
83 BUSHY STORES

MAY MARKET DAY SALE
SATURDAY, the 29th
This Will Be a Civic Celebration

Senator Lane will address the multitude at 1 p. m. and stir up interest in community welfare

Large quantities of stock will change hands at this Sale—Great opportunity to buy and sell. Farmers should list their offerings by Wednesday the 26th. Consignments received by Secretary Commercial Club

Stein & Newman
CLOSES OUT!

Every article, including fixtures, positively On Sale at Closing-Out Prices. You are always welcome to look over our stock and see for yourself. No trouble to show goods.

THIS STORE FOR RENT—See Dr. Stark

We are offering some of the greatest bargains ever offered in Albany, in Men's and Boys' Clothing and Furnishings.

BUY THAT STRAW HAT NOW. $5 Knox Straws $2.45, $3.00 Bercon Straws $1.65. One lot Boys' $2 Felt Hats for 65c, one lot Boys' $1.25 and $1.50 Felt Hats 50c. Children's Hats 10c and up to 35c. Boys' Overalls 37c. Boys' Waists 21c.

Stein & Newman
330 West First Street Albany, Oregon