Mrs. A. Austin extended the hospitality of her home on Monday to the members of the Monday Bridge club and several additional guests. Cards were played and a dainty repast rounded out the afternoon's pleasure. The members present were: Mesdames Earl Fisher, Glen Jenkins, Grant Pirtle, W. L. Marks, Walton Worrell and P. R. Kelly. The hostess complimented on this occasion, Mesdames O. D. Austin, C. W. Tebault, Z. Rudd, F. C. Pate, J. L. White, Reed Walworth, J. K. Haight, Charles Burggraf, J. J. Collins, MaAlpin, Summers, L. L. Swan, L. H. Finn and C. H. Wieder.

A few friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barker on Wednesday evening to bid "farewell" to Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Kinne and daughter, who have been residents of Albany for the past two years. They left for their future home in St. Louis, Missouri, going by way of San Francisco and San Diego. The evening was passed in a social hour, followed by refreshments, after which the crowd went to the depot to see them off. Those in the party included Messrs. and Madames J. W. Weatherford, Glen Jenkins, O. D. Austin, L. L. Swan, and W. H. Barker.

Miss Winnie Hadley was a delightful hostess on Thursday in the domestic science dining room of the high school when she entertained at luncheon. Seated around the table, which was prettily decked with sweet brier, were Rev. and Mrs. Ezra Maurer, Misses Louise Blackwell, Gladys Shary, Winnie Hadley and Lloyd Hadley.

Miss Anita Conn entertained the Kewpie club girls on Tuesday at a "covered dish supper," at her home on West Fifth street. Pink and white roses centered the attractively decorated table and Dutch place cards marked covers for the members and the honored guest, Miss Christine Pipe. The latter part of the evening was passed at the Globe theatre.

Miss Maude Wills entertained the teachers of the Maple street school at dinner on Wednesday night.

Miss Bertha Braden entertained at a delightful little dinner party on a delightful Tuesday, at the Hotel St. Francis. Pink roses centered the table around which were seated the Misses Edith, Minnie and Frances McCourt, Mabel Schultz, Pansy Colby and Bertha Braden. The latter part of the evening was passed at the Globe Theatre.

The Ladies of the Maccabees enjoyed a "covered dish luncheon" on Thursday evening after a short business session. Mrs. Westfall of Portland was an honored guest.

The Friscilla club members met with Mrs. Glen Jenkins on Thursday. Fancy work was the pastime of the afternoon and at the close, a choice collation was served. Mrs. Brundage was a complimented guest.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Weatherford were hosts to the Lafolet club on Monday. "500" was the game played during the evening, followed by choice refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Tweedale and Mr. and Mrs. Bowersox were guests.

Mrs. C. W. Tebault was hostess for the Entre Nous club on Tuesday. "Bridge" was the game played, during this afternoon, followed by dainty refreshments.

A reception was tendered Rev. and Mrs. Young on Tuesday by the members of the Baptist church. A short musical program was given, followed by an address by Dr. W. P. White of the United Presbyterian church and a response by Rev. Mr. Young. Refreshments closed a pleasant evening.
