ceived from their hands, the flowers, the food and the glad hand; and we also wish to express our appreciation of the presence and inspiration of the remarks of Rev. Gilchrist, pastor of the Oakville church, and of our state vice president, Mrs. Henrietta Brown.

Resolved, That we put ourselves on record as being in full accord with our president, Woodrow Wilson, in the policy which he is pursuing with warring nations, and that we pray most earnestly for him and for universal peace, and that we advocate only peaceful training for the youth of our country.

Resolved, That we commend Supt. Churchill and his helpers, who have planned so ably for a course of Bible study in our high school, and that we encourage our schools to avail themselves of the plan. We also would urge our women to do more to encourage Sabbath observance, the safeguard of a Christian nation.

Be it Further Resolved, That we will strive at all times to prepare ourselves that we may in an efficient manner use our influence so that we may assist the cause and hasten the day of national prohibition.

Respectfully submitted, Mrs. D. H. Bodine, Mrs. Edger Burton.

In the evening a grand gold medal contest was held with four contestants, Mrs. Archibald, and Mrs. McBride, of Oakville; Mrs. Alex Fletcher of Plainville, and Mrs. Rose Mears of Brownsville. Each gave a good reading, well delivered, but to one and one only could the beautiful medal be awarded. Mrs. Rose Mears was the fortunate one and Mrs. Smith, of Corvallis, in a pleasing manner presented the medal. Several beautiful vocal selections were rendered during the evening by Mr. Hamilton, Miss Yates and Mrs. Porter. Mrs. Wilhelm gave a reading while the judges were making up their decision. Benediction was pronounced by Rev. Gilchrist, closing the day's program.

AT THE THEATRES

One of the highest salaried actors on the moving picture stage will be seen at the Rolfe theatre tonight when the Box Office Attraction Co. releases "A Celebrated Scandal," with Miss Bettie Nansen, of the Royal Theatre, Copenhagen, Denmark, in the leading part. Miss Nansen was brought to this country at a salary of $3000 a week. "A Celebrated Scandal" is the first picture she has made. Miss Nansen is a woman of striking beauty and sparkling personality and intellect. She is today in the full bloom of her dramatic genius and at the apex of her remarkable powers. As an example of her talent for expression and interpretation it may be mentioned that she played in both Russia and Finland in the Danish tongue, which was of course unintelligible to all but very few of her audiences; but she scored as great a triumph in the land of the Czar as in her native country.

Besides this star feature, there will also be shown a comedy. The headliner at the Globe is a reel of pictures of the ill-fated steamship Lusitania, which was recently sent to the bottom of the ocean by German torpedoes. The boat is shown leaving New York harbor on her last voyage, scenes on the boats, submarine boats and other interesting things in connection with the loss of the great ship. "The Gentleman Burglar," in two acts, and three other good reels, including the hazards of Helen, make up the rest of the picture program. Huddleson and Blackburn are on again for Xylophone duets.

HOW TO GET A FREE TICKET TO THE FAIR

To the citizens of Albany and surrounding country:

You no doubt have seen from time to time in our newspapers notices of the Panama Exposition contest which I am holding at my Rexall Drug store and to the end that you may fully understand the contest I am printing this notice.

To the one receiving the most votes in the city of Albany, I am giving a free round trip ticket to Frisco and the one receiving the most votes on the rural routes, I also give a round trip to Frisco, free. To the second highest in both city and country, I give a kodak free.

The votes are given away with every cash purchase at our store, a five cent purchase is one vote, a dollar purchase 20 votes. Now this means that with your purchases you may help one of the candidates to secure these prizes.

We shall be glad to see you interest yourselves in this contest, for as every one knows it will be an education perhaps never again to be acquired. It is in your power to give this education to one of the candidates. They are all deserving and well worth a little effort. May they have your support.

FRED DAWSON.

Will Visit Brother—

John Oliver, of Portland, will arrive in the city this evening to visit over decoration day with his brother, Victor Oliver, a prominent young attorney of this city.

SOCIAL

Mrs. and Miss Smead, Mr. Monroe Smead, and family, and F. C. Home, and family. Mrs. Smead was one of Linn county's earliest pioneers coming here in 1845. Her husband built the first house in Albany, a log cabin, and a gift at this time was an oil painting of it. The cabin is said to have stood at the corner of First and Broadalbin streets, a typical one of those days.

Unlimited Conveniences Come With Electric Service

This is the time when house owners are making improvements—brightening and bettering their property—making it more desirable to live in—easier to rent or sell.

Electric service means cool comfort in summer—safety, convenience, charm and good lighting the year around.

No greater aid to hot weather comfort can be found found than that offered by electricity—for lighting, ironing, washing, cleaning, cooking and operating fans.

Have your house wired before the hot weather arrives.

No other investment in or around a residence renders so much in proportion to its cost as electrical equipment.

See your electrical dealer.
