TUESDAY, JUNE 1, 1915.

A PRETTY INCIDENT.

A pretty incident occurred on Decoration Day, one that deserves a place in the columns of the newspapers these days characterized by much selfishness:

A German in his automobile, with his three daughters, took to the cemetery all the flowers his car could conveniently carry. "Now, girls," he said, "whenever you can find a neglected grave, without flowers, put some of ours on it," and they went around decorating the neglected graves. They had no relatives of their own buried there, so they thought of others.

That's a lesson that must make us think along the lines of daily life. The world is full of neglected people, friendless and worried; even all about us are lives bowed down with troubles. It suggests great opportunities for helpfulness, for presenting flowers during the lives of others, not waiting for the grave; for more cooperation in business as well as in social life, for more love, less enmity.

CARD OF THANKS.

The members of McPherson Post No. 5, Grand Army of the Republic, and Fair Oaks Circle No. 1, Ladies of the Grand Army, desire to express publicly to the members of Laurel Lodge No. 7, Knights of Pythias, and to others who furnished automobiles for use in yesterday's parade, their sincere thanks for their kindness. The aging veterans cannot march to well now as in the days gone by, and they appreciated very much the opportunity afforded them to ride in the annual Decoration Day parade. The act of the Knights of Pythias in seeing that plenty of automobiles were provided for this purpose was truly one of courtesy which will never be forgotten. The kindness and thoughtfulness which prompted the act are appreciated highly by the recipients of the courtesy.

We also wish to express our sincere appreciation of the splendid Memorial address of Mr. C. E. Sox, and express our sincere thanks to him, to the high school band, to the quartette, to all others who assisted in making yesterday's observance of Decoration Day an unqualified success.

E. F. SOX,
Commander.

MRS. ANNA STEWART,
President Fair Oaks Circle.

MISFITS

Now if Uncle Sam and the Kaiser will fuss along for about a year over the Lusitania, et al., matters ought to be settled down to an adjustable basis.

But there will be other problems right along. With the fever heat prevailing in Europe there are bound to be more mistakes and disasters.

This whole war is an awful tragedy, and people of this country will do well to keep away from Europe. Our people should not go to danger, except for adventure. The man who wants to risk his life perhaps has a right to do so. If he gets shot he should take his own medicine.

At the best the war is war, and that means a furnace most of the time.

President Wilson has a level head, and it is to be hoped he keeps it that way to the end, undisturbed by jingo.

The rain is evidently waiting for the pioneer picnic before quitting.

When in a hurry
And you want to get.
No use to worry,
Just send for a jit.

President Poincaré doesn't care for a drink. He's dry.

Poor Mexico hardly knows what to do with itself. Uncle Sam will tell her.

This is an era by the way when there is confusion a plenty in getting hold of the steering gear properly.

Albany's Chautauqua will make a good 4th of July celebration, one of modern sanity.

Suppose We Pared These Tires

Suppose this All-Weather tread—now double-thick—was pared to the thinness of the usual anti-skid. Would it endure like this one? Or so resist puncture?

Suppose we used—as some do—one less fabric ply. Or made the whole tire lighter. Suppose we omitted our exclusive features:

Our No-Rim-Cut feature—
Our "On-Air" cure—
Our rubber rivets—
Our 126-piano-wire base.

All rivals do omit them. All of them are costly. Our "On-Air" cure alone costs us $450,000 yearly to save needless blowouts. But could Goodyear Fortified Tires retain top place if we did not give those extras?

Cost Added
Prices Lowered
Instead of that, we all the time add costly betterments. We spend on experts $100,000 yearly to seek out new improvements.

Our All-Weather tread—always double-thick—is made still thicker in some sizes.

Our Inner Tubes have been thickened 14 per cent on the average.

Our fabric has been strengthened.

Yet on February 1st we made our third big price reduction in two years, bringing the total to 45 per cent. Now you are getting in Goodyear Fortified Tires the best value ever known in tire making.

It is due to yourself that you this year join this army of contented tire users. It is by far the largest army in Tiredom. Any dealer will supply you. (221)
