Miss Pera Wilkins was a delightful hostess of Monday evening when she entertained several friends at a lawn party at her home on West Seventh street. The lawn looked especially attractive with the many lighted Japanese lanterns, hammocks and cozy corners. Games and singing interspersed with music from a Victrola were enjoyed until a late hour when refreshments were served. Miss Wilkins' guests included Mr. and Mrs. A. Minton, Mr. and Mrs. H. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilkins, Misses Kate Stewart, Volena Smith, Helen Essex, Stella Dorgan, Clare Morgan, Mae and Claire Tillman; Messrs. Hiram Torbet, Roy Kinsey, Gus Abraham, Henry Volstedt, Clarence Stevens, Ralph Stewart, Victor Olliver, Ora Baker, Carl Weaver, Crawford and W. B. Cook.

A very fine entertainment was given Tuesday evening at the Globe theatre by the students of the Sisters' academy. The members of the graduating class were Misses Nora Miller, Julia Pantmeier, Bertha Malton, Gladys Miller, Alma Tracy, Verda Turner, Doris Baker, Rose Jacobs, Mary Stalp, and Cecilia Torrence.

Monday the A. M. A. girls and their gentlemen friends enjoyed a picnic across the river. The young people walked over in the morning, beyond North Albany where they found a delightful spot to spend the day. The party included Misses Inez Lemke, Hazel Hockenmith, Ruth Fisher, Lee Fortmiller, Janet Dawson, Beatrice Sanders, Lucille Snyder, Eulah Hand, and Elsie Bain; Messrs. Forrest Campbell, Francis Best, Clarence Wiles, David Wieder, Pete Miller, Oran Jenkins, Bernard Kropp, Lyle Bain, and William Eagles.

The members of the Entre Nous club were entertained by Mrs. L. E. Tracy at her home Tuesday afternoon. Bridge was played during the afternoon with Mrs. O. D. Austin scoring high. At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served. Mrs. Tracy's complimented guests included: Mrs. Logan, Mrs. Walton Worrell, Mrs. G. M. Jenkins and Mrs. Monson.

Mrs. L. L. Swan opened the hospitality of her home Monday evening to the members of the Lafolet club and a few friends. "500" was played during the evening, followed by dainty refreshments served at a late hour. Mrs. Swan complimented upon this occasion, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rahn, Mr. and Mrs. Walton Worrell, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis, Miss Kate Barrett and Mr. Ragan.

Mrs. Westfall of Portland, was honored guest at a very pretty luncheon given by Mrs. L. O. Coates, Friday of last week. Mrs. Westfall is a former resident of Albany and the invited guests included several of her old friends. Reminiscences of the days of "Auld Lang Syne" made the afternoon a very merry one. The happy party was composed of Mrs. Emily Sloan, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. J. McChesney, Sears, Mrs. O. A. Archibald, Mrs. Westfall and the hostess.

The girls and boys who are members of the Humane Society of the high school met at the school building at seven o'clock, Wednesday evening, and were driven to Knox's Butte on a large hayrack. Having arrived at their destination a large bonfire was built and an appetizing supper served. The usual singing of songs and playing of games ended the evening's fun. The boys of the society were the hosts of the evening. About thirty attended. Misses Louise Blackwell and Louise Wieder chaperoned the young people.

A large and enthusiastic audience greeted Mrs. Adna Smith Flo, of the Albany College conservatory of music, when she appeared in recital last Tuesday evening at the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. Flo's beautiful voice was greatly enjoyed and was shown to great advantage by her selection of songs. The young ladies, members of the college Glee Club, assisted in their dainty rosebud dresses and pink poke bonnets acted as ushers.

The ladies of the Evangelical church met at the home of Mrs. Mary Moench, Wednesday afternoon and organized a Women's Missionary society. After the business session a social hour was enjoyed followed by refreshments.

The members of the Monday club held their annual picnic Monday evening. Automobiles conveyed the members and their families out into the country near Gibson's Hill. After enjoying a delicious supper a huge bonfire was built. Singing, speeches and the playing of games rounded out the evening's pleasure.

Mrs. W. T. Cook was hostess to the members of the Tuesday club, Tuesday afternoon at her beautiful country home in Conser. About twenty-five ladies accepted Mrs. Cook's hospitality, automobiles conveying them to her home. The afternoon was passed in sewing, after which choice refreshments were served.

The Commercial club and the Retail Merchants' Association banqueted at the Albany Hotel Monday evening.

Hundreds of local people attended the Pioneer's Picnic at Brownsville and the Rose Festival at Portland during the week.

Miss Willetta Wright left early Thursday morning for Harney county, in Eastern Oregon, where she has taken up a homestead. Her father, G. W. Wright, accompanied her, but will shortly return to Albany.

The Pyth'n Sisters met Tuesday, in the K. of P. hall and enjoyed a covered dish supper.

The young ladies of the Kewpie club entertained their gentlemen friends the first of the week at a picnic in Bryant's Park. The young people met in the park at six thirty and built a huge bonfire. Singing, and playing of games was enjoyed until about nine o'clock when all sat down to a hot supper, prepared over the bon-fire.

Miss Mabel Schultz left Thursday morning for Mitchell, in eastern Oregon, where she will pass the Summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Schultz.

Miss Carolyn Wright is visiting in Brownsville, the guest of her cousin, Miss Ruth Bailey.

COMMENCEMENT OF THE TANGENT HIGH SCHOOL

A successful year's work has just been completed by the Tangent school. On last Friday evening the faculty entertained the high school in the assembly room of the school building. On Sunday the baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Rev. W. T. Goulder of the M. E. church South. Monday evening the exercises of the eighth grade class were held. The class address being delivered by Supt. Boettcher of the Albany schools. Under the able instruction of Mr. Marion F. Wood every member of the eighth grade class succeeded in passing the examination. This means a freshman class of large size to enter the high school next fall.

On Tuesday evening the high school graduating exercises were held in the M. E. church South, and on Wednesday evening an elaborate banquet served as the climax to a series of delightful social events of the school year. Mr. Wood has accepted the position of principal of the South Corvallis school. His position as teacher of the intermediate department of the Tangent school is to be filled next year by Miss Belle Slate of the class of 1915. Miss Slate has had two years' experience as a teacher, and has taken teachers' training work during the past school year with some very successful substitute work.

The following is the program of the high school graduating exercises: Music—Orchestra. Invocation—Rev. W. T. Goulder. Chorus—The Triton. High school Oration—Ideal Government.

wide revival, are of the belief that this meeting marks the beginning of answered prayer. The Christian people in general are heartily invited to help push this battle for the Lord. There will be services this evening and Rev. C. L. Schuster will deliver the message.

To the Business Men of Albany

When a run-down salesman calls on you, do you buy his goods? Aren't you afraid of his line because he looks as if no one ever gave him an order? Same thing is true of a seedy town. To be prosperous we must look prosperous and show local pride.

Clean streets, nice stores and well-painted buildings pay because they bring business. Paint-hungry buildings are least excusable, for paint made of

Before You Buy a "Four" See The Newest Overland $325 Less Than Last Year

The 1916 Overland is essentially the same as the 1915 Overland—the famous model 80 that sold for $1075 f. o. b. Toledo.

It has the same magnificent finish; that deep, rich tone of dark Brewster green with fine hairline striping of clear ivory-white.

It has the same powerful, economical thirty-five horsepower, 4-cylinder motor, but weighs less.

It has hightension magneto ignition.

It has the same underslung rear springs. It has the convenient arrangement of electric control buttons on the steering column.

It has the same easy-working clutch which any woman can operate; the same "easy to handle" shifting levers; the same "easy to steer with" wheel; the same positive brakes.

It has 33" x 4" tires which is unusual on a car at this price.

In detail, finish, mechanical fineness, comforts and conveniences, this newest Overland gives you all there was in the $1075 Overland and even more power.

And it costs you $325 less than last season's large 35 horsepower Overland. Only $865 in Albany.

Deliveries are being made now all over the country.

Place your order immediately and you can be sure of a speedy delivery.
