OAKVILLE NOTES AND PERSONALS OF INTEREST

A few thousand of our farmers accepted an invitation to dine with the Corvallis merchants last Saturday. It took one hour and thirty minutes for the farmers to get through and out of the cloak room.

Milton Millhollen's new house will soon be completed but he will not open it till October.

Thomas Barker is building a new barn which he will open about August 1. No invitations out.

Smiths are putting on a new roof and siding on their old barn which is one of the pioneer barns. No date for opening for it.

Mr. Pennington's new barn is almost completed and the lumber is on the ground for his dwelling house. No date for opening of either barn or house.

Dr. White's Salem Address.

Salem Journal: Dr. W. P. White, pastor of the United Presbyterian church of Albany, delivered the farewell address to the university Christian associations last evening at the First Methodist church. Dr. White is a man of his convictions, arguing that "the greatest need in the world today is an overmastering, pervading conviction of truth. The devil has a counterfeit for everything that is good, and a firm Christian conviction of what is right is a magnet needle which points to the north whichever way the wind blows. Conviction is truth reigning on the throne of consciousness. We must value truth for truth's sake. The popular adage that 'honesty is the best policy' should be altered to read 'honesty is right.' Don't get ideas from the crowd; get them from the Superintendent. It is easier to go down with the crowd than to look up alone. What the world needs is men who fear God and don't fear the face of God."

Dr. Lowe and Turner devote their entire time, energy and effort exclusively to the eye. They have had years of hard practical experience and know their business thoroughly in all its branches. They give your eyes a most thorough scientific examination and when they prescribe glasses it is with positive and absolute assurance that they are the best and only suited to your eyes. Their glasses are guaranteed to give satisfaction whether they cost $2 or more. One charge covers the entire cost of examination, frames and lenses. Consult them at the Albany Hotel Friday, June 18.
