he will make all kinds of paper, from the cheapest wrapping paper to the best grade of writing paper. Mr. Thomas says that Oregon balsu is the best timber in the world for making envelope paper, and is the only wood that can be used for that purpose without addition of cotton rags.

There are many skeptics in the city who think the prospects look too good to be true, but Mr. Thomas is emphatic in his statement that he has millions of feet of timber secured for his project, that he has the capital back of him, and that everything is in shape for the largest project in the state. The developments will be watched with interest.

DRESSMAKING—At home, 518 West 2nd St. Home phone 3299. Mrs. G. W. Burkhardt. J16 21*

Modeled After an Ancient Tomb.

The temple of the Scottish rite in Washington is a handsome white marble structure about 150 feet square and rises to a height of 150 feet above the street level. At either side of the main entrance is an immense marble sphinx. A row of tall Ionic columns surrounds the second story. The architects followed closely the design of the ancient tomb of King Mausolus, which stood in Halicarnassus and was one of the seven wonders of the world. It was built by the wife of the king and was decorated with hundreds of wonderful statues. This old tomb became so famous that many buildings were modeled after it, but this is the only structure in America in which the design has been used.

In Biology.

Teacher—John, how can you tell the dogwood tree?
John—By its bark.
And his answer was correct, even if it did cause a laugh.
Another bright answer captured in biology:
Teacher—What animal supplies us with ham?
John—The butcher. Chicago Herald.

AT THE THEATRES

The play for tonight at the Globe by the Kenworthy Players is "Wages of Sin," a four act drama. Last night they presented a comedy, "The Country Girl" and had the house roaring in laughter from start to finish. The bill is further augmented tonight by the appearance of the popular laugh producer, Charles Chaplin in "The Tramp." This is Chaplin's best and is bound to take here. "Strength" a pretty home story in one reel will also be given, and the Ford Weekly makes another appearance. The Ford pictures are always good. Two other reels fill out the big bill.

Mary Fuller, one of the most popular players in the moving picture world, heads the bill at the Hub theatre tonight, in "The Girl Who Had a Soul." This is a wonderful three-reel feature, and is supported by such players as Walt Moore, Wm. Welch and Chas. Ogle. Another big feature is a two reel comedy, "Under the Table," with Hank Mann, Gertrude Selby and Reggie Morris. A one reel Alaskan story fills out the bill, which is good all through. The Hub has recently changed to the Universal bill, and is getting the best things put out by the largest film company in the world. In a short time will be shown a dramatization of the most popular books by standard authors and other features in four and five reel plays.

"The Kreutzer Sonata"

Announcement is made of the appearance here June 25 and 26 at the Rolfe theatre, of "The Kreutzer Sonata," by Count Leo Tolstoi. People who have seen this play pronounce it one of the very best produced by the Box Office Attraction Co. Nance O'Neil appears in the leading role and is supported by Wm. E. Shay and Miss Theda Bara, The "Vampire Woman."

To the Business
Men of Albany

When a good salesman goes out after business, he first puts on a clean collar and gets his shoes shined. Then he looks like more business—and he's made a flying start toward getting it. Likewise, a community can go after more business—and get it. The "clean collar and shiny shoes" of this town are the well-painted stores, the bright, cheery homes, the fresh, clean-looking buildings. The part paint plays in building up local pride cannot be put in figures—but its good effects are recorded on the local merchants' sale sheets. Buy good paint. We recommend and sell and pure linseed oil. We know of nothing else so satisfactory, so lasting and cheap in the long run. We sell all other paint necessities as well. Get in touch with us today.

Dutch Boy Color White Lead

An Electric Washer Means Real Saving

It means a saving in clothes, time and money. There is no rubbing and scrubbing as in the old way. The saving in wear and tear on clothes will really pay for the Electric Washer in a short time. An electric Washer will wash even the most delicate fabrics quickly and thoroughly without harm. And think of the enormous saving in time. (From 5 to 7 minutes will wash an ordinary tub full absolutely clean). Then you run them through the electric wringer and hang them up to dry. Simple, isn't it? Inexpensive, too. May we tell you more about it? Will you call, or shall we?
