KNOX BUTTE NEWS AND PERSONALS

Knox Butte, June 22.—Miss Rachel Lines was the guest last week of Miss Iris Hawley at Salem, returning home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Williams and family who have resided in Albany the past year have moved on the Williams farm. They will build a modern residence.

Mrs. Daisy Davis and sons of Kansas City, Mo., arrived Friday and will visit at the home of Mrs. Davis' father John Geisendorfer and other relatives. They will spend the Summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Marshall returned from a successful fishing trip on Crabtree creek Friday. Frank Martin also was with them.

Mr. and Mrs. John Probst visited relatives at Scio over the week-end.

Miss Ruth Marshall returned from Eugene Saturday after a pleasant visit.

Mrs. W. H. McBride's mother, Mrs. Nickols of Monroe, returned home Saturday after a week's visit at the McBride home.

G. B. Haight of Myrtle Creek visited J. W. and John Chambers last week. Mr. Haight was born and raised here, and this was his first visit at the Butte in 20 years.

Knox Butte school district at their annual school meeting reelected L. Wilfert, clerk and J. W. Chambers, director. East Knox Butte elected Mrs. O. B. Marshall clerk, and Mrs. P. B. Marshall, director.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Brandes of Corvallis, son and daughter, Alan and Irene, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Knox. They made the trip by auto and found the roads excellent.

Chester Houston returned Sunday to Portland after a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Houston.

Mrs. L. G. Cox was a delightful hostess to the Sunshine Circle at her home on Thursday afternoon. A very interesting meeting was held and many helpful subjects were discussed. Miss Gladys Smith rendered two instrumental solos and Miss Ruth Lines gave several choice readings. Most of the circle members were present at the close of the afternoon a choice repast was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Sam Keebler and Miss Hazel Wallace. THE KREUTZER SONATA FULL OF TENSE INCIDENTS

One of Tolstoi's Greatest Plays
Coming to Rolfe Theatre
This Week.

One of the greatest picture dramas of the year comes to the Rolfe theatre Friday and Saturday when the Box Office Attraction Co. presents the celebrated actress, Nance O'Neill, supported by W. E. Shay and Theda Bara, in Tolstoi's gripping play, "The Kreutzer Sonata." Albany people are well acquainted with the quality of plays furnished by the Box Office Attraction Co., and this is said to be the best yet presented here. The acting of these noted players is superb, and the dramatic climax in the last act is one of the most tense scenes imaginable.

Count Tolstoi has woven a wonderfully compelling and heart gripping story about the life of his heroine, Miriam, a young Russian girl. Through an unfortunate love affair Miriam is threatened with disgrace. Her father induces Gregor Randor, a struggling musician, to marry her, for a money consideration, an dthe couple go to America where they are later followed by Miriam's family, including Celia, her sister. Between Celia and Gregor a clandestine love affair develops. Despite their secrecy the wife discovers the truth and torn between love of her little boy and outraged pride, she confronts the fickle husband and unnatural sister. Her revellings and denunciations of her father are alike unavailing and at last, driven to desperation, she takes vengeance into her own hands.

Attend the picnic and public auction Saturday and while here visit Stein & Newman's closing out sale for bargains. j23-24

CORVALLIS FIREMEN FIND GAMBLING OUTFIT IN ALBANY

Will Expose It At Corvallis
Next Friday Night in the Days of 49 Show.

The Corvallis firemen are arranging for a big mining camp gambling show at that city next Friday night. Here is the way Albany is rung into the game and entertainment:

A number of the Corvallis firemen visited Albany Sunday, and with the aid of the Albany fire fighters were able to locate some paraphernalia for R. Porter McClelland's gambling den at the "Days of '49." In the basement the boys found a roulette wheel, a poker table, a Klondike table and various other honest game layouts that made the firemen think of the stories of historical Corvallis and Albany, when Corvallis was a tough town and Albany a little tougher. The devices for separating nuggets from the prospector's gold sack will be in full operation Friday night, and, according to the plans that have been made, "Reno in her palmist days couldn't hold a candle to the gambling den of Gold Camp."

A full dress rehearsal was held at the mining camp city last night, and electric lights lighted up the show corner with great brilliancy. Some of the attraction booths have not been completed, but everything will be in readiness by Friday.

WHO ENFORCES THE MOTOR VEHICLE LAWS

Salem, June 22.—(Editor Democrat)—From many sections of the state the attention of this office is repeatedly directed to alleged violation of the "motor vehicle laws," the impression prevailing that the secretary of state is vested with the enforcement of the same.

Such is not the case. This office is not vested with police powers. Its duties are only to register motor vehicles and chauffeurs as proper applications are filed.

Under this law (Section 26 and 27) it is made the specific duty of all police officers, sheriffs and constables, within the limits of their respective jurisdiction, to enforce its provisions. Violations of such law should, therefore, be directed to the attention of the local police officers.

BEN W. OLCOTT,
Secretary of State.

POSTMASTER ELECTED BY VOTERS OF SILVERTON

Silverton, Ore., June 22.—By a vote of about 2 to 1 John H. Brooks, the popular druggist of Silverton, was selected as the popular candidate for the office of postmaster of that community as the result of a local popularity election, held in that city yesterday, over his opponent, for the appointment, George Cussiter. The total vote cast was 53.

This was one of the most unique and extraordinary elections to have ever been held in this state and probably the first of its kind. Brooks and Cussiter are both democrats and prominent in political circles, and both were candidates for the postmastership. United States Senators Chamberlain and Lane were unable to agree upon a choice between them and it was finally decided to let the people of Silverton choose between the two and a special election was held for that purpose yesterday with the above result.—Journal.

The Brownsville P. M. was chosen the same way.

Made Trip to Sheridan—

A. L. Beeson, Democrat linotyper, last evening went to Sheridan, accompanied by his sister-in-law, Mrs. H. H. Beeson, who has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fisher, for the past week. He returned home early this morning, making the trip in three hours, and was accompanied by H. P. Karstens. Mr. Beeson reports the roads in fine condition for riding.

Here from Iowa—
A. F. Luther, of North Albany, and brother J. W. Luther, of Iowa, went to Independence this morning to attend the races. J. W. Luther recently arrived here on a visit, and is greatly pleased with the Willamette valley, about the finest place he has ever seen.

Left for Penn.—

Rev. and Mrs. Elliott Irvine left this morning for their home at Butler, Penn. On the way they will stop at Chicago, where Rev. Irvine has an engagement. The trip to Portland was made this forenoon with Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hamilton, in the Hamilton car, a part of their summer vacation program.

Crops Look Fine—

That crops look the best for 20 years, is the statement of J. A. McCullough, of this city, who yesterday paid his farm near Halsey a visit. The fall wheat looks in splendid shape, heavily filled out, as some samples brought back show, and the Spring wheat has a good color. Oats and other cereals are also in good shape.

To the Business Men of Albany

A young doctor, making a start in a small town, decided that to be prosperous he must look prosperous. He bought a new buggy and two good horses. Although he had only a few patients he always kept on the jump, attending to his patients' smallest needs. People began to notice this young doctor driving about town and they called him because he looked busy and prosperous. He got his start—a start that led to a comfortable practice.

Our town, like this doctor, must look prosperous to be prosperous.

Clean streets, attractive store windows, well-painted buildings and dwellings give the prosperous air. Well-painted buildings are greatest of these.
