K. P.-BAND PARADE TAKES PLACE TONIGHT

Show Staged Tomorrow Night Offers Fine Comedy Acting.

One of the funniest street parades ever seen in Albany will take place tonight when Aunt Symonthea Simpkins' Suffering Yets will appear on First and Lyon street in all their glory. Termed as 70 old maids from the country they will appear with their big brass band and offer musical selections, Suffering Yet speeches and other special stunts. This will be something you can't afford to miss.

This will all be a big boost for the Albany band and the Knights of Pythias show "We Should Worry" which will be staged at the Albany Opera house on next Friday and Saturday evenings and which promises to be the best of its kind seen here this season. The story of the play runs like this:

If your husband stayed out all night and the next morning when you asked him where he had been he told you that he had to stay up in a balloon all night, would you believe him? I should say not!

But if all men were as accomplished liars as Jack Temple, this fact would not even make them turn a hair. So the story:

Finding his wife won't believe this tale, which is in reality true, he tells her he met an old friend, who invited him to supper at his suburban home; that he missed the car and had to stay all night. Immediately his wife asks the name of his friend. He fakes one. She sends a telegram unbeknown to her husband to the fake friend, John Brown of Pickleton.

Jack Temple and his chum, Frank Fuller, discover the telegram by holding the blotter to the mirror. Frank Fuller agrees to impersonate Brown and swear to all lies. He does. Peace! Then war! Why? Because there is a real John Brown of Pickleton and he arrives. Also a real Mrs.

John Brown, Christian name Martha, who has found the telegram received by her husband, which was carelessly left at home by him on his departure. So, being something of a human cyclone, she's not angry, she's mad.

But here the Bogus John Brown shines forth, wins her maidenly heart, and makes her swear she never did know John Brown, hairdresser and real husband.

Next, in walks Mrs. Frank Fuller to see Mrs. Temple, and bogus John Brown, alias Frank Fuller, is caught, which is done with the assistance of Captain Sharpe of His Majesty's service; Dorothy, Mrs. Templeton's sis-

MODERN MONTE CARLO IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Tijuana, Calif., Selected As the Place For American Gambling Den On Big Scale.

Dallas, Tex., June 24.—A Monte Carlo, bigger, better and busier, than the real thing, will soon be in full blast right next to the borders of the U. S. A.

Down at Tijuana, Cal., bordering the Southern California line not far from San Diego, this new mecca for the "gangs" is now being projected. Forrest E. White of this city has been there for several weeks looking over the grounds, and arranging for a big race track to cost a quarter of a million dollars. White says his interest stops with the race-track proposition, but that there will be many other features connected with the place, including a large hotel, a casino, and a big gambling den.

This new Monte Carlo will out-strip Juarez in its palmiest days. Bookmaking with all its thrills is sure to play a large part in this proposed resort for men who like to "take a chance."

Roulette, poker—all the games with which gamblers have been wont to win (and lose) hard earned coin—are believed to be on the bill of fare which this resort will offer.

ter, and Wigson, the butler.

This is barely an idea of the plot of the play. But when the big night arrives everything will be in readiness and you can't afford to miss it.

McDOWELL SHOE CO.

In a balmy climate, Tijuana may become the world's most famous gambling place. Certainly, its promoters believe, it will be the most famous racing center on the continent, in a day and generation when horseflesh and improvement of the species, is almost an unknown quantity as a result of the activities of reform citizens and reform legislatures.

To the Business Men of Albany

The prosperity of a city is in direct proportion to the local pride. Where local pride runs high, prosperity has a firm foothold. Such a town is a good place to live and do business in.

Paint helps to a remarkable degree in spreading an impression of prosperity throughout a community. It gives a fresh, new, inviting look whatever it is used. Municipal buildings, stores and homes feel its good effects. Growing business is bound to be one of the direct results of a liberal use of paint, not from any magic in the paint, but because of the pride which is stimulated.
