"The Nigger" at the Rolfe Friday and Saturday.

The attraction for Friday and Saturday at the Rolfe is a Fox feature with William Farnum in "The Nigger." Farnum is well known here, having played the past season in "The Gilded Fool," "The Spoilers," and will be seen here again shortly in "Samson" and another piece.

In this play Edward Sheldon, America's most significant young dramatist handles unflinchingly and with unerring power, a modern problem that must be faced fairly and squarely by the people of the United States.

The topic which forms the motif of this striking drama is one which legislators and serious thinkers have grappled with unsuccessfully since the days of slavery. Mr. Sheldon is the first playwright however who has had ht courage to tackle the subject dramatically.

In the William Fox production, William Farnum, America's most popular young actor gives a sublime performance of the self sacrificing hero, Philip Morrow. Under the masterful directorship of Edgar Lawis, the enthralling drama works out to the proportions of a mighty epic of modern American life dealing as it does with the gravest social, moral and political conditions.

A $100,000 photoplay, 1000 people, 500 scenes taken in New York, Washington, D. C., and Augusta, Ga.

After the Battle—A Comparison.
(For the Democrat)

What scenes are these that claim the early twilight?
What sounds, that cast their melancholy spell
O'er all? The very atmosphere seems brooding.
As if a voice within some plight would tell.
What task have worldlings set that nature sorrows
O'er standing process sworn on man by God?
What world is this? The unredeemed, the lustful,
That chose but correspondence where it trod?

—Wm. Orison Smith.

To the Business Men of Albany

Message No. 5

The prosperity of a city is in direct proportion to the local pride. Where local pride runs high, prosperity has a firm foothold. Such a town is a good place to live and do business in.

Paint helps to a remarkable degree in spreading an impression of prosperity throughout a community. It gives a fresh, new, inviting look wherever it is used. Municipal buildings, stores and homes feel its good effects. Growing business is bound to be one of the direct results of a liberal use of paint, not from any magic in the paint, but because of the pride which is stimulated.
