MODERN PHILOSOPHY.

Minn. News: An actress, who acknowledges a weight of 227 pounds and who is delighting New York crowds with her dancing and singing, issues this, as a comfort to fat females:

"Life's too short to worry about figures. Accept the conditions gracefully, and get away with it."

This is about a ton of A No. 1 philosophy in a nutshell. The Slough of Despond is full of really fine females cast down by worry over their shapes.

Today, you've got to be a pair of tongs and tomorrow a crookednecked squash. It's just one campaign after another peel off or put on something to make you look what you're not. It's very foolish. The whole philosophy of the thing lies in the simple advice that New York 227-pounder—don't worry, accept what you've got, and get away with it. Believe us, you can get away with it if you will.

NEWSPAPER MISTAKES.

The mistakes of newspapers always form an interesting theme for discussion, notwithstanding that all of them make them the same as individuals. The Record of Marshfield has a good one on the subject:

For the past four days The Record has been full of typographical errors as it has been possible for it to be, mostly the result of gross carelessness. However, things have righted themselves again and the old stride will be resumed from now on. In this connection The Record has been reminded of its faults in a merciless way and there has come to The Record a realization of the fact, as an exchange once observed, the capacity of some people for detecting errors in the newspapers is marvelous. Also it is singular how many unexpected meanings these people can find. If a reporter writes that the man wore a coat of such and such a character, someone may call up, ask if the coat was all the man had on. To satisfy these literalists, you must commendate item by item the other articles of attire, or they will accuse you of making the victim appear half naked. The reader who digests his paper on the quiet at home feels that he has shown great brilliancy if he detects an error in grammar or capitalization. It is one thing to find mistakes on your leisure in another man's work, quite another to turn out a high degree of accuracy and precision in the haste of newspaper composition. The accountant makes mistakes in his figures, the lawyer draws up incorrect papers and the business man submits erroneous bills. Such blunders are known only to the few persons whom they concern. The newspaper is like the actor on the stage whose slightest slip is manifest to all and seems ridiculous.

MISFITS

Exaggeration is sometimes called humor; but is it?

We laugh at the snobbishness of the much rich, and then do our best to be much rich also.

A speaker commended the man who never talked about any one, and then whacked everybody in sight himself.

F. Holt did not have the staying qualities of H. Thaw.

W. Bryan's coming. That means an im. crowd.

It used to be bears that caused fright. Now it's motor-cycles and such.

We will all be out at the depot at 1:30 next Thursday to see the liberty bell train go by, and no doubt will be given a sight of the bell that rang out for liberty.

At Atlantic City, the famous bathing resort, they never mention the brownings. Recently a death there was given as follows: "John Jones died of shock in shallow water. His body was never recovered."

You never have to jump around to get in front of the meaning of things when Col. Bain speaks.

The best thing is the one that leaves the best taste.

Twin Tires?—No

One's a Goodyear as It Might Be
The Other Costs Us $1,635,000 More

This is to prove that you can't judge tires by looks.

Here are two Goodyear tires, seemingly identical. But one is built like many of its rivals. Goodyear extras are omitted. The other has those hidden values. And those unseen extras, on this year's output, will cost us $1,635,000. This year's betterments alone add to our cost $500,000 yearly. Yet our 1915 price reduction saves our users about five million dollars.

No Price Excuse

This is not a price excuse. Goodyear prices have been fairly racing down. Our late big reduction made the third in two years, totaling 45 per cent. No equal tire can compete with the Goodyear, because of our matchless output. None does. Goodyear excels all other tires in at least five important ways.

You Deserve It

You deserve the Goodyear quality when you buy a tire. You deserve Fortified Tires, with the No-Rim-Cut feature, the "On-Air" cure, our extra-strong fabric, our number of plies. You deserve in anti-skids our All-Weather tread, tough, double-thick and resistless.

These things have brought Goodyear the largest sale in the world. They are saving our users millions of dollars yearly.

They are at your command. Any dealer, if you ask him, will supply you Goodyear tires. (2601)
