CITY NEWS

Mrs. L. T. Shipley and daughters, Violet and Betty, left this morning for Everett, Wash., where they will join Mr. Shipley and Kenneth for a two years' residence, during the building of the new post office at that city. On the way they will spend Sunday at Gresham, where Mrs. Shipley and children resided a couple of years, and where they own a place. The entire family take with them the best wishes and good will of a large circle of friends they made here during their residence of 16 months here. At Everett they will reside in a new bungalow.

Went to Fairs in Autos—
A Grass Valley party passing through the city for home after visiting the fair at San Francisco, consisted of J. W. Hayes and family, C. M. French and two daughters and C. M. Tyler, travelling with a couple of autos. They left home May 28, going by way of eastern Oregon, following the Pacific Highway on their way home. While gone they visited both fairs.

Where Did the $6 Go.
That was certainly some frenzied finance connected with the prosecution of the sale of stock in the United States Cashier Co. of Portland, in which a few Albany men invested. The stock sold for $14 a share, the investigation shows, and of this $6 went into the company. Where the $8 went is the thing being looked into. It looks very much as if there was an immense graft, and it is no wonder the company went broke.

Lehigh University Man—
F. R. Ashbaugh, of Bethlehem, Penn., is in the city on a visit with his sister, Mrs. E. J. Blair, and family. The brother and sister had not seen each other for 23 years. Mr. Ashbaugh has been connected with Lehigh University, at Bethlehem for 19 years. He is bursar, a position in the treasury department of the University.

After 27 Years—
B. M. Stevens of Chillicothe, Missouri, a nephew of W. B. Stevens of Albany, who is now sojourning at Nyebach, came in Monday night for a visit with his uncle. This is the first visit of Mr. Stevens to Newport in 13 years and the many changes that have been wrought since he last saw the city were a source of interest and amazement to him. Mr. Stevens first came to Newport 27 years ago before Newport had acquired the wide reputation as a summer resort which it now enjoys. At that time people came to this beach in scores instead of thousands as is now the case.—Newport News.
