BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

Dun says: Apart from the development of further labor controversies, the general situation maintains its favorable aspects.

Uncle Sam, though, is gripping the newspapers some, and the press is the very essence of loyalty.

MISFITS

Someone telephoned in that everybody reads Misfits. Thanks muchly.

Not much in the Misfits either, just the commonest things in the world, expressed as plain as an old shoe.

The jingolists continue to jingle.

W. J. B. is certainly a drawer.

Becker should have kept his record clean. It doesn't pay to handle mud.

We hate to see even Haitians making such grouches of themselves.

Thank goodness we common fellows have gotten just as much right to have opinions as millionaires.

When it comes to our tongues they can wag pretty freely along public lines, and, at least there is no precedent in rights.

Even children have a right to be heard these modern days.

Pictures of the Eastland horror are arriving, showing the extent of the awful disaster, beyond the power of pen to sufficiently portray.
