IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

Music Lovers and Piano Seekers of Albany and Vicinity.

Appreciating the importance of Albany as a musical center and owing to the large increase of business, Davenport's Piano House, formerly located at Third and Lyon streets, has moved into larger quarters at 409 West First street, opposite the St. Francis hotel.

We invite every music lover, every piano seeker, to visit our new display.

It will offer a surprise in the splendid instruments we are able to offer at marvelously moderate prices.

We carry everything that goes to make a first class music house.

Violins, mandolins, banjos, guitars, band instruments. Davenport's, the house of quality. The oldest in Albany. Biggest, busiest, best. 409 West First street.

In compliment to Miss Dorothy Elliott of Pennsylvania, a picnic was given last Saturday. The members of the crowd were taken four miles into the country in automobiles where an appetizing supper was served. After supper a bonfire was made, around which the guests made merry and sang until a late hour. Among the guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Joseph Ralston, Rev. Stevenson and Mrs. Stevenson (Chicago), C. E. Sox, H. B. Cusick, Hans Flo, E. D. Cusick, Misses Flora Mason, Dorothy Elliott, Eva Simpson, Sue Breckenridge, Anna Etta Stevenson, and Dr. Ellis.

The King's Herald of the Methodist church met with Mrs. A. M. Hammer on Tuesday. The children enjoyed themselves in a social way, after a short business meeting, followed by refreshments.

Complimenting Misses Helen and Dorothy Pearce of Salem, Mrs. Thomas Hopkins gave a dancing party on Friday. About twelve couple were present and passed a very enjoyable time together. Dainty refreshments rounded out the evening's pleasure. The privileged guests included Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rahn, Misses Kate Stewart, Mae and Claire Tillman, Helen Hulbert, Julia Crowell, Lora and Gertie Taylor, Isabelle Young, Zona Haight, Louise Wieder, Helen and Dorothy Pearce, Messrs.
