BRYAN'S GOOD INTENTIONS

The Medford Sun, a strong Republican paper, speaks in the following fair way about Bryan:

William Jennings Bryan's popularity rests upon his good intentions. Probably more people in this country have differed from the Great Commoner, than with any other public man, but there have been few indeed to doubt his motives or question his good faith.

Because he has always been working for what he conceives the higher and better things in political and social life, there has been popular affection for the man when there has not been endorsement of his opinions, nor approval of his judgment.

At the present time Mr. Bryan is crusading pioneer for a new and growing cause, the cause of universal peace. As usual he is prone to soar somewhat giddily upon rhetorical heights, to be impatient with hard facts and cold reason, but in our mind there is no doubt that with his prophetic political instinct, he has again hit upon a cause which is destined to grow with the years, and eventually become an accepted ideal among the civilized nations of the world.

Thousands and thousands of American people who opposed Mr. Bryan as presidential candidate, and as Secretary of State, welcome him now, as an oratorical free lance, engaged in mortal combat with truculent old Mars. The fight may be somewhat Quixotic. Our Hero may have a somewhat theatrical ear attuned to the plaudits of the gallery, but we all like to see him, to hear him, and most of us wholeheartedly approve of the business he is in.

MISFITS

Take as many outside papers as you please, but not until you have taken your home paper first.

Albany is working constantly for the whole of Linn county. A bigger Linn means a bigger Albany.

Keep the fruit preserving bee a buzzing.

Men who do the most are not all talk.

Look out for the dog that keeps its bark in reserve.

Now it is the night in the country. Something has to be doing among the microbes.

Like the flies all these things should be nipped in their incipency.

Warsaw never saw such a time as now.

The war is much like an avalanche, unstoppable.

The way of the transgressor is hard. Was anything truer ever said.

Big enterprises move slow. They are not easy to start.

If love prevailed in the world such a thing as war would not be thought of.

The greed that makes war starts in the little things of life.

The world is full of heaven that grows into things colossal in their evil.

Misfits has said a number of times that the man who carries a gun around is bound to have trouble. It is the same with nations.

Where savings are safe.Twin Tires?—No
One's a Goodyear as It Might Be
The Other Costs Us $1,635,000 More

This is to prove that you can't judge tires by looks.

Here are two Goodyear tires, seemingly identical. But one is built like many of its rivals. Goodyear extras are omitted. The other has those hidden values. And those unseen extras, on this year's output, will cost us $1,635,000.

This year's betterments alone add to our cost $500,000 yearly. Yet our 1915 price reduction saves our users about five million dollars.

No Price Excuse

This is not a price excuse. Goodyear prices have been fairly racing down. Our late big reduction made the third in two years, totaling 45 per cent. No equal tire can compete with the Goodyear, because of our matchless output. None does. Goodyear excels all other tires in at least five important ways.

You Deserve It

You deserve the Goodyear quality when you buy a tire. You deserve Fortified Tires, with the No-Rim-Cut feature, the "On-Air" cure, our extra-strong fabric, our number of plies. You deserve in anti-skids our All-Weather tread, tough, double-thick and resistless.

These things have brought Goodyear the largest sale in the world. They are saving our users millions of dollars yearly.

They are at your command. Any dealer, if you ask him, will supply you Goodyear tires. (251)
