Like the North Wind

Cool, refreshing and invigorating, an electric fan blows through your office, or home like the wind from the mountains and lakes. There is absolutely no need of sweltering this summer even if you cannot get away to the mountains or seashore.

An Electric Fan Changes the Oppressive
City Heat to Invigorating Mountain
Breezes

It does it inexpensively—in fact so small is the consumption of current by the electric fan that you will hardly notice it on your bill. The first cost is not high and a fan will last you for years. There will still be a lot of hot weather this summer. Why not get your fan today and be assured of comfort this year and for the future?

After again tonight. The pictures are said to be very real and present a good idea of the awfulness of the disaster.

Good Bill at the Hub.

Lovers of Alexander Dumas' dramas have an opportunity to see one of them pictured on the screen at the Hub Theatre tonight. King Baggot and Jane Gail will be seen in that writer's thrilling romance, "The Corsican Brothers," a masterful three act drama. All the vivid imagination of the great writer is forcibly pictured in this superb dramatization. Besides this splendid piece is shown Sydney Ayres and Dorris Pawn in "Diamonds of Fate," a good single reel drama, and a reel of the best funny people in the business. Victoria Forde, Lee Moran and Eddie Lyons, entitled "Lizzie Breaks into the Harem." It is a scream from first to last. Sunday a special bill will be presented at the Hub with the big feature, Sontag and Evans, of California, "The Folly of a Life of Crime." This is one of the best criminal pieces ever staged and pictures faithfully the scenes depicted in such a drama. Next week, Wednesday and Thursday, the fourth number of the Thursday, the fourth number, "The Scarlet Sin," with Hobart Bosworth and Jane Novak, will be shown at the Hub.

City News

Missionary Will Speak

Miss Rahme Haider, a native of Syria and engaged in missionary work among her own people in California, will speak in the Baptist church a week from Sunday evening. Miss Haider is a young woman of ability and consideration and gifted as a public speaker. She has a message of wonderful interest. Fuller announcement will be made next week.

Returned from Cascadia

Mrs. W. H. Curry returned last evening from a two weeks' outing at Cascadia and upper Soda, having stopped over at Shedd's on her return to visit her parents and other relatives. She was accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Jennie Bell, of Shedd, and a cousin, Mrs. Wilson, of Tulsa, Okla. Mrs. Wilson is making an extended trip of the coast and is much impressed with the neat appearance of Albany. They left this morning for a short outing at the coast.

Carl Knows

Here is the way the Corvallis Gazette-Times covers a story recently reported in the Democrat: "Fashioned so slenderly, young and so fair, famed for her beautiful voice and golden hair, you never know what Louise is going to do next. Perhaps Carl does." These are the sentences found in a number of the O. A. C. Orange under the name of Mary Louise Pirtle. Put Mary Louise has announced what she expects to do pretty soon, and that is to marry Carl N. Anderson. They will be married August 15th on the high sea while en route to their home to be at Strelia, Alaska, where Mr. Anderson is engaged as mining engineer.

Conscription in B. C.

C. S. Ayres, of the Globe, today received a letter from Vancouver, B. C., which tells a story of the methods used there to obtain soldiers for the English army. The young unmarried men of the C. P. R., B. C. R., and other companies, at the end of the last month were all discharged, with these words on their check, "Your king and country need you." This is conscription with a vengeance, the forcing of fine young men into a war that is not justified, regardless of their will.

On a Two Days' Trip

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bahr, Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Leininger, and family, and Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Hopkins, left at 1 o'clock this afternoon for Elkhorn, in the Cascades above Mehama. They will return Sunday night, or Monday morning.

Oregon Game Laws

A supply of a condensed form of the Oregon game laws have been received at the Albany Gun Store for free distribution and may be had by anyone desiring to be informed as to the latest changes made by the last legislature. They are put up in a handy form and the gist of each act given.

Will Bring New Car

M. P. Cady went to Portland this morning on business connected with the Studebaker automobile. Monday he will return with the first car of the 1916 make that will remain in Albany. It is a five-passenger, four-cylinder, of the latest type, and will be delivered to one of the early purchasers. Mr. Cady will spend Sunday at Beaverton, where Mrs. Cady is visiting at the home of her parents.

Salem Lawyer Here

Dana H. Allen, a prominent Salem attorney and the youngest member of the house of representatives at the last session of the legislature, was in the city this morning on his way to Detroit and Breitenbush on his summer outing. Mr. Allen is the son of a former county clerk of Marion county, and is prominent in social and business affairs of the capital city.

From Big Brother Farm

A crowd of boys passed through the city this morning enroute to their homes in Portland after spending a delightful and profitable vacation at the Big Brother Farm, conducted near Lebanon by Chester A. Lyon. The boys from the city are returning to their homes met in every way for the benevolence extended them by the Linn county philanthropist.

Covered Dish Supper

The Covered Dish club entertained last evening in the Grange hall in North Albany, about 15 members and their guests being present. Supper was served in the Grange hall in the upper story and an elaborate display of choice viands was enjoyed. The evening was spent in dancing, music and "900" and a most excellent time is reported by those present.

Maxwell Man Here

F. J. Bolyan, of the Maxwell Motor Sales Corporation, of Portland, is in the city today in the interest of the Maxwell car. This company has just opened up a new branch in Portland and is preparing to do a big business in this territory.

Dr. Bilyeu in Fire

Mrs. J. M. V. Bilyeu is in receipt of a letter from her son, Dr. C. R. Bilyeu, of Portland, telling about the fire in Alaska building, which was destroyed this week. Dr. Bilyeu suffered less loss than any occupant of the building. Much of his stock of accessories and dental tools was damaged, but not totally destroyed, and his loss was almost fully covered by insurance. He was out of the city on his summer vacation when the fire occurred.

Went to Grants Pass

Mrs. Brown, sister, of Mrs. Gus Neeley, who has been residing at W. H. Hogan's, left this noon for Grants Pass, where she will visit for a week or two.

Returned from Polk County

Mrs. Snelling returned this noon from Polk county, where she has been visiting. She formerly resided there, and has relatives in that part of the valley.

Here from Drain

J. N. Post and family, of Drain, are in the city on their way to Albany. Mr. Post is attending to legal matters in the city and making arrangements for a suit he has in court.—Register.

Some Lemon

Miss Ella Meade has on display in her window a large lemon that she brought from the ranch of Frank Conklin, of Los Gatos, California. Mr. Conklin is a former Albany man who married a cousin of Miss Meade. The lemon is of the Grandosa variety, a grafted fruit, and measured 14½ by 16 inches in girth. Miss Meade says she counted six lemons as large as this on one side of a small tree, and that they are common, although not a good commercial fruit.

Back From Portland

Miss Inez Lemke returned to the city last night from Portland after a ten days visit with friends. Her stay was made very enjoyable by parties, auto trips, theatres and the general good times that are to be had in the larger cities.

Went to Cascadia

Judge and Mrs. L. L. Swan have gone to Cascadia for the week end and will return Monday.

Another Buick Sold

Clarence Cameron yesterday closed a contract with the Irvin garage for the purchase of a 1916 Buick. This is Mr. Cameron's second Buick, his last purchase being one of the new six cylinder car. He will get his machine about the 18th.

Final Account Filed

The first and final account of Herman C. Asche, administrator of the estate of John F. Asche, deceased, was filed with the county clerk today. The estate was appraised at $6540.

Did You Ever Stop to Think?

Every time you spend a dollar at the other store you are just giving the merchant 20 or 25c. Can you afford to hand out your money so freely? Better investigate a little and you'll not always be broke. Buying for 83 busy stores, knowing where and how to buy, paying no middle man's commissions, no delivery, no bookkeepers, no big rent, no interest on borrowed money, no oversupply of clerks to stand around. All this saving means money in your pocket. Better sit up and take notice.
