CITY NEWS

Home from Belnap—

Mr. and Mrs. Z. H. Rudd returned Thursday from Belnap Springs, where they have been recuperating for the past six weeks. They made the trip by automobile.

Will Return East—

Mrs. Carrie B. Adams, will return east to her home in Terre Haute, Indiana next week. During her stay here Mrs. Adams has added to her list of friends and she will be missed by many in this city.

Will Move to Pendleton—

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bachmeyer will move to Pendleton in the near future. Mr. Bachmeyer is a commercial salesman and his field has been transferred to territory east of the mountains.

Will Resume Studies—

Edward Singleton will leave soon for New York, via San Francisco, the Panama Canal and to New York by boat. Mr. Singleton is studying for the ministry and will continue his work in New York.

Will See the Fair—

Robert Stewart and Earl Gilbert will leave here next week for San Francisco where they will take in the fair for a few days. They will make the trip by boat.

Will Take Vacation—

Miss Benlah Hinckley, office secretary of the Commercial club, will leave Monday for a two weeks' vacation at Portland, St. Helens and Astoria. During her absence the office work will be taken care of by Mrs. Roy Suesens.

Roseburg Man Here—

A. E. McIntyre, of the A. E. Armsby Co., of Roseburg, passed through the city this morning with his family enroute to Salem where they will visit relatives. Mr. McIntyre reports conditions good down his way, and expects great things for Roseburg when the proposed railroad and saw mill gets in operation. Mr. McIntyre says that the road is not a certainty for Roseburg yet, for the Weyerhaeuser interests have offered Kendall Brothers a splendid proposition if they will build their road to Sutherlin, a new town 13 miles north. The Kendalls are reported to be losing patience with certain interests in Roseburg who are trying to hold up the bond issue, and are getting in a mood to listen to other overtures. Construction of the new road will begin as soon as the right of way is secured.

Knights to Crater Lake—

An auto full of Knights of Pythias passed through Albany this morning en route to Crater Lake where the big meeting and conferring of Knighthood degree will be held Tuesday in the crater on Wizard Isle. In the car, which belongs to Dr. A. C. Wrightman, of Silverton, grand chancellor, were, besides the owner, Senator Gus Moser, of Portland, supreme representative; J. B. E. Bourne, of Rainier, editor of The Senator, the K. P. magazine, and L. R. Stinson, grand keeper of records and seals. Mr. Stinson dropped out at Albany having run up from Salem for the trip, and Willard Marks, vice chancellor, joined the party.

Many Hunters Off—

The next east bound C. & E. train went out with a good load of passengers this morning, and many hunters were in the list. The deer season opens tomorrow and there will be a big brigade on the firing line to welcome the high jumpers.

Prices Tonight—

The prices for Richards & Pringle's minstrels which appear at the Opera House tonight are 25 and 50 cents. Curtains will not rise until 9 p. m.

After Deer—

Leaving this morning in the Young car, P. A. Young, N. G. Lewelling and Burr Sloan were headed for the Alsea country, to be in readiness for the open season for deer.

Jarvis Always Pleases—

Stanley Jarvis is singing again at the Globe. He is worth hearing a good many times, his singing growing on one. Easy, with a splendid enunciation, his offerings are always good ones.

Jitney Lost Wheel—

A jitney met with an accident up 7th and Elm last night, a wheel came off, and the machine had to be towed to a garage for aid.

A Nice City—

A. A. Schutz, wife and daughter, of South Dakota, were guests of F. A. Klampe and daughters during the week. Tuesday they all made a sight-seeing trip over Albany, which the visitors think is a nice little city, and it is.—Jefferson Review.

Went to Cascadia—

Grant Froman and son, Cecil, left this morning for Cascadia where they will be gone over Sunday. They will return Monday morning.

SOCIAL

Little Misses Evelyn and Helen Van Nuden celebrated their sixth and fourth birthdays with a party Wednesday afternoon at their home on West Ninth street. Ten little girls were their guests and the small hostesses were the recipients of many pretty gifts. The afternoon was pleasantly passed in playing games and reading stories, followed by a dainty lunch. Pink and blue, the favorite colors of Evelyn and Helen, were used in decorating the rooms. Those invited were: Bertha Roley, Lons Wicks, Lena Fuller, Donna Giblin, Helen Ryder, Norma Blanche, Ruth Sexauer (Minneapolis), Doris Dowlin, Elaine and Lenora Michel.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Folsom and

Misses Virgie and Mildred Holbrook motored to Albany this week from their home in Bellingham, Washington, and will visit with their relatives the R. W. Holbrooks, William Van Nudens and Mrs. Pearl Roley.

Mrs. Rollin Hackleman returned

Tuesday, by train, with Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Essex, after a month's visit in Sacramento, the mountains and San Francisco. Mr. Rollin Hackleman returned home last week by the Great Northern.
