CITY NEWS

Hop Baskets Around—

Hop baskets around town indicate that the picking season is fast approaching. It will be here about the first of September. Harry Schlosser, of the North Albany yard, reports having his list of registrations for picking full.

Returned from California—

Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Conn and son Hubert have returned from California where they had been to see the fair. They went down in their auto and returned on the steamer, bringing their auto back that way.

Thirty Conversions—

Rev. Fagan yesterday completed a three week's revival at Jefferson, with remarkable success for a summer's revival. The total number of accessions to the church was 30. Great interest was taken. The meetings were held in a large tent.

Manager Lowe Ill—

J. C. Lowe, the popular manager of the Home Telephone Co. at Corvallis, yesterday was taken seriously ill with acute appendicitis. It was thought an operation would be necessary, but this morning he was much better, and it may not be necessary to have the operation. His many Albany friends will be glad to know of his improvement.

M. A. Miller Here—

Hon. Milton A. Miller, collector of internal revenue at Portland, was in the city yesterday after having been to Lebanon to look after property interests.

Drove to Newport—

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Leadbetter and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eyrond, accompanied by Miss Beatrice Sanders, drove to Newport yesterday where they will spend a week at the seashore. Miss Sanders will be the guest of the Misses Anne and Janet Dawson.

Followed King's Advice—

Last week an insane man with the hallucination that he was being pursued by men from California stopped off in this city and at the suggestion of Acting Chief of Police Griff King, went on to Salem. There the police picked him up and put him on the train for Portland. He gave his name as W. M. Powers, of San Diego, Cal.
He claimed to be able to hear the men coming for him and tried to get to the governor's office to get protection.

Cusicks at Cascadia—

J. D. Cusicks and family, with Fred Weatherford and Dr. W. R. Bilyeu as guests, drove to Cascadia yesterday for a Sunday outing.

Gossiping—

A Democrat man was walking along the street, when he heard one young lady remark to another: "You can't turn sideways, but what they have something to say about you." A good illustration of the gossip.

Mrs. Davis Ill—

Mrs. W. W. Davis, of Alsea, wife of a former pastor of the Baptist church, of this city, and sister of Mrs.
L. Viereck, was brought out to Corvallis last Saturday for an operation.
She is doing well.

In the Portland Papers—

Two Albany people were pictured in the Telegram Saturday evening: W. L. Mark, vice chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of Oregon, who will undoubtedly be elected grand chancellor at the next annual session, now headed for Wizard Island, and Miss Louise Pirtle, now a bride up along the shores of Alaska, sailing towards Seward. The prominence of the young people and the novelty of the wedding arrangement has attracted wide attention.

For Treatment in Portland—

Mrs. Francis M. Wilson left this morning for Portland where she will take a few weeks rest in a sanatorium.
Off for the Fair—

J. C. Irvine and son Harold, left this morning on the Oregon Electric for Portland. They will sail on the Great Northern for San Francisco and spend a few days at the fair.

Returned to Carson—

R. L. Cline, of the Wind River nursery, the government tree propagation plant at Carson, Wash., returned to that place this morning. He has been in the Cascadia district looking for Douglas fir seed and reports having had success in that line. He will return in two weeks or so and proceed to harvest a large amount of the seed for planting at the nursery, and later to be set out to reforest some barren place in the Oregon mountains.

Returned to Canada—

W. J. Fisher returned this morning to his ranch near Calgary, Canada, after attending the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Margaret Fisher, who was buried here last week. Mr. Fisher is well known in Albany, having passed most of his life in Linn county. He reports crops excellent in Alberta, and says that wheat on his ranch will thresh 50 to 60 bushels to the acre. The stalks are over five feet high. Last fall he sold a car load of steers which weighed from 1400 to 1600 pounds each.

Returned to Nebraska—

C. M. Allison and family, of North Platte, Neb., left this morning on their return home after a visit in this city with J. C. Van Akin and family for the past week. They have been to the California fairs and are returning home via the northern route.

Mrs. Beeson Returns—

Mrs. Isabelle Beeson returned home yesterday from Sheridan, where she has been the past week to attend the convention of the G. A. R. and L. of G. a. R. She also visited relatives and friends while there.

Out for Fish—

G. A. Flood, the popular dry goods merchant left on the morning bullet for Detroit where he will spend a few days forgetting business cares in an endeavor to land a sufficient quantity of the speckled beauties from the waters of the Santiam.

Loo Foo to Portland—

Loo Foo, the oriental proprietor of the White House restaurant, went to Portland this morning to spend a short vacation among his celestial brothers.

Left for E. Oregon—

Fred Dohmert left yesterday morning for Drusey, in southeastern Oregon where he will spend his vacation for the next three weeks.

To Hunt in Alsea—

George Hughes, Jr. will leave tomorrow morning with a party for a hunt in the mountains about 12 miles west of Alsea.

Leaving for the East—

Lowell Scott and Carlyle O'Hara will leave this afternoon for Portland.
Tomorrow they will sail on the Great Northern for San Francisco. After a look at the big exposition they will leave for the east, Scott going to Kansas City and O'Hara to his old home in Paris, Indiana.

Return to Texas—

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Anderson left this morning for their home in Emerill, Texas, after a visit at the home of T. J. Anderson in this city.

Eugene People to Newport—

Mrs. Albert Geiser and daughters, the Misses Barker and Montgomery, of Eugene, arrived in the city this morning and will go to Newport on the noon train.

Many Knights to Crater—

Saturday and Sunday many automobile loads of Knights of Pythias passed through Albany on their way to Crater Lake to attend the degree work in the Crater of Wizard Island.
A large White auto truck from Hood River was here for a time yesterday, among others. Many Knights also went down by train.

Woods full of Hunters—

"If I were going deer hunting, I sure wouldn't go now," said an Albany man this morning. "I'd wait till a few of these early birds got out and made the forests safer before venturing in." It is said that if all the hunters on one of the south bound trains Saturday evening had been put in one coach they would have filled it. That was just on one train, bound for points on Cow Creek canyon.

Hundreds of others went out on other trains Saturday and Sunday.

Motored to Cascadia—

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Woods in their three passenger Studebaker and Mrs.
Wm. Pfeiffer and children in their Dodge car, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woods, drove to Cascadia yesterday for the day.

Got a Spike—

It is reported that Ben Clelan, who was among the early hunters in the field yesterday, got a spike deer, a nice, fat buck going on his second year of age. If every hunter in the woods got one deer yesterday the tribe would soon be extinct.

Back of the Job—

County Clerk Rufus M. Russell is back at his desk after a week's visit with relatives at Shelburne.

Auto Tipped Over—

An auto accident occurred yesterday at Soap Creek bridge, six miles south of Independence, when a 1915 Studebaker car owned by C. M. Bryant, of Philomath, and driven by his daughter tipped over the embankment, badly damaging the body of the car. None of the occupants were injured. In the car with Miss Bryant were Joe Kidhure and Jim Allen, of Corvallis, and another girl whose name was not learned.

Burns' Cottage.

The Burns cottage at Ayr is under the charge of trustees, who purchased it in 1881 from the Ayr Shoemakers' incorporation for the sum of £4,000.
The birthplace of the poet had up till that time been in use as a public house.
The trustees abandoned this use and after a time removed the hall and other extraneous buildings which had been added to the premises and restored the cottage buildings as nearly as possible to the state they may have been in in Burns' time. A new museum was built at the northeast corner of the grounds.
Most of the relics were removed to the museum, which now contains a priceless collection—a first or Kilmarnock edition of the poet's works, for which £1,000 was paid, and Burns' family Bible, acquired at a cost of £1,700.—

Weak on Geography.

Geography floors most of us occasionally, and Dean Hole has recorded an instance when even a bishop nodded. Hole and Dean Spence were staying with Dean Pigou at Chichester, and their host began to talk about Korea. Suspecting some ignorance, he asked if they knew where it was.
Hole said he thought you looked for Charing Cross and Spence that you got out at Roker street. There was laughter, and a bishop who had been listening asked in perplexity wherein lay the joke.—London Standard.

Great Famines.

The worst famines of modern times were the famine in Ireland in 1846-7, in which 1,000,000 people perished; the Indian famine in 1896, which claimed 1,450,000 victims; the Indian famine in 1877, in which 500,000 people perished, and the great famine in China in 1878, in which 9,500,000 died.

When It Broke.

Bill—Did you ever try to stand on an egg?
Jim—Oh, yes.
"And what did you learn?"
"That the inside of the egg was stronger than the outside."—Yonkers Statesman.

Place of Practice.

"I wonder how Mrs. Inkleigh got her start as a writer of fiction."
"Composing references for her discharged help. I understand."—Boston Transcript.

OREGON ELECTRIC TO HAVE STOCK YARDS AT HARRISBURG

Portland, Aug. 16.—Supplemental to other improvement projects now in progress on the main line it was announced today that the Oregon Electric will build a 3-pen standard stock yard and loading chute at Harrisburg just as quickly as the material can be assembled to do the work. This announcement comes closely upon improvements recently authorized at Corvallis where the electric line plans to go after a fair share of the stock transportation business in that section.
