Iowa People Left—

Mrs. J. E. McKean of Des Moines, Iowa and her daughter, Mrs. A. G. Wilson of Hebron, Neb., have been visiting at the home of their aunt Mrs. A. B. Dunlap. Before coming to Albany they visited friends in California, spending several weeks at Los Angeles and Lancy Beach and attended the exposition at San Francisco. They like Oregon very much and think it is fully equal to California. They left this morning for Portland, from which place they will continue their journey homeward.

Out from Yaquina—

Mrs. M. J. Teeters and daughter returned to Yaquina this morning. Mrs. Teeters came out to see her grandmother, Mrs. Parker, now of Mollala.

Auto Hit Tree—

In starting away from the home of her sister, Mrs. Alton Coats, at Seventh and Broadalbin streets last night, Mrs. Roy Woods failed to make her new Studebaker respond quickly enough in turning and the car ran into a tree near the pavement. The radiator was jammed in a little, but no serious damage was done.

Nearly a Runaway—

A team hitched to a heavy load of wood stood in front of the Pullman restaurant this noon, and when the street car came along they got frightened. They made a dash and pulled the wagon onto the sidewalk, but the driver, assisted by Charles Shortridge, brought them to a stop in front of the Globe Theatre before any damage was done.

Six Beautiful Women—

The six most beautiful women of Ohio are to be in the valley the first part of September, about the third and fourth. They are travelling for the Art Film Co. and are taking pictures along the way. Perhaps the most beautiful in Ohio, but they will have to primp up when they get to Albany.

Dufur Doctor Here—

Dr. Knowles, of Dufur, has been in the city in the interest of his medicines, while on a trip through the valley. The doctor treats everything from corns to appendicitis, without operation, and also the ailments of horses and cattle. He reported having seventeen girls at McMinnville under his charge, all of whom but three had been operated on for different things. The doctor has resided at Dufur for 33 years and has a wide reputation through Eastern Oregon.

Funeral of H. H. Savage—

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Warner went to Salem this morning to attend the funeral of their brother-in-law, Henry Hill Savage, at 10 o'clock this forenoon at the Presbyterian church. Mr. Savage was a prominent pioneer. In school days at Willamette he was a fellow student of Judge H. H. Hewitt and H. Bryant, of this city.

Here from Astoria—

Ruth Hendricks, of Astoria, is in the city on a visit to the guest of Nellie Burns. Miss Hendricks is a former Albany girl, going to Astoria a year or two ago.

At the Hall—

A. D. Hall and family have had as visitors recently several old friends. Mr. and Mrs. McConnell Shank, of Akron, Ohio, after a visit here for several days left for San Francisco by way of Flavel and the G. N. Mr. Shank is a Diamond Rubber man. Hugh McQueen, of Medisto, Calif., on his way to Baker City to look after some mining interests visited at the Hall home for a few days.

Some Sidewalk Hay—

The owner of the property at First and Ferry streets, formerly the Palu Cafeteria, has been late in harvesting his crop of hay coming up out of the sidewalk. Most of the hay is now

"A Good Tire is built like a good house," says old Man Mileage.

Build it cheaply, put in cheap foundations, flimsy beams and rafters, cheap walls inside and out, and you won't get much comfort and service out of it; it won't stand service out of it, it won't stand.

"And it's the same way with tires," says Old Man Mileage. "Tires are 'houses' and I never live very long in cheap ones."

REPUBLIC TIRES

are solidly built, so honestly put together out of the very best materials that "mileage" will remain in them longer than in any other make

The makers think so and back their belief with a guarantee of 5000 miles on REPUBLIC Staggard Treads. Ask the man who uses them.

During the absence of J. C. Irvine, on his vacation trip, Henry Fish is assisting Hiram Torbet in the First Savings Bank.

Returned from Newport—

W. A. Sharp and family have returned in their auto from Newport, where they spent several weeks, enjoying the sea breezes.

Some Fine Arts—

Some pastel pieces at the Art Craft store are worth studying. They are the work of Mr. Will Taylor, who recently came here from Toledo, Ohio. Mrs. Taylor and children have been here for a year or two. The subjects are good ones as foundation, and the skill displayed and coloring are of a high order, particularly where one appreciates the eastern coloring as presented by nature. It is an interesting fact that Mr. Taylor does his work entirely with his fingers.

Coon in Town—

Clarence Coon, of Corvallis, has been in the city today. He is on the Whitaker farm. Mr. Coon formerly resided at Shedd and Halsey where his folks live.

After a Bill Poster—

Chief of Police Griff King this afternoon was looking for a Barnes show bill poster. One of them, without the consent of the agent of the building formerly occupied by C. O. Anderson, had filled the windows with flaming bills. In fact the agent said he had prohibited the use of the windows for the purpose. The chief was backed by a warrant for John Doe; but who he is is not an easy thing to discover.
