City News

Was on the Arabic—

The Arabic, recently sunk by a German submarine was the vessel on which Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Wakefield, of Portland, made their trip to Europe on a few years ago. L. E. Hamilton, of this city, was on the vessel in the New York harbor for a few minutes.

Bean Eaters Passed—

A party of bean eaters, all the way from Boston, passed through the city Saturday evening in their auto. At Portland they were to ship their car east and ride in a Pullman. They certainly showed the outdoor life they had been living, brown as bears. The party consisted of T. F. Buffon, P. R. Torrey, W. C. Harrington and R. T. Churchill. They are among hundreds of eastern people who are touring the coast in cars, many of whom pass through Albany on the Pacific highway.

In Eugene—

Miss Bernice Hackleman, of Albany, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Glen Elkins. She expects to remain here two weeks.—Register.

Changes Hands—

The Gazette-Times of Corvallis, has been sold to Claude E. Ingalls, of Washington, Kan. He will take charge September 1. Ingalls is an experienced newspaper man.

If Wobbly—

If this end of the earth tips up a little today the cause will be easily understood. Ex-President Taft is in Portland.

In the Cellar—

The Beavers, of Portland, are now hopelessly in the cellar. Even Salt Lake City beat them five out of six. This ought to bring cold weather in Portland.

Once Common People—

In a breakfast given in Portland yesterday in honor of Ex-President Taft, Judge Taft, there were present, according to a picture in the Oregonian, among several, a number who used to be just common, everyday fellows down this way: George Chamberlain, a former county school teacher in Linn county; Harry Lane, born in Corvallis; Frank Irvine, once editor of the Corvallis Times; Ted McArthur, a Polk county farmer; Pat Piper, once the Democrat's devil; Charles Fulton, a former resident out by Waterloo, and Jas. Withycombe, ex-instructor in the O. A. C.

Operation on J. C. Lowe—

At Corvallis last night an operation was performed upon J. C. Lowe, manager of the Home Telephone Co. at that city, and this morning a telephone message reported him doing well. He has a large circle of friends here who will hope for his complete recovery.

Died in Portland—

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bowersox went to Portland yesterday, called there by the death of Mrs. Bowersox's brother, Dr. M. V. Forrest. He was a young man only 28 years of age. He was born in Wheatland, Yamhill county, and, after being an assistant in the hospitals began practice for himself.

Visiting Her Folks—

Miss Ruby McLagan, stenographer for the Marion Creamery company, will leave this evening for a visit of several days with her parents living south of Albany.—Journal.

The Stolen Pie—

It was done in Eugene by some prominent young people of that city; but will be shown in Albany at the Globe next Wednesday only. The film involves well known people of Eugene, Elmer Paine appearing as a tramp, Mayor Bell himself, and two Eugene girls in bathing suits, who dive into the mill race. One scene is on the lawn of F. E. Dunn, and there are numerous street scenes. The whole is a comedy, and it is declared to be a good one.

Salem Railway Excursion—

Yesterday morning a large number of the employees of the Portland, railway, Light & Power Co., of Salem, and their families and friends, passed through the city enroute to Newport where they spent the day at a picnic at the beach. They carried with them their excellent band, which rendered several selections while waiting for their train which was late in leaving. The early morning concert was greatly enjoyed by the large crowd of pleasure seekers and passengers and residents of Albany living in the vicinity of the depot.

Salem People Here—

Mr. and Mrs. R. Chauncey Bishop and Carl D. Gabrielson, of Salem, motored to Albany yesterday and joined a swimming party. While here they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Young.

Illinois People Here—

Corvallis People Visit—

Gordon Rosendorf, Julius Tulop, E. M. Duffy and A. C. Ackerman, of Corvallis, motored over from that city yesterday and remained over night at the Albany Hotel.

Two of a Kind—

This morning a man, heavily bearded with a luxuriant growth of mountain whiskers, passed through the city leading a blue gray burro. The little mule was laden with a complete camping outfit, consisting of a small canvas used for a tent, a chair, cooking utensils, grub box, crockery, saw, and numerous other articles. The grizzled owner walked ahead of his companion carrying a double-barrelled shotgun and defied all comers. When asked where he was going the pedlar replied in sweet courtesy that it was nobody's business and he would see them in the hot place if anybody got fresh with him, using a choice collection of adjectives to emphasize his earnestness. He proceeded unmolested down Ellsworth street to First and disappeared in the east down that thoroughfare.

Maccabees Went to Scio—

Eighteen members of the Maccabees went to Scio Saturday night in the Peabody auto to do some special work with the Scio Maccabees, having an enjoyable time. They were royally entertained and pronounced the Scio Maccabees fine entertainers.

Mr. Brownell of Aberdeen—

C. E. Brownell, of Aberdeen, has been in the city today on a short trip, while here being the guest of his brother-in-law of Geo. C. Simons, Mr. Brownell is a former Albany grocer, before leaving here nine years ago, being located at the present site of the Ralston Electric Supply store. He sees a great change in Albany, a transformation since his residence here of fifteen or twenty years. Mr. Brownell continues to own property here, a residence at Calapooia and Eleventh streets. Aberdeen is a lumber making town, hence is affected some now by a slow market.
