GERMANY'S PRAYER.

The following prayer is taken from a German paper, and is of such a striking character the Democrat gives it:

Realizing the fact that almost the whole world is warring against Germany and Austro-Hungary, seeking their destruction, and believing in the righteousness of their cause in the sight of God, which is proved by the fact that God's blessing has evidently been with them, and which is testified to by their numerous victories against great odds, and for which the Kaiser's and a number of their God-fearing officers have often publicly given all honor and glory to God, and for which they have been as often publicly jeered at by their enemies and sympathizers, therefore, I call upon all Christians believing in the righteousness of the German and Austro-Hungarian cause to unite their rulers and people of these countries in earnest and continuous prayer that this horrible war may soon end in victory to their cause, building our hopes not upon our own righteousness, but upon the merits of our Redeemer who has commanded us "to cast all care upon Him," and upon the fact that the Lord of Hosts will not allow His name to be mocked nor those to be put to shame who put their trust in Him, but that for His name's sake He will hear our petitions for "not unto us, not unto us but unto Thy name be the glory."

IF IN PHILIPPINES.

If any outrage like that which occurred in Georgia the other day, when a mob of so-called "respectable citizens" took Leo Frank out of prison and lynched him, had taken place in the Philippines, several hundred pages of the Congressional Record would have been filled with speeches, delivered and undelivered, attacking the Philippine government. This and hundreds of other incidents demonstrate clearly that the Philippines have at least as good a government under the present system as the United States. The Filipino people are without doubt better satisfied with the administration of justice in the islands than are thousands of American citizens with the courts of this country.—Army and Navy Journal.

BEING PRESIDENT.

Abraham Lincoln once said: "No man ought to be ambitious to be president of the United States; when this war is over, and that won't be very long, I tell my Tad we will go back to the farm where I was happier as a boy when I dug potatoes at twenty-five cents per day than I am now. I tell him I will buy him a mule and a pony, and he shall have a little cart, and he shall make a little garden in a field of his own."

MISFITS

Please, Mr. Roosevelt, shut up.

The world's most intense baseball fan has been heard from. He was dying at Ft. Smith, Ark., and with short breath asked how the Cincinnati-Brooklyn game went. Cincinnati beat Brooklyn 5 to 0, was the reply. "Good," said the man, whose name was Brown. "I can die happy," and he did.

The average prayer is "my will, not Thine be done."

Shakespeare said: "His words went up, his thoughts remained below, words without thoughts never to heaven go."

A good many prayers are just words with wet powder, covering everything from a sick neighbor to the president of the U. S., like a jack of all trades.

Prayers, like business, right to the point, one thing at a time, should count the most.

Dun continues to speak optimistically of the times.

Fall trade will begin in a few days. Help boost it at home among your neighbors. Build up Albany stores rather than Chicago stores.

A public hitching place for farmers would help. Some one tells Misfits of at least one hundred dollars going away because of insufficient hitching accommodations here.

A Newport man lost his Ford the other day, according to the News. It happened this way. A farmer tied his dog to it. The dog thought it was a tin can and ran away with it. The only damage was a sore canine appendage.

Some people gauge time from one circus to another.

Qualities Which the Eye Cannot See

Fine workmanship, fine adjustment of parts and fine balance reveal themselves in the way the car sticks to the road at high speed.

The car weighs only 2200 pounds, but that weight is so perfectly distributed that it holds steadily to a straight-ahead course. The passengers feel scarcely a particle of vibration even when the engine is exerting its full quota of power.

The wheel base is 110 inches. The price of the car complete is $880, Albany, Oregon.
