A pretty wedding was solemnized Tuesday morning at ten-thirty o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hamlet Jacks on West Seventh street, when their daughter Margaret Templeton, was united in marriage to Mr. Roland S. Snyder. Rev. W. P. White read the impressive service, under a large maple tree on the lawn. A background of flowers and ferns and evergreen formed an attractive setting for the bridal party. Mrs. Charles Manley of Bridal Veil sang "I Love Thee, Darling," accompanied on the violin by Mrs. Oscar Tinkie, who followed with "Mendelssohn's Wedding March." During the ceremony, Mrs. Tinkie played "Schubert's Serenade" softly, on the violin. The garden walk, strewn with ferns, formed a pretty aisle for the coming of the bride and her maid of honor. They were met at the improvised altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Leslie Sharp. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attractive in her gown of white silk crepe de chine, adorned with draped chantilly lace and trimmed with pearls. She wore a dainty cap of the chantilly lace, and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas combined with maidenhair fern. Her sister, Miss Carolita Jacks, as maid of honor, was gowned in pink voile with net overdress, and wore a corsage bouquet of pink sweet peas and fern. After the reception, a luncheon was served, to the thirty friends and relatives of both young people. Many pretty wedding gifts were given them. The young couple will be at home at 907 Calapooka street until September first, when they will take a wedding trip.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Marsh was the scene of a merry party of little folks on August twenty-first when Frances and Vera celebrated their birthday together, Vera's being August twenty-first, and Frances October eighteen. Vera was eight and received many remembrances which were greatly appreciated. The most interesting scene of the afternoon was the burning of the candles on the birthday cake, when the candles were lighted by Vera, she set the cake on the floor and each little child gathered around and watched with utmost interest, the first three candles being blown out by Helen Palmer. Then the party joined in applause and blew out the rest.

Little folks present were Pearl and Hetherell Hoeflich, Evelyn Wallace and Helen Palmer, Louise and Mary McDonald, Frances, Jeanne and Mary Daniels, Doty Hughes, Pearl Durley, Elmer Chesley and Kenneth Lake, Dorothy Robnett, Barbara and Luella Morgan, Isabelle Turner, Bobbie and Margaret Stevens, Jenevieve and Robert Young, Marybelle Braden, Seth and Ruth Caldwell, Elizabeth Beam, Frances and Vera and Opal Marsh. Mothers present were Mrs. A. J. Caldwell (Knox Butte), Mrs. Bert Stevens, Mrs. Arthur Palmer, Mrs. Fred Caldwell, Mrs. George Falk and nephew of Salem, who are spending the week end with Mrs. Caldwell; Mrs. Lydia Edholm, aunt of Vera, whose birthday comes on the same day as Vera's and they always celebrate them together. Owing to the extreme warmth of the day the mothers all congratulate the children on getting along so nicely together.

A pretty wedding of the week took place on Wednesday at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. A. L. Geddes on East Fourth street, when Miss Pansy L. Stewart was united in marriage to Mr. John Shepherd. Only the members of the Rebecca team, who gave the wedding, and the bride's mother, were present at the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Mr. Fagan of the Christian church, the ring ceremony being used. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion with pink roses and pink sweet peas. In the baywindow in the parlor, where the wedding party stood, was an embankment of potted plants and festoons of sweet peas and ferns. The color scheme throughout the rooms being pink and green the lodge colors. Mrs. E. H. Edgar played the wedding march, after having sung "I Love My Love." The bride looked pretty in a white lingerie gown and carried pink carnations. Little Miss Geneva Ohling dressed in white, was flower girl and carried a basket filled with pink roses. Little Miss Vivian Earl, in a pink frock carried a large pink rose in the center of which was the ring. After the ceremony and congratulations were showered upon the popular young couple, the guests were ushered out on the lawn under the trees, where a large table was prettily decorated in the pink sweet peas and roses, where a wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd left in the late afternoon, amid rice and good wishes for Conser, where they will reside on a farm. Miss Minnie Merrill caught the bride's bouquet.

The Rural Ladies' Club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Berry on Thursday, at her home near Tangent. The ladies served during the afternoon, after which refreshments were served. The members present were Mesdames Ashton, Enrich, Barber, Misses Norah and Lucy Ashton. The honored guests were Misses Eva and Edith Burns of Tangent.

The marriage of Miss Belle Chance of Portland to Mr. A. Goodwin of this city took place Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's father in the Rose City. After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin will reside at Seventh and Washington streets.

On Tuesday evening the Rebecca Team met in the Odd Fellows Hall for practice, after which Miss Pansy L. Stewart was the inspiration for a miscellaneous shower. She received many dainty and useful gifts. The team also presented her with a clock. Refreshments rounded out the evening's pleasure.

Misses Julia Crowell and Elsie Bain were the inspiration for an informal afternoon and picnic supper on Tuesday given by Miss Helen Hulbert at her home on West Seventh street. Fancy work and conversation interspersed with music were the diversions of the afternoon. Miss Crowell was presented with a book, composed of choice receipts, brought by the young ladies and pictures of each lady on the page with her receipts. Miss Bain was given a book containing kodak pictures of the young ladies. The guests included Misses Winnie Austin, Zona Haight, Marion Anderson, Kate Stewart, Stella Dorgan, Lora and Gerty Taylor, Greta Fortmiller, Merle Wilson, Isabelle Young, Elsie Bain, Julia Crowell, Mrs. L. Reade Dowlin and Mrs. D. W. Merrill.

A jolly crowd of young folks went down the river on Wednesday for supper. The latter part of the evening was passed in games and singing. The party included the Misses Zona Haight, Winnie Austin, Marion Anderson, Mae Tillman, Messrs. Clarence Feltz, E. L. Shumaker, Fred Weatherford, and Dr. Biley.

On Tuesday Mrs. Roscoe Thompson and daughter Florence of Jefferson, Miss Claire Tillman and Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Smith went to Cascadia for an outing and to join the Misses Volena and Lanthie Smith who have been camping for the past ten days. Mr. and Mrs. William White went by auto to Cascadia on Tuesday for a couple of days' outing.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gibson in North Albany was the scene of a delightful affair on Wednesday, when they entertained for the ladies of the United Presbyterian church in the afternoon. Fancy-work was the pastime for a few social hours and at six o'clock the men of the congregation joined the ladies for supper. Several musical selections were rendered, during the day by different members present. The trip over there was made in the auto truck and automobiles.

A delightful affair of the week took place on Friday when the Misses Lora and Gerty Taylor entertained for the Misses Julia Crowell and Elsie Bain at a "Tea." The young ladies brought their fancywork and enjoyed a social afternoon together, after which a dainty repast was served. The guest list included the Misses Marion Anderson, Zona Haight, Winnie Austin, Stella Dorgan, Kate Stewart, Volena Davis, Mae and Claire Tillman, Helen Hulbert, Isabelle Young, Louise Wieder, Julia Crowell, Elsie Bain, Helen and Bertha Lee, Merle Wilson, Greta Fortmiller, Christine Pipe, Mae Black, Pera Wilkins, Dorothy Shanke (Salem), Volena Smith, Mrs. Winnie Washburn (Lebanon), Mrs. D. W. Merrill, Mrs. L. Reade Dowlin, and Miss Edna Davis (Eugene).

Bryant's park was the scene of a large picnic party the first of the week, when several young people met near the river, to eat their supper, together. After a good meal, a bonfire was built, around which the crowd made merry and sang and played games until a late hour. In the party were included the Misses Volena Davis, Pera Wilkins, Gladys Gilbert, Eda Krueger, Marie Wessel, Williamson, Hector, Messrs. Elmer Williamson, Vollstedt, Olson, Hector and Krueger.

On Wednesday a party composed of the Misses Marie Wessel, Clara Morgan, Edna Laubner, Pauline Burch, Priscilla Dobbs (New York), Elizabeth Torbet (Ohio), Marion Stanford, Anna D. Eddy, Lila McCoy, Isabelle Taylor, Messrs. Roy Kinsey, Hiram Torbet, Leslie Sharp, Ora Baker, Elmer Williamson, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Viereck gave a swimming party, after which a picnic supper was enjoyed. On Monday the same crowd enjoyed another picnic supper.

This week, nearly all of the social functions have been centered around Miss Julia Crowell, a bride to be, and next Wednesday she will be united in marriage to Mr. Edwin F. Fortmiller in the First Presbyterian church. It will be one of the largest affairs of the season and no doubt the church will be packed with guests at an early hour. Preceding the ceremony and beginning promptly at eight o'clock, there will be a musical program consisting of an organ solo by Miss Wilma Waggener and vocal selections by Mrs. A. J. Rahn, Miss Isabelle Young, Mr. Claire Lee (Junction City), and Mr. Albert Gillette (Eugene). Miss Crowell has chosen Miss Helen Hulbert for her maid of honor and the Misses Isabelle Garland (Lebanon), and Elsie Bain as bridesmaids. Little Miss Florence Fortmiller, a sister of the groom, will be flower girl. Earl Fortmiller will serve his brother as best man and the guests will be ushered by the Messrs. Dean, Crowell, Knute Houck (LaCrosse, Wisconsin), Gordon Barrett (Portland), Ralph Cronise, Neil Bain and Park Stalnaker. After the ceremony a reception will be held in the church parlors.

Tonight Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hawkins will be hosts at dinner, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Willis Viets (Pittsburg, Pennsylvania), Mrs. Julia Piper, Mr. and Mrs. Houck, Mrs. Pierce (LaCrosse, Wisconsin), and Mr. Knute Houck (LaCrosse, Wisconsin), guests at the Crowell home. Additional covers will be laid for Mr. and Mrs. Crowell, Miss Julia Crowell and Mr. Dean Crowell.

Mrs. Cannon (Conser), was a charming hostess on Wednesday, when she entertained at dinner in honor of Miss Julia Crowell. Seated around the attractively decked table were Mrs. Pierce (LaCrosse, Wisconsin), Mr. and Mrs. Houck and son Kenneth Houck (LaCrosse, Wisconsin), Miss Crowell, Mr. Edwin Fortmiller and Mr. George H. Crowell.

Miss Carolyn Wright returned last night after a delightful month's visit at Cascadia and Brownsville.

Miss Esther Dawson of Shedd, Oregon, came down Thursday and is passing a few days with Miss Gladys Sharp.

On Wednesday the Spanish War Veterans and their wives were invited to the home of Mrs. Patterson on West Third street to hear Mrs. Copeland the president of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Portland, give an address. The latter part of the evening was passed in a social hour and refreshments.

Miss Flora Stoaks, a bride elect, was an honored guest last night, when Mrs. A. C. Van Nuys entertained at a "miscellaneous shower" for her. She was the recipient of some very pretty and dainty gifts. Dainty refreshments were served in the late evening. Miss Stoaks and Mr. Lafe Compton are to be married on September the eighteenth.

Complimenting Miss Viola Crooks, who leaves Albany soon to go to Portland to study nursing, Miss Hazel Cowan entertained a few friends on Friday. Music and sewing were the diversions of the evening, after which refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Viola Crooks, Frances and Hallie Myers, Bina Reeves, Gladys McCourt, Katherine Kyle, Hazel Cowan, Mrs. L. M. Curl and Mrs. J. E. Cowan.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Sloan were dinner hosts on Thursday in honor of Mr. Joe Green of Carthage, Illinois, and also in honor of Mr. Sloan's birthday. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Sloan, Mrs. E. D. Sloan, Mrs. Sarah Sloan, Miss Alice Green, Mrs. E. L. Hughes and Mr. Joe Green.

On Friday Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes were hosts at dinner, their guests including the immediate family and several relatives.

Miss Julia Crowell gave an informal reception on Thursday afternoon and evening, when her friends called at her home on West Fifth street, where she displayed a chest of many pretty and dainty articles in her trousseau. Refreshments were served in the dining room to about fifty guests.
