DENTAL CONGRESS BEGAN AT SAN FRANCISCO TODAY

The Greatest Ever Held By the Profession, 5000 Delegates Being Present.

San Francisco, Aug. 30.—During the ten days session which opened at the civic auditorium today, of the Panama Pacific Dental Congress, clinics will be held in the San Francisco hospitals at which different operations on the oral cavity will be demonstrated by the most eminent oral surgeons in the world. These operations will be free and sufferers from cleft palate, hair-lip or other malformations of the mouth will be treated. The congress is attended by 5000 delegates from all parts of the world and is the greatest ever held by the dental profession. Among the many organizations are the international Dental Association (F. D. I.); National Association of Orthodontia; Dental Society of Southern California; Scientific Foundation and Research Commission; National Association of Dental Examiners; the Association of Military Dental Surgeons of the United States, and many of the state societies. Hiram Johnson, governor of California; C. C. Moore, president of the exposition, and Dr. Frank L. Platt, president of the congress, will welcome the delegates and Dr. True W. Brophy, president of the International Dental Federation, will reply

That Submarine Commander.
(By United Press)
Washington, Aug. 30.—Another communication regarding the Arabic reached the state department from Ambassador Gerard. It is believed it contained an account of the admiral's progress in getting news from the submarine commander who is supposed to have torpedoed the liner. Secretary Lansing didn't make the message public, saying it threw no fresh light on the situation.

Seventeen Drowned.
(By United Press)
London, Aug. 30.—A naval officer and sixteen boys from the naval training ship Cornwall, were drowned at Barflee when a rowboat and a tug collided during a squall. Barflee is on the Thames, 15 miles from London.

J. O. DRINKARD.
Harrisburg Commonwealth: J. O. Drinkard was born in Missouri, July 25, 1855, being 60 years and 24 days old at the time of his death. He was a pioneer of the county, having crossed the plains with his parents in early childhood. In 1873 he was married to Miss Ella Miller of Halsey. To which union were born four sons and two daughters, all of whom survive their father except Mrs. Eva Keeney who preceded him, having passed over in 1893. Those surviving besides his sorrowing widow are as follows: Ed, Drinkard of Chewelah, Washington; Claude of Coulle City, Washington; Bruce Drinkard of Hartline, Washington; and Clyde of Harrisburg. Splendid Fall Models Are Here

Getting away from the extreme novelty styles, by plain and moderately fancy designs, has been the aim of the artists in producing this season's garments

STUNNING NEW SUITS

The materials most in evidence in our suit section are gaberdines, serges, broadcloths, poplins and mixtures. The best colorings are navy, African brown, myrtle, gray, Burgundy and black. The belted effects are very popular in this season's suits, box shapes and plain tailored are also good. The skirts are mostly plain, a few numbers in pleats.
The novelty styles include braid and fur trimmings, velvet collars and other neat designs.
The suits now in stock are priced from $16.50 to $37.50

Coats in Most Approved Styles

Mixtures, matalam black, and corduroy in all shades are the most popular materials for the new coats. Plain and fur trimmed styles are here, some with short flaring effects, but most of them are longer than last season's models. They are very attractive, and represent the best styles offered in the greatest market centers.
