EVANGELIST MEIKLEJOHN ON UNCLE SAM IN THE BIBLE

"When we consider that the great nations of antiquity have come in for a share in Bible prophecies, it seems only reasonable that this nation of ours should also. No nation has made such rapid growth in such a short length of time or by a more peaceful means, no nation has done more for the good of humanity and the cause of religion than our own country. For these and other reasons we should expect to see it made a subject of Bible prophecy." These were a few of the opening words in the address on "Uncle Sam in the Bible," by Evangelist Meiklejohn at the cotton tabernacle last night. The study was based on Rev. 13. The first ten verses clearly described the papacy and its work as the vast agree. It was to continue "forty and two months"—1260 days or literally

AT THE THEATRES.

The Rolfe Theatre today presents a good five reel bill headed by "The Tools of Providence," a two part Mutual masterpiece, with Wm. S. Hart, a noted star, in the leading part. "The Picture of Dorian Gray," is an interesting two reel Thanhouser production with Gordon Harris taking the lead. A comical Keystone comedy, "Miss Fatty's Seaside Lovers," is a side splitter.

The Hub Theatre offers two features, "The Curse of Work," a two reel Billie Ritchie side splitter, and "The Little Blond in Black." The latter piece, it may be remarked, contains the stars, Ella Hall and Robert Leonard, who are starred in "Jewel," the big Broadway feature that comes to the Hub Wednesday and Thursday. Today's feature is a noteworthy one. A cartoon comedy, "Bobby Bump's Adventure," completes the bill.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Emma Neuschwander, who died on Saturday at St. Mary's hospital, was 62 years of age. She was a native of Ohio. She and her husband came to Oregon in 1877, and had lived in Linn county 17 years. Mrs. Neuschwander's maiden name was Emma Biery. She was married to Peter Neuschwander, March 13, 1873. To this union were born 13 children, five of whom preceded her.

She leaves to mourn her departure, a devoted husband, one brother, Chas. Biery of Michigan; one sister, Mrs. Rodgers, of Idaho; four sisters, living in Linn county, and eight children and 16 grandchildren, all of whom were in attendance at the funeral. Mrs. Neuschwander was a devoted member of the Mennonite church at Fairview, at which place the funeral services were conducted at one o'clock today. Rev. C. R. Gierg conducted the service. Interment at Knox Butte cemetery.
