EVANGELIST DICKSON SPOKE ON THE SEAL OF GOD

"God is doing a great closing up work for His people in contrast to the opposing work of the power symbolized by the beast of Rev. 13 and 14. That work on the part of God is going on today as well as the work of the beast, and the retribution which shall be meted out to those who find themselves lined up with the beast power at the end, when Christ comes, will receive the "wine of the wrath of God which is poured out without mixture into the cup of His indignation, and therefore will be lost for all eternity. But those who are found upon the side of the Lord at that day will be saved in the company known as the 144,000 who will be body guard of the Lamb upon Mt. Zion and through all eternity," said Evangelist Dickson in his opening remarks on the subject of "The Seal of God and the Mark of the Beast," at the cotton tabernacle last night.

The speaker took for his text, Rev. 14:9-11, and after reviewing the facts as brought out in previous studies regarding the beast of Rev. 13 he gave another fact which responds to the predictions of the prophecy which says, "Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of a man; for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred three score and six (666)." Rev. 13:18. The Douay or Catholic version of this text reads "The numeral letters of his name shall make up this number." (Edition of April 17, 1778.) Facts were brought out showing that one of the titles of the pope is in Latin "Vicarius Fili Dei" which means "A substitute for the Son of God," and also that this title was once worn by the popes on the triple crown. Taking the numerals of Roman notation from this name (U standing for V in the old Roman way of counting) it was shown to count up to a total of 666. And it is also a fact that in the Chaldean and Syriac the words for this title count up the same way as in other languages also, thus showing, said Dickson, that the least of Rev. 13 symbolizes the papacy and the warning in Rev. 14:9-11, has reference to the worship of this power.

After declaring that the image of the beast will be fully formed in this country in the very near future and that this country will cause by its laws all of its people to worship the image of the beast the Evangelist brought out from Rev. 7:14; Rev. 14:1; Isa. 8:16; Eze. 20:12, 20 and Rom. 4:11 that God will be doing a work for His true followers which will prepare them for heaven and also will prepare them to stand against the work of the enemies of God in the closing days of the earth's history.

The subject for tonight was announced as the "Unpardonable Sin."

Miss Myrtle Curry returned to Monmouth this week to attend the school. This is her senior year at school.

Miss Ada Kackley, of Lebanon, returned home last evening after attending teachers' institute here.

KNOX BUTTE NEWS AND PERSONALS

Knox Butte, Sept. 12.—Jerome Williams returned Friday evening from Groshong's hop yard where he had charge of the hop dryer.

The Knox Butte, East Knox Butte and Houston schools will each begin their school work Monday, Sept. 20. The teachers are Miss Mary Lines, Knox Butte; Mrs. Earl Miller, Houston; Prof. Arnold, East Knox Butte.

An important telephone meeting was held at Knox Butte school house Friday evening. Members of farmers 8 and line 2 being interested.

Mrs. Carl Miller went to Albany Sunday noon to meet her father, E. L. McKeever of Loma, Montana. Mr. McKeever was going to Halsey on business and it is probable that Mr. McKeever and family will return to again reside in Linn county.

Mrs. A. W. Martin complimented her sister, Mrs. Hawthorne, of Indiana and Mr. Martin's niece, Miss Mary and Martha Oliver, of Nebraska, who have been visiting at the Martin home, by inviting a number of ladies to spend the afternoon with them on Thursday.
