An informal reception was tendered Rev. and Mrs. D. H. Leech on Thursday in the parlors of the Methodist church, after prayer meeting. Mr. A. M. Hammer was chairman and short addresses were given by Rev. W. P. White, Rev. Fraser, Rev. Fagan, Rev. Young and Rev. Geselbracht, followed by responses by Rev. and Mrs. Leech and a reading by Miss Ora Harkness. The Leech family left Albany today for Corvallis to reside, where Mr. Leech will be pastor of the Methodist church. They made many friends during the past three years in this city, who wish them success in the Corvallis church.

A surprise party was given Miss Hazel Hall and Mr. Austin Hall at the home of Edward C. Viereck on Wednesday, the occasion being their birthdays. Games, pictures shown by a magic lantern and music made up the evening's diversion, after choice refreshments were served. The list of invited guests included Misses Faye King, Kamilla Kroschel, Ruth Rawlings, Letha Cummings, Letha Stewart, Kate Murphy, Myrtle Chestfield, Helen and Mildred Grigsby, Messrs. Vere Briggs, Roy Harris, Forrest Wire, Royal Archibald, Ernest Dohmert, Eaton Stewart, Gerall Williamson, Raymond Murphy, Geo. Berry and Ralph Heck.

A very pretty luncheon of the week was the one presided over by Mrs. C. V. Litter on Wednesday at the Hotel Albany, complimenting Mrs. Hendershott of Portland. Lavender was the color scheme, a large bowl of asters centering the table. Covers were laid for Mesdames Hendershott, Joseph Ralston, Dan Johnston, C. R. Winn, Rockey E. Mason, Owen Beam, Charles Cusick, W. A. Barrett, E. D. Cusick, Charles H. Stewart, Leroy Woods, Litter, Misses Ora Harkness, Ball and Flora Mason.

A surprise dinner party was given by Mrs. Charles Kroschel on Thursday, for her daughter Ella, the occasion being her twelfth birthday. Lucille Longbottom and Viola Kroschel assisted Mrs. Kroschel in serving the dinner to the following guests: Misses Marion White, Arlena Prochnow, Salome Cusick, Jenita Kroschel, Thelma Leadbetter, Florence Fortmiller, Pauline Dohmert, Muriel Gilbert, Dorothy Nickelson, Melba Neely, Viola Edwards, Louise Everton, Helen Nebergall and Ella Kroschel. Games and music made up the evening's pleasure.

Mrs. C. R. Hoevet entertained for the members of the Jolly Twelve club on Friday, at her home 839 East Third street. Fancy-work was the pastime of the afternoon, after which a dainty repast was served. The hostess complimented on this occasion Mesdames Fraser, A. Bowers, M. B. Craft, W. O. Simon, Wright (Moscow, Idaho), Schurstein, and Roy Gentry.

Mrs. L. E. Hamilton entertained for the Modern Travelers today at her home on South Ferry street. Roll call was responded to with "current events." An interesting paper on "Scottish Conquests" was read by Mrs. Henrietta Brown, followed by a splendid paper on "Bird and Animal Life" by Miss Nancy Gard. A social hour followed and choice refreshments were served.

In compliment to her sister, Mrs. Harry Hobbs of Eugene, Mrs. H. B. Cusick entertained at cards on Tuesday. The guests made up nine rubles at bridge and at a late hour, dainty refreshments rounded out the evening's pleasure.

Mrs. Clinton Straney was a delightful hostess for the members of the Needlecraft club, at her home on Geary street and the Santiam road. The ladies passed the afternoon in fancy-work, conversation and music after which refreshments were served.

The Monday Bridge club members met with Mrs. W. L. Marks this week. The ladies passed a few hours together in playing cards, after which dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. Francis Arnold substituted.

Miss Lottie Morgan will be hostess for the members of the Twilight club this evening at her home on Ninth and Calapooia street. After supper, fancy work will be the diversion of the evening.

Mrs. Roxie E. Palmer of Baker, Oregon, president of the Rebekah assembly paid her official visit to the local lodge on Monday evening.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Doughton on West Eleventh street was the scene of a seven o'clock cafeteria supper given by the members of the Thursday Tatting Club in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Williamson, who are going to move soon to their country home. The rooms were decorated in red dahlias and autumn leaves. Games furnished the amusement of the latter part of the evening. Those who enjoyed the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Minner M. and Mrs. R. Kuter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hofflich, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hofflich, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Baltimore, Mrs. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Williamson, and Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Doughton.

Miss Flora Mason was a delightful hostess on Wednesday, when she entertained the young ladies of her Sunday school class of the First Presbyterian church at dinner. At 7 o'clock the guests sat down at six small tables where dinner was served, after each course the young ladies progressed. The latter part of the evening was passed in a social hour and election of officers, which resulted as follows: President, Miss Margaret McDonald; vice president, Miss Georgia Thompson; secretary, Miss Helen Lee and treasurer, Miss Ruth Eddy.

On Tuesday evening at eight o'clock a very pretty wedding took place at home of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Briggs, when their daughter Ruth Alta was united in marriage to Mr. Walter H. Plagmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Plagmann, in the presence of about twenty-one relatives. Rev. Bialline, pastor of the Lutheran church officiating. The groom was attended by his brother Hans and the bride by her sister, Clara Cadwell. The bride was dressed in a dark brown suit and carried a bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair fern. A wedding supper was served after the ceremony. One of the features of the wedding, was the anniversary of the parents of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Plagmann left on the evening train for Yreka, California to visit the groom's brothers. On returning they will reside on a farm near Albany.

Miss Beulah Hinckley was the motif for a farewell surprise party last night at her home on Lyon and Sixth street. A crowd of young folks met at the Gilbert home on West Fourth, then proceeded to the Hinckley home. Games and music made up the evening's pleasure and at a late hour, refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Dale Wills, Gladys and Hazel Gilbert, Esther McChesney, Edna Coles, Messrs. Victor Oliver, Hiram Torbet, Raymond Tomlinson, Carl Volta (Portland), Ralph Lamb, Cleo Jenkins and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Willard.

The Women's Missionary Society of the United Presbyterian church met in the church parlors on Wednesday. The devotional exercises were led by Mrs. S. E. Young. Roll call was responded to with current missionary events. Mrs. Brown read an excellent paper on the "American Negro," followed by a splendid review on the "Missionary Work for the Month," by Mrs. S. N. Braden. This interesting meeting was followed by a social hour and dainty refreshments served by the hostesses, Mesdames Hoevet, F. P. Nutting, Mac Monteith and Miss Patterson.

The Beta Gamma girls, Misses Faye King, Ruth Loshner, Letha Cummings, Elda Pettibone and LaVerne Hofflich were hostesses at a delightful dinner party in honor of Misses Hazel Hall, Kamilla Kroschel and Ruth Rawlings, the occasion being their birthdays, at the Hall home last night. Pink roses and greenery decked the prettily decorated table. The complimented guests were Misses Letha Stewart, Catherine Murphy and Helen Livingood. The latter part of the evening was passed in games and music.

Last Sunday afternoon at the Horsky home on East Fifth street, Miss Mary Horsky was united in marriage to Mr. Otto C. Karstens of Benton county, Father Lane officiating, in the presence of relatives and a few friends. Miss Louise Svoboda was maid of honor and Mr. Elmer Williamson was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Karstens left Sunday night for Portland, where they will reside.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Christian church gave a social in the church parlors last night. Games and music were the diversions of the evening, followed by refreshments.

Mrs. Grant Stone, of Denver, Colorado, is visiting Miss Josephine Hall of 306 Ellsworth street.

Mrs. Geselbracht entertained the Baracca class of the First Presbyterian church last night. The young men passed the evening in a social hour followed by refreshments.
