Sales Increase With Better Light

Modern merchandising methods demand brilliantly lighted stores—the better the light the bigger the sales. The perfect sunlike brilliance of Mazda lighting displays merchandise to best advantage, and being smokeless and clean it makes customers more comfortable.

Type C. Mazda Lamps Give More Light Than Ever

You really get more effective lighting for no greater cost with Type C. Mazda lamps. We can demonstrate this fact to you very quickly without obligating you in any respect. You are doing yourself an injustice if you do not thoroughly investigate this better way of lighting right now.

Reopened Office—

J. C. Christy, the lawyer, who gave up his practice to E. E. Richardson, now in Eastern Oregon, has reopened his office, and will be found at his rooms in the Flynn block.

Special Scores—

Does modern science agree with Christian truth? Rev. G. H. Young will discuss this question Sunday night at the Baptist church. The specific subjects for discussion are: "How Man Came, When Man Came, and What Man Is." This is the second sermon in a series of popular evening addresses.

Monday Night Bible Class—

Meets every Monday night from now to the last of May. This is a good time to start. We begin Monday night with the first chapter of Genesis. Exactly one hour from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m.

Lou Stinson Here—

L. R. Stinson, grand keeper of records and seals of the Knights of Pythias of Oregon was in the city yesterday, the guest of Mayor L. M. Carl, who is also prominent in K. P. circles.

Standardized Course—

Mrs. Winnifred Worrrell, teacher of piano, has recently adopted the Standardized course of music study. A personal explanation of the work will be given on request. Pupils received after October first. Res. studio 635 W. 3rd St. Phone 438Y.

Easy Victim—

Although Mrs. W. W. Coney, of the Royal apartments of Portland, claims to have been connected with the Associated Charities in that city, and would naturally be supposed to be conversant with the evil ways of the world, she yielded to the temptation to have her fortune told by a gypsy "queen" on the fair grounds yesterday afternoon and was "touched" to the tune of $150. A gentleman friend, who accompanied her in doing the fair grounds "pique" was also relieved of $5, but he recovered his money without trouble.—Statesman.

Auctioneer Sudtell—

Ben Sudtell, the auctioneer, returned last night from Harrisburg, where he cried a big sale, with good results, and today went down to Conser to cry another. Hasn't even had time to hunt pheasants.

Will Attend Armory Dedication—

The fine new armory at Eugene will be formally dedicated on October 16, when the Albany company, under Capt. Powell expects to attend in a large body.

Same Old Chaplin—

It was the same old Charlie Chaplin that opened the laugh throttles at the Hub theatre last night. This inimitable comedian is always at his best in everything he undertakes. His antics in a French bakery are more than ludicrous and the way he gets away with his pranks would make an ignorant Indian laugh. The final scene where he emerges from the debris after the explosion of the dynamite is a scream. "Leah, the Forsaken," is a splendid three act picture, featuring the strength of love over religious creeds. The leading parts are admirably played by Vivian Prescott and Wm. Shay. Same bill tonight.

Robert Edeson is Great—

Robert Edeson, one of the leading American actors on the legitimate stage, has proven a strong number in the moving picture world. His presentation of the leading part in "Man's Prerogative" is a fine effort and the crowds at the Rolfe last night saw a real show of the master Mutual variety. The play is most interesting throughout and presents a splendid picture of the problem of a single moral standard for men and women. "Dot on the Daylight Line" is a comedy of the laugh producing variety.

Ray Chapler Here—

Ray Chapler, of the forestry department is in the city again after the summer season spent in the field. He will make his headquarters in this city with the forestry department during the winter.

Mrs. E. F. Maffren, accompanied by Mr. Hunter's sister, Mrs. I. N. Howe, of Albany, arrived home Wednesday morning from an auto trip to Roseburg, where they had been on a visit to relatives and friends. The party left Corvallis early Saturday evening in the Hunter auto and arrived in Roseburg 7:15 a. m. Sunday. On the return trip they left Roseburg at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and reached Corvallis at 1 a. m. Wednesday. They say the ride by moonlight was grand, and the trip was a delightful one.—Corvallis G. T.

Weather Report—

Rain is predicted tonight, but Sunday may be fair. Yesterday's rainfall was .16 inches. The river stands at 0.7 feet. The temperature ranged between 47 and 69 degrees.

More Vaudeville—

Manager Ayres, of the Globe theatre, announces that the full Empress Vaudeville bill will be shown here Monday, October 11th. This will not just be a portion of the show, but the entire bill of six acts as it is put on in Portland, Seattle, and other places. Albany gets the show Monday and Salem Tuesday.

Many See "The Escape"—

More people tried to see "The Escape" at the Globe theatre last night at the first show than there was room for, and many were turned away. "The Escape" is one of the best things brought to Albany of late, and with such stars as Mae Marsh, Blanche Sweet, Robert Harren, and Owen Moore in the cast there is no question about the character of the acting. The play was produced under the direction of David W. Griffith, producer of "The Birth of a Nation."

At the Baptist Church—

The fall season opened up last Sunday in a splendid way at the Baptist church. The Sunday School had a large attendance and a very helpful and interesting program was given at the Rally Service. The school is alive

RECEPTION TO BE TENDERED Mlle. JOMELLI TUESDAY

The superintendents of the woman's departments of the Willamette Valley Exposition, the wives of the Board of Directors, and the members of the Ladies' O'cette will give a reception for Madame Jomelli next Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock in the parlors of the Hotel Albany. A most cordial invitation to attend is extended to the people of Albany, and especially to those interested in music.

with interest, and great things are the expectations for the near future. 250 attendance is the number at present for which the school is striving. Classes for all ages and conditions. If YOU do not belong to any school, may we not see you at the Baptist school at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. A real warm welcome is the kind you will get. Get the habit of coming, it is a good one to cultivate. (Slogan) "The School That Begins on Time."

Annual Rally Day—

The First Methodist rally Sunday school will hold the annual Rally Day and reception to new members tomorrow at 11:45. A good program has been prepared and all who are not attending other Sunday schools are invited to be present.

Mme. Jeanne Jomelli, Who Sings at the Globe Theatre Monday

Next Monday night, the rare opportunity will be presented to the Albany people of hearing one of the world's greatest singers, Madame Jeanne Jomelli.

Madame Jomelli is endowed with a dramatic soprano voice, clear, full and sweet. It has the dulcet tones of a silver bell and rings splendidly robust and true in the heavier passages of grand operas and in the highest notes of all selections.

Among all the great artists of the Metropolitan and Hammerstein Opera companies, Mme. Jomelli was accorded highest honors. Her greatest success was probably as the creator of the role of "Goewin" in Mr. Holbrook's London masterpiece, "The Children of Don." The soprano part in this was said to be one of the most difficult parts ever written. Among her many other successes is her appearance in the leading role of "Elvira" in "Don Giovanni," in this she was supported by the star cast, consisting of Nordica, Sembrich, Plancon, Caruso and Scotti.

Her program for Monday night represents a splendor of contrast and mood, from sparkling, piquant gaiety to the sublime and dramatic.
