CITY NEWS.

Essex at Christian Church.
Albany, Essex, a former pastor of the Christian church, will be the speaker at the rally service tonight. He will speak on the subject, "The End of the Matter." Mrs. J. F. Watson will sing "Come Unto Me." A splendid hearing has been given each night. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

On California Trip.
Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Payne will leave tonight for Oakland, Calif., where they have a son in the government service. While there they will of course do the fair. Then they will go to different places in the state, four or five in all, visiting relatives and friends. Having resided in California 35 years they have a large number of friends they will want to see before returning, and will probably be gone three or four months.

Full of Electricity.
The Corvallis Courier asks its readers for suggestions for improvement of the paper. The first one was "Get a new editor." Brown objects to this declaring that he and Mollie need the money. As a matter of fact the paper has one of the liveliest wires manipulating things in the valley, full of electricity.

Married.
At the home of the bride's parents at Oakville last evening Lawrence

The Albany Art Craft

McBride, better known as Larry, and Miss Amber Spaulding, were united in marriage, Rev. M. M. Gilchrist performing the ceremony, in the presence of relatives and intimate friends. The groom is a former Albany high school student, afterwards attending the O. A. C. from which he graduated. The bride is a worthy young lady. After a short bridal trip the happy couple will make their home on the McBride farm near Eddyville. They will have the best wishes of their many friends here and elsewhere.

The Moores Here.
Rev. James Moore and family are now residents of Albany, arriving from Salem, their home for six or seven years. They are busy getting things in shape for living. Rev. Moore is a man who fits into a new place like a duck into water, and may be depended upon to be a thorough Albany booster.

Report of Sale.
O. A. Archibald, administrator of the estate of Celia A. Barnes, deceased, today filed his report of the sale of personal property, receiving therefor $1500.

Went to San Francisco.
W. D. Gilchrist left last night for Portland to sail for San Francisco today on the Great Northern.

Spoke on Missions.
Mrs. Laura M. Hefty, of Cottage Grove, left for Salem this morning, after addressing the members of the Methodist church last night on the subject of foreign missions. She has just returned from China, where she spent five years in missionary work.

Weather Report.
Yesterday's temperature ranged between 74 and 36 degrees. The river stands at 0.7 feet.

Big Pheasant Killing.
The biggest Chinese pheasant killing reported to the Democrat is that of a farmer near Shedd, who is said to have killed sixty in one day, hunting on his own and the farms of neighbors. Instead of eating the pheasants now he is said to have canned them for next winter. If the many stories of enormous killings are true, it looks as if the game law is on the glimmer.

Returned to Scio.
A. C. Rahn and family of Scio, were in the city today on their way home. They had been on an outing trip over towards the coast.

Real War Scenes.
A couple of men from the Heilig were in the city today in an auto well labeled. On all sides were big cloth posters announcing the official German war pictures. The Heilig is showing the pictures through the state. They are declared to be a genuine thing, presenting some wonderful scenes, many of them taken on the firing line, with the cannons booming and men falling. The Kaiser himself is shown 11 times. In short this is the real thing. The films are kept guarded, and a special operator accompanies them, with a lecturer.

Lebanon Supervisor Here.
E. C. Hall, of Lebanon, supervisor of one of the road districts leading to that city, is in the city today on business before the county court.

Returned from Newport.
Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Tracy returned yesterday from Newport, where they spent several weeks enjoying the sea breezes and seeing things up and down the coast. They will now reside at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Payne, at Washington and Ninth streets during their absence in California.

Peoria Men Here.
R. M. Lamar and T. B. Cain, prominent Peoria people have been in the city today. Mr. Cain is a candidate for ferryman at that city. No definite clue has yet been obtained to the robbery of the store, there, though there are said to be suspicions.

Couple is Married.
A wedding of interest to Lebanon people occurred at the Court house this afternoon when Herman O. Vehr, of Condon and Goldie Godwin, of Lebanon, were married by County Judge D. B. McKnight. The happy couple were attended by a few friends, who showered them with rice as they left the judge's office and went down the stairs out of the building.

Has an Old Book.
Judge L. L. Swan, in looking over a volume of his Blackstone today glanced at a date in the front of the book and noticed that it was printed in 1811, making it 104 years old. The print is clear and good and better than most of the type used today. Some of the spelling is old style, but the book is first class otherwise.

Marriage Licenses.
Have been issued to Wilton E. Cane, 28, of Lebanon, and Jesse Walton, 20, also of Lebanon; Herman O. Vehr, 27, of Condon, and Goldie Godwin, 19, of Lebanon.

The Man of Shame.
Walton Lackaye, in the Man of Shame, at the Hub, presents some of the best acting seen here. The play is French, full of thrilling scenes, and holds one in anticipation from beginning to end.

Hitch your cayuses and come in; we are glad to see you and expect you to call when you come to Albany. Everything is wide open except the jail and the cemetery, and if any of your neighbors want to cut up a little and burn a few blisters on the track or kick loose a few blocks of paving and tear down the court house, take to it, the going's good, and the Rexall Drug Store is right in the baldheaded row to encore any performance you care to put on, and if any one gets peevish, send them around to the Rexall Pill Shop on First street between the district attorney's office and the earth.
