MERCHANTS PROGRESSIVE.

The accusation has been made that Albany has more dead merchants to the square inch than any town in the country. The fact is that the merchants of Albany have the reputation of being an up-to-date, progressive lot of men, and this city is noted for its bustling storekeepers far and wide, giving Albany a splendid reputation as a trading center. Albany merchants of a mining town, but they are active in pushing their business, and there are few cities of the size of Albany where more strenuous efforts are made to bring business to a place than here.

DOLLAR DAY THIS WEEK.

Albany will have a dollar day this week, when for a dollar people trading here can secure special bargains, offered without a view of making of many, but with a view to attracting attention to the stores of Albany and their facilities for meeting the demands of this part of Oregon for the best there is in merchandising.

IT IS A PRIVATE AFFAIR.

Pendleton E. O.: Some people will regret the announcement of the president's coming marriage, feeling that loyalty to his first wife should have kept him a widower. Others will rejoice at the affair feeling there is need of a lady to preside over the White House social duties and that even a president should not live alone.

As a matter of fact the question is immaterial. This is a republic, not a monarchy. The private affairs of the president are his private affairs. The real concern of the country is not in the social life of the White House but in the administrative work of the president.

President Wilson has shown himself exceedingly capable in the duties that devolved upon him. He has shaped legislation along helpful, progressive lines, bringing about long needed improvements, particularly in the currency system. He has followed a strong foreign policy, forcing respect for American rights, yet keeping the nation secure from the calamity of war.

These are the matters in which the country has a concern; the domestic affairs of the president are his own.

The ladies of the United Presbyterian church will hold a bazaar in the parlors of the church Wednesday afternoon and evening, November 3, 1915.

LOST—Small roll of money, in city, probably on Sunday. Liberal reward. Return to Democrat office.

MISFITS

The Corvallis papers are bragging about the amount of "licker" advertising they have turned down. The Democrat ditto, and likewise cigarettes.

Another good thing in Corvallis was an eight col. adv. by the Com. club in the Daily Get There.

This is $D in Albany, and Thursday will be the day. Whoop'er up

Portland has a dress-up week. Albany has one all the time.

Times are very lively in Bulgaria.

Greece is liable to be spattered any time.

Mrs. W 2B was the observed of all in N. Y. Nothing like being engaged to a president.

The world has now had two Alexander the Greats.

The Hood River woman who made a compact with a man to commit suicide if he did had the sand to keep her word so far as she was able. It is said she will live. Not a pleasant stigma to carry.

Why shouldn't a president be allowed to run his private affairs the same as other people? Has the public a right to pry open the door and look in?

Bids invited for the property at 438 West Second Street, Albany. Apply to J. R. Eldridge, 1254 Fort St., Victoria, B. C. No reasonable offer refused. $30-a31
