CITY NEWS

M. E. Ministers—

Rev. J. T. Abbett, district superintendent, and Rev. D. H. Leech, of Corvallis, both former pastors of the Albany M. E. church, were in the city today.

It Was Wonderful—

One of the most wonderful things in movies was seen in Cabria, twelve reels, at the Rolfe. With the old Roman and Carthagian settings, it presented a display of scenes and situations that will long remain in the memories of those who saw the striking production.

Brought Exhibits—

Rural School Supervisor Jos. Benner arrived in the city this morning from Lebanon with his arms full of fancy work to be placed on exhibition at the fair.

Bringing in Stock—

J. R. Cornett, breeder of fine stock, unloaded a car of cattle at the S. P. depot this morning and will have them on exhibition at the fair tomorrow.

Left for Montana—

Miss Mary Palmer and Wm. M. Stewart, of Jefferson, left yesterday for Loma, Montana.

Attorneys in Salem—

M. V. Weatherford, Dan Johnston and W. S. Risley, three well known local attorneys, went to Salem this morning to appear before the supreme court today.

Attended Presbytery—

Rev. Ernest F. Hall, of San Francisco and Rev. A. W. Hall, of New York City, attended the session of the Presbytery at Brownsville yesterday and left on the morning train for Portland.

Walked to Brownsville—

Hiram Torbet walked to Brownsville, taking his time and shooting along the road. He returned to the city on the morning train.

Capt. Collins Here—

Capt. R. W. Collins, of the Coast Artillery, of Eugene, was in the city last evening visiting the Albany company.

Died—

One of the twins born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Gelletti, who reside east of the city. Internment was held in Riverside cemetery today.

Infant Dies—

Charles Henry McFerron, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McFerron, aged five and one half months, died at the family home at 803 East First street. The funeral services will be held Thursday at 10 o'clock.

Returned from Niagara—

R. Thomas, the paper mill man, returned last night from Niagara, where he had been to examine the water power which he declares a fine one and entirely satisfactory. He is preparing to test the water, an important thing in the business, and is confident it is all right.

Recital Tonight—

The faculty recital of Albany College conservatory of music will be held in the First Presbyterian church this evening at 8 o'clock. Miss Grace Edith Brown, who is in charge of the vocal department this year will make her first concert appearance in Albany in both reading and vocal numbers. Miss Wilma Wagner and Miss Alice Clement will be heard in piano selections. The conservatory faculty is to be assisted by Mr. Chas. South of Eugene, whose many friends in this city will be delighted to hear him in a group of violin numbers. The public is invited to attend and no admission will be charged.
