DOLLAR DAY A SUCCESS

Albany today is experiencing its first dollar day event, a modern way of drawing big crowds and attracting attention to advantages of stores for trading purposes during the season just beginning. This one is a decided success. The Democrat takes a special pride in having promoted it as a business getter for our institutions generally. It is especially timely at this season of the year, just at the door of the fall and winter trade, giving people an opportunity to inspect the large stocks of goods here in bigger things than dollar articles, as well as in the smaller things. Some places are so pleased with dollar day business that they expect to have more, if not have dollar days regularly, one of the best business stimulants that has been inaugurated.

ABIGAIL SCOTT DUNIWAY.

In the death of Mrs. Duniway, Oregon loses its most prominent woman, one who impressed her character upon the state, particularly along suffragette lines. A pioneer for woman suffrage, she never gave up the battle no matter how much it went against her at times. Her personality was striking, and whether one agreed with her on some things or not, one cannot help admiring that indomitable will and courage which she displayed through her life. Above all her life work Mrs. Duniway declared that her greatest glory was in having raised a family that has made a name, and she particularly took pride in her home. An old resident of Albany those residing here in the '70's will have kind remembrances of her in her life at this city during the six years of her residence here.

WESTERN COUNTRIES UNITED.

It is well to remember that the recognition of Carranza is not merely the act of the United States, but that of North and South America. It means that the western hemisphere is going to take a personal interest in the welfare of Mexico, and that the other countries this side of the Atlantic will stand together in seeing that Mexico shall be reasonably good. The result justifies the policy of the present administration in patiently waiting and negotiating for better conditions along sane lines, and not through the frenzy of fire arms.

Bids invited for the property at 438 West Second Street, Albany. Apply to J. R. Eldridge, 1254 Fort St., Victoria, B. C. No reasonable offer refused. s30-a31

These safety first rules need to be applied more diligently to matters of character.

Newspapers generally have referred to the Boston team as the Bean Eaters. As a matter of fact there are probably no more beans eaten in Boston than in any other city in proportion to population.

One Portland bank has swallowed another. Some gulp.

With b. b. completely off the boards people can no turn their attention to f. b., with its pancake flavor.

People are willing to pay $2 to see a championship baseball game instead of 50 cents, the usual price, because they like things with pep.

It is to be President Carranza. No man was ever offered a greater opportunity to do big things in the right way than this Mexican. We are afraid of the outcome.

! ! ! - A Woman has been seen on the streets of Chicago wearing Alice blue pantelettes.

Glad Portland is having a dress up day. Have been ashamed of the town for some time. Portlanders should see Albany people dress.

Say, Albany is some center.

About time for a tug of war between the green caps and the sophs across the canal.

Uncle Sam has written a firm letter to J. Bull. John ought to be good to US.
