THE ALBANY ART CRAFT

been in the city today, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. C. V. Littler.

To Corvallis—
J. T. Shea went to Corvallis this morning on a short business trip.

Returned from Seattle—
Dr. J. H. Robnett this forenoon returned from Seattle, where he had been to attend a convention of the Metropolitan Insurance Co.

Lebanon People—
Mrs. J. C. Booth, and son, of Lebanon, were Albany visitors today. Also Mrs. A. Blackburn, of that place, the latter going to Corvallis for a visit.

Old Book—
Down in front of Ben Sudtel's store among some old books is a leather back Davies Legendre, a book on geometry and trigonometry. It is dated 1836, and on the fly leaf is written this: "This book is the property of A. F. Swartz, Buffalo, Oct. 19, 1837. Price $1.75."

Has New Auto—
Clark Price has another automobile, a closed Ford, six passenger, painted brown, a fine looking machine. He will use it in his jitney business. Mr. Price's headquarters are at Whitney's Sweet Shop.

Socialist Convention—
Socialists of the city will hold a convention next Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at 539 E. Third street, when a complete city ticket will be nominated for the coming city election. Starting in early it is proposed to make a campaign for the offices.

Good Bill at Hub—
"The Man in the Chair," a two reel feature at the Hub last night and tonight, is one of the best short films seen here in many a day. The production is of the Universal's best quality and is a highly enjoyable film. "A Call for Help" is also a feature worthy of mention, and is portrayed in a very vivid manner. Both are striking two reel productions. A comedy, "Nothing Ever Happens Right," is a scream and makes a good balance to the rest of the bill.

At the Rolfe—
Not the least lovely among the scenes shown in "The Lure of the Mask," the four-part Mutual Masterpicture by Harold McGrath, upon whose celebrated novel the film was founded, are those on the canals in Venice. Gondolas pass lazily back and forth across the sluggish waters, and when the two principals in the cast rush up the stone steps leading to St. Mark's those who have seen the original experience a thrill of reminiscent pleasure. Shown at the Rolfe tonight.

Trained Deers Amuse—
Welton's trained deer at the Globe last night was an act that has never been seen here. The manner in which the three deer performed, while not doing any thrilling feats, was evidence that even the most wild and timid animal can be trained. Pridmore and Fox presented a vaudeville skit. Hobart Bosworth in "An Odyssey of the North," six reel Paramount feature was one of the best pictures of the north ever screened. The Alaskan scenery is most beautiful.

Prominent Men in Vaudeville—
Judge Wm. Colvig, Ed. Werlein and R. C. Holman, prominent Portland men, are reported to have gone into vaudeville. They are appearing at movie shows, between acts, giving a talk in the interest of the Portland chamber of commerce. Their Albany date has not yet been announced.

Shedd has P. B. Team—
With a student body of only 29, of whom fifteen are boys, Shedd high school is able to put in the field a football team that is doing good work. Though beaten by Junction's two touchdowns, they made a good showing. They are to play Cottage Grove next Saturday at Cottage Grove.

Will Hold Bazaar—
The Ladies of the Christian church will hold a bazaar the second week in November, exact time and place to be announced later.

More Watch Inspection—
F. M. French, watch inspector for the S. P. Co. for the district south of Portland, left this morning for a trip down the west side inspecting the time pieces of the trainmen and agents along the lines.

To Montana—
Vincent Kelly left yesterday over the Great Northern lines for Harney, Mont., where his father is employed by the railroad. Miller Haley, of Missoula, Mont., returned home yesterday after visiting here.

Went to Washington—
Mrs. Mary Carr and Miss Mildred Carr left yesterday for Scotia, Washington, where they will visit.

Returned to Tacoma—
Miss Gertrude Conn returned to Tacoma this morning after spending the summer at the home of her cousin, Mrs. John McChesney.

Weather Report—
Yesterday's temperature ranged between 70 and 80 degrees. The river stands at 6.5 feet.

In Roseburg—
George Taylor, of Albany, arrived here last evening to spend a few days looking after business matters.—Review.

Candidate for Recorder—
Petitions were out today for the nomination of Hon. L. G. Lewelling for the office of city recorder, and he will make the race. In every way competent, with many friends, he is bound to make a strong campaign for the position. The contestants for all the city offices are entirely non-partisan, no party as such putting up any candidates, except the Socialists.

Slabs of Albany Paper—
The Democrat has a couple sheets of Albany made paper, pressed out by Mr. Thomas, the maker. They are thick and solid, showing the material, and demonstrating the practicability of the process. The quality is unquestionably first class, with elements for the finest bond paper made.

From Roseburg—
Floyd Stephenson, who recently left here for Albany, where he intended to enjoy his vacation, is said to be quite ill of blood poisoning. The young man is employed in a local bakery.—Roseburg Review.

To Move Barber Shop—
Geo. Thompson, the barber, has rented the shop on Broadalbin street, and on the 1st of November will move his combination shop into the well located quarters. The shop was formerly run by Carl Huston and others.

Mrs. Churchill Better—
A message from Portland this morning stated that Mrs. R. C. Churchill, upon whom an operation was recently performed for internal goitre, is much better and gradually improving, a fact her many friends will

In Emergencies

In the multitude of places where an absolutely reliable power must be had, where motors must be started and stopped on the second, where a delay of an instant may mean a serious accident, Central Station Electric Power has been proven the most reliable.

Motors Are Driven by Central Station Power

An example of the absolute dependability of Central Station Power is found in the high pressure pumping stations of many of our great cities. But not only is Central Station Power reliable for big users, but for the small consumer as well. It is always ready when most needed. Quiet, clean, quick, dependable and economical—it is the power for your use.
