Portland, Oct. 22.—The boxers and wrestlers of the Seattle Athletic club will try conclusions with athletes from the Multnomah club here today. Two boxing and two wrestling events are scheduled as the interclub events, while a number of exhibitions will fill out the card.

Dobie's Weaklings.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 22.—The University of Washington football squad will leave tonight for Spokane where a game will be played with the Gonzaga University Saturday. Dobie expects his players to win, although he admits that they are not as fast as in former years.

N. W. SLATES TO HAVE ZONE OF PLenty DAY

Nov. 5 Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, N. Dakota and Minnesota Will Celebrate.

Oregon Building, P. P. I. E., Oct. 22.—Six Northwest states—Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, North Dakota and Minnesota—comprising that section known as the "Zone of Plenty," have organized at the exposition and will celebrate their day on November 5th, this being known as "Zone of Plenty" Day.

During that week, the special exposition exercises honoring Governor James Willcomb and the state of Oregon, will be on, Agricultural Week will be furnishing unusual activity, the Stock Show will be at its height, and San Francisco Day (probably the greatest of all days) is scheduled for the early part of the week. For Zone of Plenty Day an elaborate program has been arranged for presentation in the "State's Circle," the first time an exposition occasion has been held within the states section of the grounds, and after this formal affair these six states named will keep open house and give away products grown within the Zone of Plenty.

Hon. M. H. DeYoung, vice president of the P. P. I. exposition will address the representatives of these northwestern states, who will be accompanied by six young ladies, appropriately gowned, representing the different states, and Vice-President De Young will present a commemorative medal to the Northwestern States Association, for their successful participation at the exposition.

This association was organized for the purpose of promoting the welfare of the six states constituting the zone of plenty and to continue the good work that has been done by them at the exposition this year.

Owing to the fact that a great many eastern and southern farmers will visit the exposition during the first week of November, this week being set aside as Agricultural week, special arrangements have been made by this association to impress all visitors with the great agricultural and industrial opportunities awaiting them in the Zone of Plenty states.

Minnesota will give away small sacks of Minnesota flour; North Dakota, big Larimore potatoes; Montana, cereals and cereal products; Idaho, small cans of preserved prunes; Washington, Big Washington apples. Tillamook cheese sandwiches and Loganberry juice, and the Great Northern Railway company, whose lines traverse the Zone of Plenty states, will give appropriate Zone of Plenty souvenirs and a moving picture entertainment will be given in their building on the Zone of Plenty states.

Suitable literature dealing with the resources of the Zone of Plenty states, will be handed to each visitor at each of the state buildings, and beautifully colored programs have been printed for this occasion.

From the present outlook it is expected that Zone of Plenty Day will be one of the greatest featured days given at the exposition during the year.

Salloon's Last Effort.

Olympia, Wn., Oct. 22.—The supreme court sitting today heard arguments in the test case, filed by the opponents of statewide prohibition, which will go into effect January 1, in an endeavor to have it declared unconstitutional. It seems probable that the arguments will consume the better part of two days.

CITY NEWS.

Reached 33rd Degree—

In the session of the Supreme Council of the Scottish Rite at Washington yesterday three Oregonians had conferred upon them the highest of all degrees, the 33rd. They were Col. R. A. Miller and J. F. Drake, of Portland, and Eldredge H. Thompson, of Bridal Veil. Col. Miller is the husband of a former Albany young woman, Mrs. Daisy Danna Miller.

Will Go to War—

Leonard Hooper, a well known commercial traveller, who has resided here for three years, has decided to join the army of the Allies, and will leave in a short time for New Zealand, his native home, and go from there to the front. He is already an officer of the New Zealand Guards.

B. M. B. Class—

This evening at 6:15 the members of the Business Men's Bible Class of the Methodist church will hold their annual dinner and meeting for election of officers and other organization matters. All members are urged to be present and may bring a friend. Committee.

Steadily Improving—

Mr. Wilford, of Knox's Butte, who has been in the hospital for several days, the result of an accident, is reported greatly improved, a fact his friends will be glad to learn. Caught in a cave-in, it was at first thought to be of a very serious character, but he is in better shape than was thought.

Being Repaired—

After several months the house near Fourth and Main streets, partly burned, is being repaired, and will again be occupied.

City Recorder Petition—

A petition for the nomination of J. S. Van Winkle for city recorder, was being circulated today.

Lowe greatly improved—

H. E. Hector, manager of the Home Telephone Co., at this city, was in Corvallis yesterday, while there visiting J. C. Lowe, the Corvallis manager, who has been in bed following an operation for appendicitis, for several weeks. He is now much better, and this week sat up for the first time.

Portland—

Mrs. Harvey Pershing and daughter, Mrs. Hugh Hame, of Portland, are visiting with Mrs. C. R. Lamb and family.

A Jitney Bout.

Two jitney loads of men and women were taken to Corvallis this morning, nine passengers in all. The parties did not want to wait for the trains. The rate is 50 cents and considerable business is said to be done.—Albany Democrat. But it is Corvallis that is gaining popularity, and not the jitney bus.—Corvallis G. T. The people had stayed here as long as possible, enjoying our superior hotel facilities, and most of them came back on the first train.

LIBRARY RUMMAGE SALE.

W. C. T. U. Hall Friday, p. m., Oct. 29, Saturday, Oct. 30.

Have you anything which is of no use to you but which some one else could use? It may be clothing, furniture, pictures, carpets, dishes, stores, kitchen utensils, trunks, eatables, in short, anything used by the civilized man, woman or child. Send or bring it to the W. C. T. U. hall, Wednesday, afternoon, Nov. 27 or any time Thursday, Nov. 28, so it can be marked and sold Friday afternoon, Oct. 29 or Sat., Oct. 30 to some one who needs it.

All money goes to buy new books for the library: Clean out that attic and let someone who needs it use the things you are not using. If it is not possible to bring the things, phone 384J Bell, or 160 Home, and a dray will call for the things Wednesday afternoon or Thursday forenoon.

Remember the sale opens Friday at 2 p. m., Oct. 29 and continues all day Saturday. Be sure and have your cast off articles at the W. C. T. U. hall Wednesday or Thursday. ADVERTISING COMMITTEE OF MODERN TRAVELERS' CLUB. o21-30

DUGGER CONTINUES TO FEAR ALBANY'S EXPOSITION

Sees Race Tracks, Etc., Albany has Not Thought of Including in Their Program.

Scio Tribune: Of course Albany's first fair closed in a blaze of glory, last Saturday evening. This was to be expected and we congratulate our friends over there on the success of their endeavor. But the implied leasing of ground and a race track for next year, simply evidences the truthfulness of the forecast of the Tribune a few weeks ago. It is the design of the people who are behind the Albany fair, to absorb or take over the Linn County Fair. Play fair, boys, if you will have the county fair at any or all costs, have the courtesy to buy the Linn County Fair at Scio, bag and baggage.

Defended the Men.

The new Legislature's congress began in Corvallis yesterday, and the Gazette-Times says there has been no session yet without thrills. One of them consisted of a defense of men by Mrs. Millie Trumbull. She also said that half of the shiftless homes are due to bad wives. "Better a divorce," she said, "than scrapping parents." Then others defended the men when they saw it was popular.

Why Do People Come Back?

For one of two reasons: They are either satisfied with the store and its merchandise or they are not.

We like to see both classes come back. If they return completely satisfied, we want to know about it. We'll lose no time in rectifying the error or complaint and we'll leave no stone unturned in order to make the customer feel that he has had the biggest square deal he ever got.

We want to make this store a depository for your good will—will you give us a trial?
