

The person who is not pleased with this weather will probably never be satisfied. It is more like Summer than late Fall.

We Appreciate Good Weather

Everyone should thoroughly enjoy the atmosphere. The crisp morning air and cool of the evening are fine.

Be Properly Clothed and you will be enthusiastic about the wonderful air. Our Ready-to-Wear Departments offer easy solutions to your clothes and hat problems.

KORRECT
SKIRTS
Made with the "NONRIP" Placket. We aim to have Albany women realize the KORRECT skirts are synonymous with "Smart Styles, Excellent Tailoring and Moderate Prices," and to this end skirts that differ from their predecessors will be presented constantly.

THE GAIN IS UPWARD.

Dun's Report Shows Steady Progress. Bank Clearings Larger Than a Year Ago.

Even the change to milder weather did not materially lessen retail demands, and there are still many more points of gain than of loss in the general situation. This fact is made clear in reports from the principal centers, as well as by the various statistical gauges that measure business movements and volumes. Bank clearings outside of New York largely surpass those of recent years, gross railroad earnings are steadily rising, the upward trend of commodity prices is unchecked and the increase in commercial borrowing gives additional proof of trade expansion. Evidence of widening activity is apparently in nearly every important department and in localities where no sign of it was manifest a short time ago. Progress is more rapid, as it should be, in the industrial than in the trading field, and is most pronounced at cities where the manufacture of war supplies is now the leading occupation. As a reflection of the enormous foreign requirements, merchandise shipments are reaching unprecedented totals and the excess of exports over imports is mounting so fast that gold is flowing here at an unparalleled rate. The boom in iron and steel goes on apace, conditions in leather are more satisfactory than at any time in over a year, with most tanneries running to capacity, and the textile mills are busy, prospects being bright for the maintenance of operations on the present scale during the winter and early spring months. With the productive force steadily enlarging, the distribution of wages affords an increasing fund for purchases that will ultimately benefit all branches of business in all parts of the country. Already the effects of full employment of labor are visible in the broadening consumptive demands for clothing, foodstuffs and other necessities, and this is true not only of the East, but also of the West and South.

STAYTON HAS A WEEK OF ALL KINDS OF WEDDINGS

The front page of the Stayton Mail this week is plastered over with wedding announcements. Across the page in a triple head is this: Cupid plays havoc this week with vicinity. Beautiful weather may have something to do with his capers. Little naked god shoots right and left, leaving many victims in his flower strewn path." The marriage heads are: Sloper-Frank, Becker-Ditter, Steffes-Becker, Selinski - Petrock, Sawyer - Beer, Shields-Pretymann. Besides this there was a celebration of the thirtieth wedding anniversaries of Mr. and Mrs. Fintz and Mr. and Mrs. Kerber, and the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Stout, of near Mehama, with a reunion of the Stout family, the first one in 50 years. Stout mountain was named after Mr. Stout, a pioneer resident there.

FRUIT DEMONSTRATION AT THE MITCHELL ORCHARD

Prof. Brown, of O. A. C., Gave Practical Talk on Fireblight and Other Blights.

At the fruit orchard of F. M. Mitchell yesterday afternoon a fruit demonstration was given that was greatly appreciated by the eighteen men who were present to receive the advantages of the instructions. Prof. W. R. Brown, head of the horticultural department of the O. A. C. had charge of the demonstration. Out in the orchard limbs of different kinds of trees were taken and fire blight considered in all its phases, with instructions in reference to the proper time for spraying and the treatment of the disease otherwise. Pear blight and peach blight were given a special demonstration. Prof. Brown declared that it is not necessary to dig up the trees, but that the best way is to cut them back and treat them.

He also demonstrated pruning, when and how to do it. Some may be done now, but the best time is in January.

Among those present was U. G. Smith, of this city, who has an orchard in the suburbs, who contemplates having a demonstration at his place later.

Some Father.

Pullman, Wash., Oct. 28.—R. R. Hatley, a farmer of the Ewartsville district, became the proud father today of a ten-pound son, making twenty children which have been born to Mr. Hatley, who has passed his seventy-sixth year. Ten children were born to his first wife, now deceased, and an equal number have been born to the second Mrs. Hatley.

Remarried.

Portland, Oct. 28.—Cupid got busy today for the second time in the same place. Jerry E. Bronaugh, formerly of Eugene, and now living in Portland, taking his divorced wife, May Dorris Bronaugh, also formerly of Eugene, in matrimony. The couple will live in Portland, for the present at least.

Will Fool 'Em—

A well known Albany couple, it is said, will get married tomorrow evening, and get away without their friends knowing it, so as to avoid the usual agony of rice, old shoes, etc.

Clothcraft Clothes Never Fail

The harder the test you put them to the better you'll appreciate them. Facts are stubborn things. But it is a fact, and a proven one, that Clothcraft Clothes are bigger values for the money.

People come in, ask for Clothcraft and insist on having it. Why? For the simple reason that Clothcraft Clothes have served them with the same consistency, season after season.

Just for example let's consider No. 4130, the Clothcraft Blue Serge Special at $18.50 (or "5130" at $15.00). We aren't afraid of contradiction when we say that a better suit of clothes at the price is an impossibility.

"4130" or "5130" leaves absolutely nothing to be desired. Pick up any Clothcraft garment, it doesn't matter whether it cost $15 to $20, you'll agree with us that a better value cannot be procured at the price.

What's more, the Clothcraft Guarantee protects you against all mistakes.

The variety right now is most complete—we would like to have you come in and make us prove our claims. Will you come in—today?
