PEP COUNTS.

The great thing in anything these days is what people call "pep." Another word is snap. It is what spells victory whether in business or football. In the great Michigan game of football there was probably nothing that conduced more to victory than the determination of the men to win. Pep was the theme all the way across the country to Lansing. The men had little to lose and much to gain. If they lost they simply met the expectations of people generally, and there would be no disgrace. If they won it meant everything to them individually and for their state. So they won, an organized fighting machine full of electricity. Faint heart never won fair lady and a faint heart is a poor thing anywhere in the world. The man who keeps a stiff upper lip and keeps pegging away regardless of discouragements is pretty sure to make it. The pessimist, who sees disaster in everything would make a poor member of the O. A. C. football team or anything else. A spirit of optimism is like an electric current in the business affairs of the world.

WASTE.

The Democrat is always glad to receive live matter on important questions from its readers, particularly those that are short and to the point. Here is one from the Atlantic, that is timely:

Waste is the crime of today and it is especially the great crime of this awful war; waste in human life, in hope, in love, and in common savings of us all. Millions of dollars' worth of the savings of the people of this earth, all of them our brothers and our sisters, are daily burned up, exploded and wasted in the madness of the nations; and even that is a trifle when we compare it to the great human value of the lives that are lost. It will not make any people rich; and we Americans, rarely fortunate in not being involved in the awful strife, shall find our part of the burden to bear. Some time the war will be over, and then waste must stop; it must stop if we are to advance in humanity and civilization over and beyond the yawning gap made by the lust of blood, pride of race and the vanity of kings. The war has been in progress but a little while and already the cost of it is being borrowed from infants now at their mothers' breasts, to make good this debauch of blood and fire, and in the very measure that we waste is the sentence at hard labor upon the rising generation prolonged. We cannot get out of it by being American; the debt is upon us, in unequal measure it is true, but the debt, the obligation to make up the losses, is upon us all.

MISFITS

The devil will do well to keep away from the Baptist church while Evangelist Evans is here. His ears would tingle to the limit.

There's just one way to fight him, and that's the red hot way. Soft words don't disturb him.

No lives would have been lost in the Coos Bay accident if—

Carranza is in the saddle and will remain there.

Suffrage back east may be under at this election, but it will not remain under. Eventually the women will win out.

The Eugene Register's funny man knows of a man who is a merchant prince who when a boy at school never washed his face and always had dirty hands, and had to spend all his time wiping his nose. Horrors!

Signs of Christmas all around us, even before Thanksgiving is off our hands.

Unless one's religion gets into business and society it is not as thick as a spider's thread.

Some people seem to think their religion is just a dress up affair, all black, for use only at their convenience when no one is looking.

Joining a church doesn't make any one a Christian.

Watch a man when he stubs his toe, and hear what he says.

Say, Mr. Farmer, you'd better sell your wheat and set things buzzing.
