SATURDAY NIGHT THOUGHTS.

More conspicuous than anything else continues the useless bullet struggle over the Atlantic. Up on the east side winter has set in, and there is little doing around the Dvinsk region.

In some parts the question of food is playing a part, sometimes a worse enemy than a gullet or shrapnel. It is declared to be so in Germany, but the statement comes from the Allies.

A feature of the war has been the torpedoing of a boat by one of the belligerents. Just how it was done, and without the usual conventionalities, is a matter that is being investigated and discussed.

A peace movement has been begun this week, one in which David Star Jordan, of Stamford, is taking an active part. It is very doubtful if the warring nations, in their present temper, will pay much attention to peace conventions, or anything else but exhaustion.

Perhaps mention of a football game is appropriate after the topic war. The game is a battle, and in some of them there is put the spirit and vim of a bullet contest.

One football player who is putting football pep into his life is Bruce Evans, the evangelist, a young man who goes into his work of saving souls with all the earnestness of a good football player.

Auto drivers will have to study the rules of safety first, and, if the accidents keep increasing it may be necessary to have some semaphores put out.

J. A. WOOD 1141 E. First St. Candidate for Chief of Police. If elected I will give the office my entire attention, and will not ask the assistance of a deputy, except on special occasions, to be left to the direction of the city council. Am a taxpayer. Yours for votes. J. A. WOOD.

MISFITS When it comes to canes it is mighty certain Siam cannot be beaten. Siam is the home of the White elephant, not the dark umbrageous looking animal that represents one of our parties. Instead of being a bad omen, as Senator Lane fears, it is possible that it is a good one. Anyway a cane's head is as good a subject for jokes as anything. Europe had better keep her honey-comb lot of spies at home for targets for the enemy. Tait favors Root for president, which suggests that if Root really wants to come up to the surface he had better whisper in the ear of the ex-president. People are getting onto the fact that the loganberry song chosen as the best is mighty poor stuff, and the judges must have been asleep when they awarded the prize. The Democrat recently published it, putting it in the Misfit column, because it does not fit the occasion.

The Port. Tel. continues its fight against the valley lumbermen in the interest of the Port. lumber dealers. All the valley wants is a show. Advertising will do most anything but recover a lost umbrella. Thanks, Carran-a-a, border peace will be appreciated. It looks some as if the inhabitants of Mars had dropped down upon this wicked old sphere.
