FORD EXPEDITION IS SAID TO BE A FAILURE.

Ford, Though, Continues as Optimistic as Ever and Will Stick to His Campaign.

(By United Press)
 Christmas, Dec. 20.—For the first time since they embarked, the Ford peace makers are doubtful of their success, as the result of the reception by the first neutral country visited. The press and public sentiment is unfriendly. Judge Lindsay, of Denver, counseled Ford to direct his enterprise to finding homes for the war orphans. Ford is unwilling to go into it. Ford personally is optimistic.
