SIX POINTS ON ESSENTIALS OF UNIVERSAL PEACE

In a sermon at the U.P. church yesterday Dr. White presented six points in the matter of world peace, as follows:

- 1. Human efforts for permanent peace have failed. There is no prospect for peace through evolutionary process. He declared that the world is no nearer peace than five thousand years ago, the present war being the bloodiest in the history of the world. 2. Peace cannot come through the federation of great world powers aiming for internal disturbances. 3. There can be no permanent peace without a universal brotherhood. The present system of patriotism is wrong, that of one's country right or wrong. 4. There cannot be permanent peace without universal righteousness. Now greed is dominating nations as well as individuals. 5. There cannot be personal peace without universal surrender to the Prince of Peace. 6. A permanent peace of human arrangement would entirely upset the prophecy of the Bible. He declared that man-made peace will be futile, that temporary preventives are never cures.

ADDRESS ON THE FORD SHIP.

The Rev. Dr. Aked Declared the Mission of America to be the Peace of All Mankind.

The Democrat has received a two or three column account of an address by Rev. Chas. E. Aked, delivered on the Oscar II on its way to Europe. Here are some of his remarks.

The mission of America is the peace of all mankind. This war has to end some day, it cannot go on forever. Some day, sooner or later, a number of elderly gentlemen representing the warring nations will have to gather round a table and talk about terms of peace.

Civilization cannot go on the months and for the years and forever. It has to end. Europe is painting itself vermilion; its own heart's blood instead of crimson madness has descended upon the nations of the world. But, this cannot be the end, massacre by machinery cannot be the last word of Twentieth Century science; humanity cannot tolerate it; God in his heaven cannot bear it forever and who knows, but what we ourselves may bring those diplomats and rulers and statesmen around their table face to face to talk things over quietly; little sooner than they would have done, if Henry Ford had not brought us upon this ship. And our mission can be described in the language of George Washington, himself. It may be that the man who has brought us here, whose brain pondered this thing, and who covered by the implacable despotism of his own humanity, has led us on, will talk with the Washingtons and the Lincolns of history. (Applause.) In the years when not merely a nation but all humanity shall rise up to call him blessed, and Washington's work stands sure, we will erect a standard, to which the wise and good may repair, the issue shall be in the hands of God. In Denmark, in Sweden, in Norway and then at last, at the Hague will erect a standard, to which the wise and the good of the neutral nations may repair. The issue for a world at war, shall be in the hands of God.

Bad Cooking and Divorce.

In the current issue of Farm and Fireside is an article to prove that love and a well filled stomach go well together, but that hatred and treachery are born in an underdone steak.

"Bad cooking is directly responsible for a large percentage of the divorce evil and much of the crime committed—in fact, it might well be classed as a crime in itself.

"A good cook is the greatest statesman in the country in the true sense of the term.

"Bank-examining is all well enough for its purposes, but the examination of cooks and kitchens is far more important. Of what avail are our pure-food laws if all food may be ruined in the kitchen?

"No one should be permitted to cook in any public eating house who has not been examined, found competent, and licensed; and bad cooking—such as now exists in many public places—should be a misdemeanor punishable by law."

U. O. Glee Club Made Up of Representative Students

Prominent in Activities of the School, Baseball Players, etc.

The members of the University of Oregon Glee Club which appears at the Globe Theater next Saturday night are representative students of the University as an investigation of the personnel of the organization will show.

First of all Merlin Batley, president of the singing aggregation, is president of the senior class and varsity leader, two of the most important positions in the student body. Robert Langley, secretary, is treasurer of the junior class and a prominent member of the Psi Sigma Phi remedial society.

Bothwell Avison, the vice-president of the club, is a member of the student council and holds positions on several important committees.

Harold Hamstreet is managing editor of the Emerald, a member of Sigma Delta Chi, national honorary journalistic fraternity, a member of the University band and an assistant in the University printing department.

Raymond Burns, pianist, is president of the freshman class, the highest office open to any freshman.

Leslie O. Tooze, manager, is assistant editor of the Emerald, the college tri-weekly, member of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet, and president of the Commercial Club.

Athletes can also sing, as is shown by the fact that two of the club members are conspicuous in the athletics of the University. Walter Grebe, trombonist, is one of Coach Bezedek's star baseball players and was characterized by the press last year as the find of the season. Lewis Bond, baritone, is captain of the tennis team and one of the few men who have ever won their letter in tennis in the history of the institution.

John A. Black and Ho-Sheng Huang are members of the Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, while John Dolph is first assistant varsity yell leader.

LIBRARY NOTES

The Library will not be open on Christmas Day, hence those desiring Saturday reading matter will please call Friday.

Miss Marvin, state librarian, sent for distribution a pamphlet, "Books for Christmas for the Children," and many parents are finding it very suggestive, ask for one.

The Congressional Record comes daily and can be consulted here. The Oregon state publications are all classified and kept together where patrons can readily examine them. Each of value is contained therein.

The attendance on Sunday afternoon varies from fifty to seventy. This is a good place to spend the afternoon, amid such pleasant surroundings, with good books and the late magazines. About seventy magazines and periodicals are to be found on the tables.

During November there were 75 new readers registered at the library and 1633 volumes circulated, and about 2443 visitors to the library.

The Twentieth Century Club's gift of novels is now displayed on a shelf. Among these are found novels by Gilbert Parker, Jack London, A. S. M. Hutchinson, Eleanora Abbott, etc. The library appreciated a gift very much for it helps to meet the need.

The little ones have enjoyed the Christmas touch that Mrs. F. P. Nutting gave their room, by decorating it so prettily with holly, mistletoe and hay. Mrs. Geseibracht contributed a veritable Christmas tree much to the delight of the children.

Among the valuable booklets recently received from the state librarian are the following: A catalogue of the world's best business books. A reading list for mothers. Books that girls like. Well known people when they were girls and boys.

The state superintendent of public instruction has sent a pamphlet, "Courses in Bible Study for Pupils Outside of School." This is carefully outlined and full of help for the student. Ministers and others desiring to see this will please inquire for it at the desk.
