RUSSIA'S GREAT GAIN.

Journal: One of the greatest changes the war has brought about is its stirring Russia up to finding an all-the-year-round seaport. For centuries this has been her dream.

This was denied her largely through the efforts of her present allies, but her necessities have forced her to accomplish what she had before thought possible only through the Dardanelles.

She consulted American railroad engineers as to the possibility of building a railroad from Ekaterina harbor on the shores of the Arctic ocean to Petrograd. This distance was about 1000 miles, and the country mostly a morass; but since the war started a double track railroad has been completed the entire distance, more than 100 miles a month being completed.

Perhaps T. R. will get into the campaign whether he wants to or not. He is a Bull Moose yet, and his nose is out scenting the situation.

OH Cash is a resident of Roseburg, Oh, that name just suits.

Quine and Quint are prominent residents of Roseburg also.

Wanted a sock with a toe end that will stand the attacks of five sharp-pointed nails.

England, too, has felt safer with Russia in a jug at least half the year, and she controlling the cork, and it will be a source of annoyance and regret to her that Russia has found an outlet, when the war is over.

The new port is some distance north of Archangel, Russia's former port on the Arctic, but it is further to west and is kept open by the Gulf stream that loses itself near that point, but which keeps the seas open the year round.

FORD HAD THE IDEA. N. Y. World: Henry Ford evidently overestimated the power of wealth and his own power.

Probably if this non-official mission had been very carefully worked out it would have accomplished little under present conditions.

Mr. Ford has failed not because he was wrong but because he was right at the wrong time in and in the wrong way.

MISFITS

When it comes to a crisis people don't want booze around. In Mexico City recently the sale of liquor was prohibited for ninety days.

Do their best no Albany pianists have been able to improve on Bee-thoven.

These snow days make up appreciate other days.

What remembrances in our boyhood lives stand out more than those connected with snow balling and other winter sports? So we have to stand the wildness of our own children now when the snow comes for a day or two.

We used to have it nearly five months straight, slush, sloop and freeze.

In the meantime Russia has been busy, and she is learning something.

After seventeen months both sides claim they have the advantage, and neither admits the other's superiority.

That Portland speaker made quite a hit when he suggested that local merchants cooperate in buying in order to meet the competition of the big mail order houses that buy by the dozens of car loads, or make their own goods.

Perhaps T. R. will get into the campaign whether he wants to or not. He is a Bull Moose yet, and his nose is out scenting the situation.

Nothing like fame. The following travelled all the way from Or. to Minn.:

He boasted that he hadn't taken a bath in 50 years, says Mrs. Mary Templeton of Salem, Ore., in suing for divorce. Some women may stand an unwashed husband for 50 years but there's no lady who will stand his bragging about it.

HOW APPENDICITIS CAN BE PREVENTED

Albany people should know that a few doses of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika, often relieve or prevent appendicitis. This simple mixture removes such surprising foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas.

A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. Adler-ika has easiest and most thorough action of anything we ever sold. The Woodworth Drug Co.
