"THE PRICE SHE PAID" A SPLENDID DRAMA

Will Be Presented at the Globe Theatre Tonight By Eastern Players.

Direct from Chicago, with a wonderful cast, comes the latest dramatized dramatic sensation, "The Price She Paid," with Miss Bernard as the star. The play which has roused the most wonderful enthusiasm wherever it has been presented, appeals so strongly to James O'Donnell Bennett, the dramatic editor of the Chicago Tribune, that he wrote a glowing criticism.

"The Price She Paid" is a great play, a wonderful silhouette of human nature. It seems much to any girl because it will show her that, while pitfalls do exist in real life, and while the broad road is particularly inviting the great big world really possesses a clean wholesome aspect to a healthy minded, virtuous woman.

"The Price She Paid" will be seen at The Globe this evening, and five reels of feature picture will also be shown.

"THE LITTLE GYPSY" AT THE ROLFE TONIGHT

A story of touching beauty and stirring romance is unfolded in "The Little Gypsy," a stupendous William Fox production. Tender love interest alternates with scenes of elemental power showing the clash of strong human natures and the primordial passions of men and women.

The Little Gypsy is a drama of heart appeal and moving human interest. Starred in it is the most delightful and dainty of all dramatic stars, Dorothy Bernard, already a beloved favorite of patrons of the William Fox photodramatic features.

"The Little Gypsy" tells the love story of a girl of Romany blood, but gentle breeding, for a man whose being appeals to her even to the sacrifice of her highest hopes and ambitions.

Altogether, a masterpiece of photodramatic craftsmanship.

GRAND OPERA SEAT SALE TO OPEN TUESDAY

Seats will be placed on sale at Woodworth's Drug store next Tuesday for the appearance here of the Metropolitan Grand Opera Song Birds in concert. Molly Byerly Wilson, who many thing will succeed Schumann-Heink as America's leading contralto, is a member of this company, as is Florence Hawkins, one of our leading American grand opera stars. Francis W. Cowles, the noted baritone, possesses a marvelous voice. Skovgaard is in the front rank of the world's leading violinists, such as Kabelik, Ysaye, Kreisler and Elman. He is Denmark's foremost artist and his playing has been classed with the Belgian Ysaye by the great critics of the world.

MINSTRELS ARE COMING.

Punch Jones and Company to Be in City at Opera House for a Couple of Nights.

Manager Schultz of the Opera House announces the special engagement for two nights of the Punch Jones Black and Tan Rag Time Opera and Minstrels and Jubilee Singers. This attraction is one of the oldest and best recognized shows of the colored race entour this season and numbers amongst its members some of the foremost colored performers now appearing before the American theatre going public.

It is safe to say the aggregation will prove a big box office winner, especially as they are playing at popular prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents.
