THE BLAIN CLOTHING COMPANY

ROSEBURG JAP'S X PRESENT.

His Former Boss, J. Pierpont Morgan. Sent Him Check for Twenty-five Dollars.

Roseburg Review: That Pierpont Morgan, well known capitalist and financier, has a warm spot in his heart for his former employees, was attested here a few days ago, when George Shina, Japanese hall boy at the Umpqua hotel, received a check in the sum of $25 from Mr. Morgan. Mr. Shina formerly lived in New York and for a number of years was employed as a butler by Mr. Morgan. Last September Mr. Shina resigned his position and came to Oregon. He later accepted employment with the Umpqua Hotel here. A few days ago Mr. Shina received a letter from Mr. Morgan in which was enclosed a check for $25. An accompanying letter bearing Mr. Morgan's signature wished the recipient of the gift a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

Former Albany People.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Hammel and little daughter, Jane, are here from Monmouth on a visit to relatives and friends and will remain a week or more. Mr. Hammel is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hammel, of the Corvallis Hotel, and his wife is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ireland. The young people resided in Corvallis before their marriage and have a wide acquaintance here—Corvallis G. T.

Big Bill at Globe.

Tonight at the Globe Theatre is presented a big bill, headed with Pretty Viola Dana in a three reel Edison feature, "Her Happiness." Earl Williams and Anita Stewart, ever popular with the movie lovers will be seen in the opening number of the beautiful serial, "The Goddess," a from the story by Gouverneur Morris. Billie Ritchie is featured in a Comedy, "The Cellar Spy."

OAKVILLE NOTES AND PERSONAL OF INTEREST

S. P. Williamson went to Portland last Friday for a week end visit.

A. Y. Smith will start out as soon as this snow storm is over for a two weeks visit to Seattle, Tacoma, Bellingham and other places on Puget Sound.

The good roads are not as good as they should be at this season, the autos are trying them and they can cut through the best gravelled roads in the winter, and other vehicles can make a track around.

Voters are slow about registering as many of them are not satisfied, which way the cat will jump, and they want to be sure to be on the right side, and another difficulty is many of them have given names too long to put in the blanks.

Two sleighs were on the road the first of the year, Jesse Nordyke and Ralph A. Cale. We accepted an invitation to take a ride with the latter, so we can say we had a sleigh ride January 3, 1916.

The cold weather of January 1 froze the water pipes at Smith's and caused a break of 20 feet of them.

LITTLE ROSE BUD.

The Metropolitan Company.

Inquiries concerning seats for the concert to be given Thursday indicate a good-sized house. The attraction has been extremely advertised, especially in musical circles.

Skovgaard, the Danish violinist, Francis W. Cowles, baritone; Florence Hawkins, soprano; Clara Freuler, mezzo-soprano; Molly Byerly Wilson, contralto, together with Alice McClung, pianist, are all artists in their respective lines; in fact artists so well known that it is seldom that a city the size of Albany gets to hear them.

A high class concert that every person possessing a whit of music must enjoy, is guaranteed.

Miss Bell in Corvallis.

Miss Bessie Bell, a teacher in the Albany schools, came to Corvallis this morning on an over-Sunday visit to her sister, Miss Sadie Bell, a member of the local teaching corps. Both young ladies formerly resided in this city, leaving a few years ago to make their home near Albany.

CITY NEWS

Albany Man Among Jays.

An Albany man insisted on going into Manager Small's picture show at half price the other night because he said he had only one eye. But Small told him it would take twice as long to see the show as a man with two eyes and charged him double.—Corvallis G. T.

Weather Report.

Yesterday's temperature ranged between 25 and 42 degrees. The snow fall was .03 inches. The river stands at 6.9 feet.

Musical Class to Meet.

The class in musical appreciation will meet in the college chapel Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. This will be the first meeting of the new year. The music of Beethoven will be studied.

O. A. C. to Name Coach.

The athletic board of the Oregon Agricultural College is holding a meeting today at Corvallis, considering the selection of a coach for the 1916 football season. Dr. Stewart's resignation to accept the University of Nebraska offer makes a new coach imperative. Mark Weatherford, of this city, is a member of the board.

New Girl at Newtons.

A girl was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Newton, of Geary street. Mother and baby doing fine. Mrs. Newton is a daughter of W. A. Eastburn, who is quite chesty over being grandfather to another. The newest arrival gives Mr. and Mrs. Newton a pair, a boy and a girl.

Bud Anderson Went South.

Bud Anderson, once prominent as a fighter, passed along the coast last night, past Yaquina bay, on his way to Los Angeles, where he may attempt to fight again.

Twenty Hoboes.

Chief of Police Catlin reports twenty hoboes putting up at the City Hotel last night. They were glad to get in out of the cold, and keep up a fire during the night for the privilege of keeping warm. Two women of questionable character, who were in the city, were invited to go elsewhere, and went.

Y. M. C. A. Secretary.

Prof. Howell, the accomplished secretary of the O. A. C. Y. M. C. A., was in the city last evening, visiting the Y. M. C. A. here. He is doing a good work among the students of the college, making a specialty of Bible study, the college making character of the athletic part of the work.
