CONDICIONS LOOK BETTER. Dallas Observer: Generally improved conditions are noted throughout the Willamette Valley by John M. Scott, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific company.

the fox would climb a tree, while others were of the opinion that it could not. To settle the dispute Mr. Kimball wrote a letter to Col. Roosevelt, at Oyster Bay.

ton. Ford jokes should now increase in price. They may lick us at basketball this year, or anything else in the feet; but when it comes to brains our high school students are there with the gray matter.

Some of these fellows so hot to have Uncle Sam jump all over the Mexicans should be sent down there in the front line of attack.

He who yells the loudest is the quietest when it comes to action.

A match is innocent enough until it goes off.

Did your pipes freeze.

John Collins, of Eugene, certainly has reasons for a divorce. He recently returned from California, and of course offered to kiss his wife; but she said nay, and told him he had better get out. He got—also a lawyer.

Homer Wood would be p. m. of independence. So would many others; but Wood wouldn't withdraw though supposed to have no chance, and kept going, and is now there.

When we write those letters this week what will be said about our snow weather.

Oh, the snow the beau—bang! Obituary later.

Did you hear about the pitney touring over? No, where? "In a man's pocket in the west end of town."

The jingling bells are quiet compared with the jingoists at Washington.

4% SAVINGS DEPOSITS With the New Year come thoughts of better times, of making more money than we did last year, and of saving more.

A VERSATILE MAN Of course reference is had to T. R. Roosevelt. Roosevelt besides being an authority on the Bull Moose is supposed to have a general knowledge of things generally.

George Kimball, a local capitalist, has received a letter from Theodore Roosevelt, former president of the United States, in which the latter settled a "boarding house" dispute.

It appears that Mr. Kimball and a number of friends who board at the Bitzer home, on Jackson street, recently engaged in an argument as to whether a red fox would climb a tree. Several persons contended that
