Secretary McDonald reported good work done during the year: Thirty high school boys are registered in the Bible Study class and 22 boys in the class of boys from 12 to 15. Gospel teams did efficient work during the summer. During the year 9,000 baths were taken, there were 7,000 in the gym attendance, arranged in departments for boys, young men, college girls, and business men, with much interest in the work. The Boy Scouts were organized and had a fine hike during the summer.

CITY NEWS

District Ranger Here—

H. G. White, district forest manager of the Santiam District, with headquarters at Detroit, is in the city getting out his annual report and assisting with other work in the local office.

Injured at Sledding—

Miss Helen Lee is suffering from a badly strained side, the result of running into a tree while coasting. It was thought for a time that a rib was fractured.

Girl Hurt Coasting—

While coasting in Bryant's park last evening about 9:15 o'clock, Ruth Bussard met with a painful accident. With another girl she was coasting down a short hill, but was unable to make the turn at the required place and the sled pitched off of a high bank, Miss Bussard striking on her head in the hard snow.

Frank Ward Here—

Frank Ward, a prominent Salem druggist and member of the state board of pharmacy, is in the city on business connected with that board. Today he is visiting at the home of his father, Scott Ward, east of the city. He also visited with his brother, Fred Ward, and his brother-in-law, R. B. Westbrook.

A Daughter Arrives—

A baby girl was born last night to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Williamson, one of the finest in the opinion of Dr. B. R. Wallace, in the city. The little newcomer weighs over 10 pounds, and Mr. Williamson's associates in the First National Bank are insisting that each pound should represent a pound of candy for the employees. Both Mr. and Mrs. Williamson are doing fine. A girl and two boys now grace the Williamson home.

Went to Colorado—

Mrs. Kar Montgomery left yesterday for Colorado Springs, Col., where she was called on the illness of a member of her family.

H. Burchett Ill—

Hubert Burchett, the accommodating clerk at the S. P. depot, is one of the most recent victims of the grip. He is also recovering from an injury received from being in an overturned buggy.

Grange Master Here—

C. E. Spence, state master of the Grange, of Oregon City, is in the city today.

W. C. T. U. Open Thursday—

The W. C. T. U. hall will be kept open tomorrow from 9 to 5 o'clock as usual for the distribution of articles of clothing, etc. to the needy. People having discarded shoes, clothes or other goods suitable for this purpose should send them to the rooms near the corner of Second and Ferry streets.

See the Tramp—

If you want to see a typical tramp a real funny one, you should see the one in the Convict's Daughter tonight at the opera house.

Fine Dinner—

That was certainly some feed at the Christian church dining room this noon, enjoyed by a large crowd of Albany people. Beginning with some choice chicken pie, with the crust of pretty brown, and enough chicken for a Methodist minister, it ended with some delicious peach pie with whipped cream, with numerous ceteras in between. These church feeds give one a delightful change, offering scope to the bread and butter of daily life, with a social feature that is not the least, a mixture of different people of the city in good fellowship. Eats are quite a binding tie.

Dance Postponed—

The Wednesday evening dancing club, whose dance was to be given tonight, have postponed the event until a later date.

Died at Poor Farm—

Francis Dan Franks, aged 83 years, died at the Linn county poor farm this morning. No information of the deceased is obtainable. C. E. Greiser, superintendent of the farm, knowing nothing of his past life or family.

Bob Cat Skin—

Alex McDonald, of Caspasia, today brought in a bob cat skin and claimed $2 bounty from the county.

Shakespeare Club—

The Shakespeare Study Club will meet Thursday, 2:30 p. m., Jan. 20, at the home of Mrs. W. H. Davis, Third and Ellsworth streets.

Miss Dietrich Here—

Miss Ursula Dietrich, who will give a complimentary concert in the First Presbyterian church tomorrow evening, arrived in the city this morning from Salem, where she has recently entertained the music loving people of that city. She has her Artapello with her and will use it in her concert.

JAMES CRUZE HERE TONIGHT AT ROLFE THEATRE

Great interest attaches to the coming of "The Patriot and the Spy" at the Rolfe tonight on account of the appearance in the cast of James Cruze. Mr. Cruze, former hero in the "Million Dollar Mystery," was in Albany for awhile last summer while driving from New York to Los Angeles in his big Winton Six. The Democrat published a story on his passing at the time. But through a misunderstanding with a local theatre manager he would have appeared on the local stage in person.

Two of the greatest favorites in the picture world, Marguerite Snow and James Cruze, who were prominently concerned in the two popular serials, "The Twenty Million Dollar Mystery," and "The Million Dollar Mystery," head the cast of "The Patriot and the Spy." The story starts with a wedding. The solemn services concluded, the villagers gather around bride and groom and express their sincere good wishes—all but one, that is. This last is the girl's rejected suitor, a man nursing the hope of vengeance. During the years that follow two children bless a happy union, and the years flow blissfully along till the day of an accident. In rescuing his daughter from an automobile the husband is seriously injured. When he recovers, it is found that he must limp through life. Then war came—Europe divided into two hostile camps.

EAST LYNNE TO BE GIVEN AT OPERA HOUSE

Tomorrow night and balance of the week this famous old play will be seen at the Opera house, a play that never grows old, a play that perhaps millions of people have laughed and cried over, a play that will live for future generations, a play that is almost classic. This is the closing week for the Richardson & Talbert Company and more opportunities to see stardom in the people of Albany have but a few more opportunities to see this splendid company. Mr. Hughes keeps the house nice and warm and it is a pleasant place to spend a couple of hours in the evening.

Those who have seen the Convict's Daughter say that it is one of the best efforts of this company and will be presented for the last time tonight.

GLOBE THEATRE OFFERS THREE GOOD NUMBERS

The offering at the Globe theatre tonight is headed by a three act Biograph feature, "A Poor Relation," in which are featured the well known Thomas Jefferson, of Rip Van Winkle fame, Lillian Langdon and others.

C. M. Anderson is featured in a comedy, "Broncho Billy's Parents." "Hats is Hats" is the title of a funny comedy in which are featured Hughie Mack, Edwin Robbins and Donald McBride.

AVENGING CONSCIENCE TO BE SHOWN AT THE GLOBE

Much interest is being manifested here over the coming next Monday and Tuesday to the Globe theatre of D. W. Griffith's supreme achievement (and so styled by the producer of "The Birth of a Nation") "Avenging Conscience."

It is Mr. Griffith's second wonder picture and has the same cast as that other marvelous production, "The Birth of a Nation." Orton E. Goodwin and Sol Baum leased the Heilig Theatre in Portland to show the picture for one week. Capacity audiences were the rule, while on the last two days of the engagement hundreds were turned away. As a result of their success, Mr. Goodwin and Mr. Baum purchased the Oregon rights for "Avenging Conscience" at a price said to be higher than paid in many years for any other photo-play.

The cast includes Blanche Sweet, Henry B. Walthall, Mae Marsh, Spottiswoode Aitken, Robert Harron, Ralph Lewis, George Siegman, Josephine Crowell and many others of note.

"Avenging Conscience" is a picturization of Edgar Allen Poe's "Annabel Lee" and "The Telltale Heart." Griffith himself says: "Avenging Conscience" is my supreme achievement. It is greater than "The Birth of a Nation."

The story is a terrible picturization of the power of conscience. It illustrates the working of a diseased mind. It shows that mind flitting from heaven to hell. The clash between intellectuality and natural emotions results in a hypothetical series of dramatic incidents. The cast speaks for the acting.

GLYCERINE AND BARK PREVENT APPENDICITIS

The simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-ika, astonishes Albany people. Because Adler-ika acts on BOTH lower and upper bowel, ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. It removes such surprising foul matter that a few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. The INSTANT, easy action of Adler-ika is astonishing.
