INCREASED FINANCIAL VIGOR

Dun continues to make reports of a character to indicate a stability to the financial conditions of the country.

Preparations for the further extension of American enterprise are undertaken with increased vigor at the end of the holiday season.

A man down Coos Bay way is named T. T. Hee. Must be a good natured fellow.

An Oregon snow storm is a mere jinx compared with the eastern storms that last three or four months.

Really and honestly, even if we don't like snow, a little snap is a good thing.

Never mind the snow, write those letters anyway.

After a long hunt the funny men have discovered a lawyer at Dunphy.

Even state fair boards have to have their wars. It is in the atmosphere.

The war is making American millionaires by leaps and bounds.

With enormous profits steel and ammunition manipulators are basking in the sunshine of wealth.

Chas. Schwab is again on the front page, after being relegated to the bottom of the market report page for several years.

Would like to see Harry Thaw or some other Thaw around.

"9. I will be a gentleman—a lady.

MISFITS

A Newberg editor admits that he never saw Misfits. Think of the vacuum in that editor's life.

A few more corpses hung up on the trees of Mexico and Villa and his men may decide to be good. Villa's should be the next one.

The world feels very sorry for Montenegro. Most of the cussedness in the Balkans in the last 100 years, had an origin in or near Montenegro—Medford Sun.
