SOCIETY

Miss Mae C. Tillman Society Editor. Bell Phone 315-R. Home 2156

The home of Mr. Maxwell at Shedd was the scene of a happy birthday party on Thursday, when Mr. Maxwell celebrated his eightieth birthday. Sixteen relatives were present and passed the day, chatting around the fire side. At noon a dainty luncheon was served by his sister, Mrs. J. Bell. Additional guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Monosmith, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Curry (Albany), Mr. E. G. Pugh and daughter Lora, Agnes, Edith, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Maxwell and children, Ernest, Dorothy, Eva and baby Ethel, of Shedd.

In compliment to Messrs. F. M. Powell, A. Austin, F. E. Van Tassel and Walton Worrell, who are celebrating their birthday today, Mrs.

Walton Worrell will preside over a seven o'clock dinner this evening. Red carnations will center the attractive table and dainty place cards will mark covers for Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Schmitt, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. A. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Van Tassel, Mr. and Mrs. Walton Worrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Pirtle were hosts for the "Covered Dish Club" on Monday at dinner. The latter part of the evening was pleasantly passed in playing five hundred. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hogan were complimented guests on this occasion.

The H. D. W. club members were entertained on Thursday at the home of Mrs. McAlpin on East Third street. A few pleasant hours were passed in sewing, after which a dainty collation was served. Mrs. R. S. Willis, Mrs. Craw (Portland), and Mrs. Thomas were honored guests.

Mrs. R. A. Marsh was a charming hostess on Monday, when she entertained for the members of the Kosy Korner Klub, at her home on West Fifth street. The evening was pleasantly passed in fancy-work and at a late hour, a dainty repast was served. The members present included Mesdames Baltimore, Tomlinson, Warner, Jackson, Turner, Reeves, Shupp, and Marsh. The complimented guests were Misses Mae and Eva Hughes, Olga Jackson, Stella Pittman, Margaret Baltimore and Mrs. McDonald.

Mrs. G. E. Riggs entertained the members of her bridge club on Wednesday. The guests made up three tables at cards and in the late afternoon, a choice collation was served. The hostess complimented Mrs. Brandeberry, Mrs. Fish and Mrs. Pugh on this occasion.

Mrs. W. A. Long was hostess for the members of the Kill-Kare club on Thursday, at her home on Main street. A few social hours were passed in fancy-work after which each lady was given a stick of gum, out of which she was told to make an animal or bird, which, when finished, made an odd collection. Mrs. C. E. Schmitt won the prize and Mrs. P. Terluhn was awarded the booby prize. A pleasant afternoon was drawn to a close by the hostess serving a dainty luncheon, assisted by Mrs. Wayne Long and Miss Valora Scott. Additional ladies present were Mesdames O. H. McFerran, L. A. McFerran, Charles Scott and W. A. Sharp.

The ladies of the Rural Ladies' club were delightfully entertained on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Allen. Needle-work was the pastime of the afternoon, after which a dainty repast was served. The members present included Mesdames P. F. Altermatt, Nelson Altermatt, Ralston, Barber, School, Virgil Looney, Will Looney, Fisher, Smith, Enrich, Allen, Misses Nancy Ralston, Norah and Lucy Ashton and Mildred Allen Mrs. Coons and Misses Helen and Hallie Myers of Albany were complimented guests.

The Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church met Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors. "China" was the subject of the afternoon and each lady was prepared with an item on the subject to tell the lady who sat at her right. After the lady progressed a couple of times, Mrs. Geselbracht gave a splendid talk on the "Lady of America and the Lady of China." Needle-work was the latter part of the afternoon's diversion, followed by choice refreshments, served by Mrs. Frances Pfeiffer and Mrs. Fred Fortmiller.

Miss Greta Fortmiller was a delightful hostess on Thursday, when she entertained the young ladies of her sewing club. Fancy-work and music made up the evening's pleasure and at a late hour a dainty collation was served. Those present included Mrs. Reade Dowlin, Misses Mae and Claire Tillman, Misses Mabel Schultz, Pera Wilkins, Stella Dorgan, Kate Stewart and Volena Smith.

Mrs. L. L. Swan entertained the ladies of the Entre Nous club on Tuesday. "Bridge" was the game played, and in the late afternoon, a choice collation was served. The honored guests included Mesdames T. G. Hopkins, W. G. Ballack, J. R. Hulbert, John Simpson, Cecil Cathey, and Montgomery.

Mrs. Edwin F. Fortmiller and Miss Zona Haight were hostesses for the Alpha Omega Girls, at dinner on Monday. Seated around the attractively decked table were Mrs. D. W. Merrill, Mrs. L. Reade Dowlin, Misses Marion Anderson, Anna and Janet Dawson, Lora Taylor, Kate Stewart, Helen Hulbert, Stella Dorgan and the hostesses. The latter part of the evening was passed at the Globe theatre.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Lee extended the hospitality of their home this week to the members of the Monday club. Mrs. J. C. Irvine presided and Judge H. H. Hewitt read a splendid paper on "Napoleon," which was followed by a discussion led by Dr. F. H. Geselbracht, and Dr. F. G. Franklin. A dainty luncheon rounded out the evening's pleasure.

Last Monday little Robert Young, son of Rev. G. H. Young, pastor of the Baptist church, celebrated his fifth birthday with a birthday party, to which he invited his Sunday school class, the mothers and his teacher, Mrs. J. R. Baltimore. Twenty-two little boys and girls had a merry time from three o'clock until five, playing games and enjoying Robert's birthday cake and ice cream.

Mr. Burkhardt's class of young men, the Agogas, entertained Mrs. Burkhardt's class of young ladies, the Amotnas, on Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Way. There were about thirty of these Baptist young people there and had a royal good time until a late hour, playing progressive games, interspersed with music. The boys prepared and served the refreshments, demonstrating beyond a doubt that boys are apt pupils in domestic science. Mrs. Way also testifies that never was her kitchen cleaner than after the boys had washed and put away the dishes.

The largest event of the season took place on Tuesday in the Elks' Temple, when the Elks gave their twenty-third annual dance. Hendershott's seven piece orchestra (Eugene) furnished excellent music during the evening. Mr. Walter Parker, the exalted ruler and Mrs. Parker lead the grand march, followed by about fifty couple. A dainty luncheon was served in the dining room, throughout the evening. A pleasant feature of the evening was the excellent singing of Mr. Tom Ordman of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Panck entertained a few friends Wednesday evening, "500" being the diversion of the evening, after which dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Pate, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hofflich, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. B. Veal, and Mr. and Mrs. F. Meister.

At the U. P. church last night the ladies of the church gave a fifteen cent social, well attended, of a live order, with numerous things to do during the evening, J. W. Barton being game leader. An old fashioned spelling match was had; a novel contest was a suit case race between two sides, in the shape of a relay. Each contestant opened a suit case, took out a coat, hat and pair of gloves, which they were to put on, raise an umbrella and run across the room, sign their name, return and replace articles, being followed by the next person in line. Partners for lunch were secured by matching the names of distinguished people, from Mr. and Mrs. Julius Caesar down to Gov. and Mrs. West.

The Neous Nymphs club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Archie Metzgar on Friday. Fancy work was enjoyed during the afternoon and a business meeting was held at which extensive plans were made for the club activities for the coming year. The club colors were also chosen and each member giving a current event in response to the roll call. At the close of the afternoon the hostess served a delicious lunch from the chafing dish. Most of the members were present.

The sophomore class of the high school gave a "hard time party" last night at the home of Miss Janet Dawson and games and music were the diversions of the evening, until a late hour, when refreshments were served.

Mrs. D. H. Bodine was a charming hostess on Friday, when she entertained the Kumtux club members. Fancy-work made up the afternoon's pleasure, followed by a choice collation. Mrs. Church and Mrs. McQuown were complimented guests.

The Neous Nymphs club members and their husbands will compose a theatre party Saturday evening to witness "Carmen," after which they will give a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Viereck.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA "THE MAGIC LAND OF PALMS AND FLOWERS"

Southern California has much to offer you this winter. City or country, mountain or beach resorts all are inviting. The Panama-California Exposition at San Diego will remain open another year—bigger and better than ever. But Southern California offers something even greater than this. It is the ever-present and delightful.

Sunshine and Flowers

Roses in bloom, Oranges and Lemons ripening on the trees, Poppies and Geraniums everywhere. This is the real California. The expense of a trip to Southern California is not great.

Low Round Trip six-month tickets are on sale daily from all Pacific Northwest points. Stopovers are allowed at pleasure. Through car service on limited trains, through dining car and observation cars make the all-rail route the delightful way to go.

Ask your local agent or write John M. Scott, General Passenger Agt. Portland, Ore.
