PREPAREDNESS TALK.

Minneapolis News: This newspaper has consistently opposed a program of preparedness for war.

We have believed a huge army and a huge navy to be a contradiction of the very theory of a republic.

But President Wilson has said substantially in a public speech to his fellow citizens, "If you could read for an hour the messages which come to me every day, you would realize, as I realize, that no man can foresee what a day may bring forth."

The people pay for the enormous salaries paid movie artists. The local movie houses pay several times what they should for some of the films.

Over in Eastern Oregon the snow was so deep linemen could stand on top of the snow and fix the broken wires.

In the village of Pendleton it took thirty-three men to clean the streets during the deep snow.

Ex-Gov. Dix wants the Mexicans to fix things themselves by a vote of annexation.

Mexico ought to be thoroughly nationalized by the time several more revolutions are ended.

Villa has now been surrounded enough to be squeezed.

We thought it rained here, but read this from the S. F. Chronicle: It keeps Up its lick, It never ceases; It weeps Till we're sick of wet sky-pieces.

MISFITS

Some are born notorious and some have notoriety thrust upon them by their deeds. The four bank robbers of Chicago have been shown all over the United States.

The geniuses continue to grow. One has figured out that if you take two letters from money you have one, but if you take money from two letters you go to the pen.

Linotype Got Mixed. (From Terre Haute, Ind., Star.) The woman, pointing to a man who stood near, declared he had spoken to her and then had seized her by the adm. TDhoacy Sb-ff standngx emf cutwyp.

Albany continues to lead the world. A business man has been reproved for giving overweight.

Whether for fun or not a thing is a crime if of a criminal character.

No one has a right to make a law for ones self whether a student or a Russian.

A Eugene man is named ME Sweet. Eastern mail seemed glad to get here after a troublesome trip across the continent.

Thrift day passed without being discovered very much.
