"INSPIRATION"

The Daring Romance of An Artist's Model

Tells of the wonderful adventures of a country girl adrift in a great city, who overcomes every obstacle and becomes the most famous model in the world.

BEAUTIFUL---WONDERFUL---BEWITCHING

THE TALK OF THE SILENT STAGE

Not a vulgar display of feminine forms, but a photoplay founded on the life of a famous model and interspersed with a studio scene showing Miss Munson in poses artistic and classic.

HER FIRST MOTION PICTURE WORK

AUDREY MUNSON
"THE AMERICAN VENUS"

"Miss Munson," said one of New York's most prominent sculptors recently, "is beyond a shadow of a doubt, the nearest approach to a modern Venus that has ever been my good fortune to meet. I am not alone in this opinion, I might add, because a number of my friends, for whom Miss Munson has posed at various times, agree with me in this assertion."

AUDREY MUNSON

Was selected from hundreds of beautiful women to pose for the official statuary of the Panama Exposition.

CALLAMETTE NAME OF NEW
GRANGE JUST ORGANIZEDBetween the Two Rivers It
Takes the Name of Both Streams.

A new grange was organized at the Riverside school house Wednesday evening, Feb. 9 with 51 charter members. State Master C. E. Spence, State Deputy C. J. Hurd, of Eugene, assisted by County Deputy Archie Miller, did the organizing. The name of the new grange is Callamette, derived from the two rivers which bound this grange jurisdiction on the east, north and west.

The following officers were elected: Master, W. E. Withey; overseer, Will Caldwell; lecturer, Chas. Master; secretary, Fred Chase; assistant steward, Dent Stewart; chaplain, Margaret Bayne; treasurer, H. H. Eastman; secretary, Bertha J. Beck; gate keeper, Geo. Anderson; Ceres, Dora B. Stewart; Pomona, Florence Eastman; Flora, Hannah Anderson; L. A. S., Ethel Caldwell.

An unusual amount of enthusiasm was displayed and there is every prospect of a very successful grange. The country club is to hold an entertainment on the evening of Feb. 19. They very kindly offered to hold a basket social in connection with the entertainment, the proceeds to go toward a grange hall fund. The next meeting to be held will be Feb. 26 at 10:30 a. m.
